

CALL OF THE STATE CONVENTION.

It will be seen, by the abjoined proceedings, that the Democratic State Central Committee have promptly performed a solemn and important duty. Their action will, beyond all doubt, meet the cordial approbation of the whole party.

ADDRESS

Of the State Central Committee.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania!

It has become the painful duty of the Democratic State Central Committee to announce to their fellow-citizens the death of their distinguished candidate, HENRY A. MULLENBERG. In the midst of his family, surrounded by his friends, and apparently enjoying a vigorous health, he was suddenly struck down by apoplexy late in the evening of Saturday, the 10th of August, 1844, and soon ceased to exist. His kindred have lost a cherished object of affectionate veneration—his country has lost one of her wisest, purest and most useful sons—and his republican associates have lost a champion of whose private virtues they were proud, and under whose auspices they were harmoniously hastening to achieve a great political triumph!

A calamity such as this must be impressive to all. Let us not, however, usurp the right which belongs to others, of adequately doing honor to the memory of the deceased. Let us remember that we have peculiar and sacred duties to discharge, which no regrets or sympathies, however profound, should be permitted to interrupt or retard.

Your committee having rapidly met on this distressing occasion, and having carefully considered the nature and extent of their powers, came to the unanimous conclusion that it was incumbent upon them, without delay, to call together again, at this place, and at the earliest practicable period, the Democratic Convention held on the 4th of March last. Sufficient time yet remains to enable this representative body to ascertain, and formally to announce the sentiments of their constituents, in designating, as a substitute for the lamented Mullenberg, a Democratic candidate for the Chief Executive office of the State. The following was therefore adopted:

Resolved, That the afflicting decease of Henry A. Mullenberg be forthwith announced to the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and that the members of the Democratic Convention held on the 4th of March last, be earnestly requested to re-assemble at Harrisburg, on MONDAY, the 2d of SEPTEMBER, 1844, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for the office of Governor.

Democrats! it is in exigencies such as the present, that your devotion to the cause of Liberty and your Country, and your unconquerable energies can be best exhibited! Let every man now, in this hour of affliction, show the spirit that is in him! A good and glorious leader has fallen as he was conducting you to victory! Let your own ranks supply his place, and without making a single halt, press onward to the success before you.

State Central Committee,
Harrisburg, August 13, 1844.

The State Central Committee have also addressed the following circular letter to each member of the Convention:

HARRISBURG, August 13, 1844.

SIR:—The sudden death of HENRY A. MULLENBERG, our gubernatorial candidate, has made it necessary that immediate steps should be taken to supply his place on our ticket.—The Central Committee have deemed it their duty to adopt, without delay, the necessary measures for the re-assembling of the Convention of the 4th of March last, as the proper course in an emergency so pressing, and in an interval so limited previous to the election.—As a member of that Convention, you are, therefore, requested to meet again at Harrisburg, on MONDAY, the 2d of SEPTEMBER, 1844, at 10 A. M., to nominate a Candidate for the office of Governor.

Respectfully your friends and servants,
SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

A SLIGHT ERROR.—The Catholic Herald has re-published the Pope's circular in Latin. From the Philadelphia Gazette—which is excellent authority in this case—we learn that the translation which made the Pope say some hard things against our Bible societies was incorrect. The Gazette gives the Latin and the translation, observing that the word "super" should be interpreted "in regard to" or "concerning," which we copy.

Confirmamus insuper et renovamus Auctoritate Apostolica super memoratis praescriptions laudanda ad ista super, divulgatione, lectione et possessione librorum Sacrae Scripturae in vulgaribus linguis translationum.

Which we translate thus:—
"Moreover, we confirm and renew, by apostolical authority, the above mentioned ordinances, long since promulgated, in regard to the publication, distribution, reading and the possession of the books of Sacred Scripture translated into the common tongues."

Incompetency of Gen. Markle.

At a meeting recently held in South Huntingdon township, Westmoreland county, the residence of Gen. Markle, the Whig nominee for Governor, the following resolutions declaring his utter incompetency, were adopted. The testimony is highly important, coming as it does from the immediate neighbors of, and those who best know Gen. Markle:—

Resolved, That although many of us are personally friendly and near neighbors, and are all fellow citizens of the same township with General Markle, we cannot support him for Governor, and when the ballot box speaks it will be found that a large majority of citizens of this township concur in this opinion.

Resolved, That the fact of the Federal nominee for Governor, who has twice been beaten in his own county, once for the Legislature and once for Congress, and the fact of his falling behind his federal colleague in his own township for the Legislature, shows clearly, that they who know him best CONSIDER HIM WHOLLY UNFIT TO FILL THE EXECUTIVE CHAIR.

