DESPERATION.

The following is a passage from the laughable tale of desperation, one of the rich articles which are embraced in the literary remains of the late Willis Gaylord Clark. It is only necessary to premise that the writer is a Philadelphia student, who, after a stolen fortnight amid the gaieties of a Washington season, finds himself (through the remissness of a chum) at Baltimore on his way home, without a penny in his pocket. He stops at a fashionable hotel, nevertheless, where, after tarrying a day or two, he finally, at the heel of a grand dinner, "omnes solus" in his private apartments, flanked with abundant Champaigne and Burgundy, resolves to disclose all to his landlord. Summoning a servant, he says:

" Ask the landlord to step up to my room and bring his bill."

He clatters down stairs, giggling, and shortly thereafter his master appeared. He entered with a generous smile, that made me hope for the best his house afforded, and that, just then,

"How much do 1 owe you," said I. He handed me the bill with all the grace of private Office expectancy.

"Let me see-seventeen dollars. How very reasonable! But, my dear sir, the most disagreeable part of the matter is now to be disclosed. I grieve to inform you that at present I am out of money, but I know by your philanthropic looks that you will be satisfied when I tell you that if I had it, I would give it to you with unqualified pleasure.

"But you see my not having the change by me is the reason I cannot do it, and I am sure you will let the matter stand and say no more about it. I am a stranger to you, that's a fact ; but in the place where I came from, all my acquaintances know me, as easy as can be."

The landlord turned all colors. "Where do you live, any how ?"

"In Washing -- , I should say Philadelphia." His eyes flashed with angry disappointment, "I see how it is, mister; my opinion is that you are a blackleg. You don't know where your home is-you begin with Washington and then drop it for Philadelphia. You must pay the

"But I can't."

"Then I'll take your clothes; if I don't, blow me tight."

"Scoundrel !" said I, rising bolt upright, "do it if you dare! do it! and leave the rest to me!" There were no more words. He arose deliberately, seized my hat and my only inexpressibles, and walked down stairs.

Physicians say that two excitements can exist at the same time in one system. External circumstances drove away, almost immediately, the confusion of my brain.

I arose and looked out of the window. The snow was descending as I drummed on the pane. What was I to do ? An unhappy "sans cullotes" in a strange city, no money, and slightly inebriated. A thought struck me.

I had a large, full clouk, which, with all my other appointments, save those he took, the landlord had spared. I dressed immediately; drew on my boots over my fair drawers, not unlike small clother, put on my cravat, vest and coat; la da travelling cap from my trunk jauntily over my forehead, and flinging my fine long. Huntingdon Bank mantle gracefully about me, made my way through the hall into the street.

Attracted by shining lamps in the portico of a new hotel, a few squares from my first lodgings, I entered, recorded some name on the books, and bespoke a bed. Everything was fresh and nest; every servant attentive; all augered well. I kept myself closely cloaked, puffed a cigar, and retired to bed to mature my Wilkesbarre Bridge Co.

"Waiter, just brush my clothes well, my fine follow," said I, in the morning, as he entered my room. "Mind the pantaloons; don't spill any thing from the pockets; there is money in both."

"I don't see no pantaloons."

"The devil you don't ! Where are they !" "Can't tell I'm sure ; I don't know, s'elp me

"Go down, sir, and tell your master to come up here immediately." The publican was with me in a moment.

I had arisen and worked my face before the glass into a fiendish look of passion. "Landlord," exclaimed I with a fierce gesture, "I have been robbed in your house-robbed, sir, robbed! My pantaloons and a purse containing three fifty dollar notes are gone. This is a pretty hotel. Is this the way you fulfil the injunctions of scripture? I am a stranger, and I find myself taken in with a vengeance. I will expose you at once if I am not recompensed."

"Pray, keep your temper," said the agitated publican. "I have just opened this house, and it is getting a good run; would you ruin its re-putation for an accident! I will find out the State Bank* villain who has robbed you, and I will send for a tailor to measure you for your missing garment. Your money shall be refunded. Do you not see that your anger is useless !"

"My dear sir," I replied, "I thank you for your kindness. I did not mean to repreach you. If those trowsers can be done to-day, I shall be satisfied : for time is more precious than money. You may keep the others if you find them, and in exchange for the one hundred and forty dollars which you give me, their contents are yours."

The next evening, with new inexpressibles, and one hundred and forty dollars in my purse, I called on my guardian in Philadelphia for sixty