Resolved, That we will give our hearty support to Henry A. Mullenberg the favorite son of Democratic Berks, for the office of Governor—because he is fully competent—because the integrity of his private life is unimpeachable—and because his political principles are those of a true and tried Democratic Republican.

Resolved, That in Henry A. Mullenberg we find a Democrat of the Jeffersonian School, a true friend of the patriotic Jackson, through all the war he had with that iniquitous, swindling scheme, the United States Bank.

Resolved, That although many of us preferred Mr. Shank before the nomination, yet now when the nomination is made, we cheerfully sacrifice our past preferences, and yield all past causes of dissatisfaction, for the sake of union and harmony in the Democratic party, and pledge ourselves to sustain the nomination as faithfully as if the selection had fallen on our first choice.

Mr. Polk on a United States Bank.

What course will Mr. Polk take in relation to the Bank question if elected? In answer to this question we have his own declaration and pledge:—

"I am opposed to the Chartering by Congress of a National Bank—I believe that Congress possesses no constitutional power to charter such a bank, and if it did, it would, in my opinion, be inexpedient to exercise it."

This in few words is the Democratic doctrine as to a Bank—that the incorporation of such an institution is both UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND INEXPEDIENT. All who are opposed to the creation of another Biddle Bank, should support this doctrine by supporting the candidate who supports it. Remember that Henry Clay avows himself to be "IN FAVOR of a National Bank."

2,000 Gain in one County.

"Fling out your banner to the breeze,
Raise ye the shout from cot and palace,
We'll follow your Clay with perfect ease,
With Col. Polk and George M. Dallas.

We are permitted to publish the following noble letter, addressed to a friend in this place, and written for his eye alone, by one of the most prominent Democrats in Ohio. It will be perceived that in the county of Hamilton, which gave a majority of 38 votes for Gen. Harrison in 1840, the Democracy are now sanguine of casting two thousand for YOUNG HICKORY, DALLAS and TOD—thus making a change since the last Presidential election of more than 2,000 votes.

CINCINNATI, June 17, 1844.

MY DEAR MAJOR—Give me your hand—I want a hearty shake of it, for I feel good to the fingers end. The fires of Old Hickory are re-kindled in the cause of Young Hickory; and the hill tops, valleys and prairies are in a common blaze. Neither before nor since the days of '28 and '32, have I witnessed such enthusiasm amongst the Democrats. We all feel like shouting, but we all want to work while we shout. Such is the feeling and disposition in this region of the State among the Democracy, and nothing short of 2,000 will satisfy us in Old Hamilton.

Mr. Clay and Gov. Polk on the Tariff.

We place, side by side, extracts from two letters, and defy the most skilful logicians to point out a shade of difference between them:

MR. CLAY.

"The sum and substance of what I conceive to be the true policy of the U. States, in respect to a Tariff, may be briefly stated. In conformity with the principle announced in the Compromise Act, I think that whatever revenue is necessary to an economical and honest administration of the General Government, ought to be derived from duties, imposed on foreign imports. And I believe that in establishing a Tariff of those duties, such a discrimination ought to be made, as will incidentally afford reasonable protection to our national interests.—[Letter to Mr. Brown, of Ga., Sept. 13, 1842.]

Gov. Porter for Annexation.

We find the following notice in the "Harrisburg Argus," of the 8th inst.

"Married, on Thursday morning, the 8th inst., by His Excellency David R. Porter, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, James L. PRICE, of Philadelphia, to Miss Maria, daughter of Matthew Wilson, Esq., of this place."

"THERE IS DANGER IN THE MINES."

Almost every day, in this region, the solemn truth is brought home, to us that "in the midst of life we are in death."

"The spiders most attenuated thread,
Is cord, is cable, to man's hold on earthly bliss."

Few men have more "hair breadth escapes," or are more continually exposed to casualties, accidents and sudden death than our miners. "There is danger in the mines." The consequence of danger may, it is true, sometimes be averted by carefulness. But more frequently, the accident is sudden almost as the lightning stroke; before a cloud has cast the gloom of its shadow to warn, the victim has fallen. We have this week to notice one of these melancholy and disastrous occurrences, which took place at Messrs. Milnes & Spencer's mines, on Friday night last, at about 10 o'clock, by which three men, HENRY FOX, JONATHAN NIXON and JOHN RICKET were buried in the twinkling of an eye, to render their final account. It is a providence that this accident should have happened just when it did: at any other time the destruction of life would have been immense, as from forty to fifty hands are employed in this mine during the day.

This colliery was worked below water level a few years since, by Doct. G. G. Palmer, and was abandoned and suffered to fill up with water. The above named firm sunk a new shaft, to the depth of about three hundred feet, below the old workings, and were engaged in taking out Coal, as they approached the old workings, they found it necessary to run up a shaft to tap and gradually draw off the water by boring, for the purpose of preventing the very accident that occurred. As no danger was apprehended from the distance they were supposed to be from the old workings, (upwards of seventy feet, when twenty or thirty were deemed safe in solid coal,) these men were pursuing their work in this shaft, on the night shift. But one hour before the Agent had left the works, and all was safe. The pressure of the water however from above, from some cause or other, forced itself through and instantaneously filled the mines, burying the unfortunate men in an accumulation of coal and dirt more than three hundred feet below the surface. The accident is described as having been sudden and startling; the man at the Engine heard a rumbling, rushing noise; the Engine stopped and the buildings trembled as if convulsed by an earthquake—in a minute all was quiet again. He attempted to descend into the mines, and found in them about three hundred feet of water. It is supposed that this water must have forced itself through a fissure in the slate.—Miners' Journal.

No State Election takes place in Tennessee this year. They elect State officers every two years—and that election was held last year.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

MR. EDITOR:—Myself and neighbors are decidedly in favor of again nominating EDWARD Y. BRIGHT, as the Democratic candidate for the Assembly. Mr. Bright made a very good member—he was active and industrious—always at his post, and did his duty faithfully. He was chairman of a very important Committee, and one that required a great deal of attention and labor. His appointment to the station shows that he had the respect and confidence of his fellow members, and they say that he never sent a more industrious and active member.

Mr. Bright took an active and leading part in retrenching the expenses of the Legislature, and in introducing principles of economy into every branch of the Government. He was on the Committee of Accounts, through whose exertions the reform which distinguished the last Legislature was brought about. He went about saving the people's money in earnest. A few days after the opening of the session, he offered a resolution which became a law, giving the Public Printing and Binding to the lowest bidder. This measure alone will save about TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS annually.

It was suspected that great frauds had been committed by the printers under former laws. The Committee on Accounts set about the investigation of these accounts with a determination to ferret out the frauds. Mr. Bright was one of the most industrious and persevering members of that Committee. The result was that overcharges of the printers, to the amount of thirteen thousand dollars, were discovered and suits directed to be brought to recover that sum back into the Treasury.

The contingent expenses of the last Legislature were not one fifth of the expenses of the preceding year. Some $15 or $20,000 were saved to the Commonwealth in this matter alone, by the care and economy of the Committee of Accounts.

Mr. Bright then has done his duty faithfully and honestly. He has carried out the wishes of the people, and ought to be re-elected unanimously. Honor to whom honor is due. Let the faithful public servant be rewarded, and the best interests of the people will be faithfully represented.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the following described Valuable Property, all of which he will sell at very moderate prices, and on reasonable terms, viz:—

HOUSES & LOTS.

No. 1. A large and elegant two story stone mansion house with basement story, all highly finished and situated on the east side of Market street, in Selinsgrove, Union county, being the residence of the subscriber. The lot on which this house stands is very handsomely improved, and planted with choice fruit and ornamental trees and shrubs, with all the necessary improvements of a large barn, pigstye, wagon shed and corn crib, carriage house, ice house, smoke house and poultry yard. The whole constituting a most desirable and beautiful residence.—Price, $5,500.

No. 2. A large two story wooden house with extensive back buildings, and highly improved garden and lot of ground. This property is situated north of and adjoining No. 1, and also forms a desirable residence.—Price, 1,500.

No. 3. A two story wooden house with lot of ground, situated on the east side of Water street, in Selinsgrove, well finished throughout, with log stable on the rear of the lot.—Price, 500.

No. 4. A two story wooden house with one story kitchen, and a log stable on the rear of the lot, situated north of and adjoining the last named property, No. 3. A well and pump, to accommodate this and No. 3, in the yard.—Price, 500.

No. 5. A lot of ground in the town of Charlestown, on the Isle of Que, situated on — street, 40 by 160 feet. A desirable lot for a dwelling house.—Price, $200.

No. 6. A lot of ground adjoining Selinsgrove and Penns creek, and fronting on Walnut street, containing about half an acre of ground.—Price, $200.

CANAL PROPERTY & WARE & STORE HOUSES.

No. 7. A very valuable property on the Pennsylvania Canal, on the Isle of Que, adjoining Selinsgrove. The improvements are such as to facilitate mercantile and trading business to a great extent, and consist of a large two story frame house, occupied as a dry goods store; a large and commodious ware house, 40 by 80 feet; a long range of stabling; and an extensive wharf, 400 feet long, with hoisting crane, &c. It is situated on the berm bank side of the canal, and in every respect calculated for an extensive business.—Price, 5,000.

BOAT YARD AND DRY DOCK.

No. 8. A large and convenient Boat Yard on the Pennsylvania Canal, and lying south of and adjoining No. 7. On this property is erected a one and a half story frame dwelling house, well finished; a large shed and office for the accommodation of boat builders, and also a very complete dry dock, into which boats for repair are floated out of the canal, and into which new boats erected on the yard are also launched. A very desirable property.—Price, $2,000.

FARM OF 200 ACRES.

No. 9. A large and exceedingly valuable farm, containing about 200 acres of choice limestone land, in a highly improved state. On this farm there are about 140 acres under culture, divided by good fences into fields of ten acres; a large two story house with kitchen attached; a well and pump of excellent water at the kitchen door; a large and convenient barn with wagon house, sheds and corn crib attached; a large press house with every convenience for making cider, at the foot of the orchard, which consists of ten acres of choice grafted apple trees and pear trees. Limestone is quarried in any quantity within 100 yards of the farm buildings, where lime is burned. It lays within one mile of the Pennsylvania Canal and Selinsgrove. A very desirable farm.—Price, $12,000.

FARM OF 220 ACRES.

No. 10. One other large and valuable farm of about 220 acres of limestone land, and also situated within one mile of the canal at Selinsgrove. It is well improved, there being about 130 acres well fenced and under culture, the balance being well timbered with oak, pine, walnut and chestnut timber. The buildings consist of a large and well finished two story frame house with kitchen; a large barn with wagon shed and corn crib, &c. attached; a spring house and new frame spring near the house; a smith shop, and two lime kilns, capable of burning one hundred bushels lime per day, built adjoining an exhaustless limestone quarry. There are also three orchards of bearing apple trees on this farm.—Price, $10,000.

FARM OF 250 ACRES.

No. 11. A farm on Penns Creek, about 3 1/2 miles from the canal at Selinsgrove, with the public road leading from Selinsgrove to New Berlin, the seat of justice of Union county, running through it. It contains about 250 acres, of which there are about 30 acres of first rate meadow land, the balance upland and principally red shale. About one hundred acres are cleared, the balance being well covered with oak, hickory and white pine timber. The buildings consist of a well finished two story frame house with several fine springs of water close at hand, a large log barn, corn crib, spring house, &c. On this farm there is a mill site with 20 feet fall, on a stream of water tributary to Penns creek. This farm might be advantageously divided into two farms, and will be so divided if purchasers desire it.—Price, $5,000.

WATER POWER.

No. 12. A water power on Penns Creek, of 6 1/2 feet fall, unimproved. It is situated between the two tracts of land, Nos. 11 and 13, and within 25 miles of the Pennsylvania Canal, at Selinsgrove. A public road leads through this tract, along the east bank of Penns creek.—Price, $500.

WATER POWERS & WOODLAND.

No. 13. A tract of woodland containing about 75 acres, situated on Penns creek, immediately opposite No. 12. This tract is well covered with white oak and pine timber, with Wolf run flowing through it and emptying into Penns creek, affording an excellent site for a saw mill with from twelve to twenty feet fall.—Price, $1,500.

WATER POWER.

No. 14. A tract of woodland, unimproved, situated on the east side of Penns creek, adjoining No. 13, containing about 200 acres of excellent red shale upland. Wolf run tributary to Penns creek, runs through this tract, and affords a superior site for a saw mill. The land is heavily set with white oak and pine timber, and is susceptible of being converted into an excellent farm.—Price, $3,000.

No. 15. One other tract of woodland, unimproved, situated in Penns township, about 3 miles from Selinsgrove, adjoining lands of John Baily, G. Smith and others, containing 187 acres and 125 perches of excellent red shale upland. Wolf run also passes through this land, affording fine water power. The land is well covered with white oak and pine timber, and is susceptible of being converted into an excellent farm.—Price, $2,800.

No. 16. A tract of woodland, unimproved, situated in Union township, adjoining lands of M. Chas. Sanders and others, and not more than one mile from Sunbury, on the opposite side of the river Susquehanna, containing about 115 acres. This land is very good red shale soil, capable of being converted into an excellent farm. A stream of water, tributary to the river, flows through this land, sufficiently strong for a saw mill. The land is well covered with white oak and pine timber.—Price, $2,100.

No. 17. A tract of unimproved woodland, situated in Centre township, Union county, containing 100 acres, adjoining lands of J. Wittmeyer and others. Middleburg is within three miles, and Middle creek within one mile. There is a saw mill on the tract of land adjoining, at which the timber of this tract can be wrought into boards and other sawed stuff.—Price, $300.

In consideration of the scarcity of money at this time, I will sell any or all the above property on terms to suit the times; and in case cash be offered, a reasonable deduction will be made. Further particulars may be obtained by addressing the subscriber at Selinsgrove, Union
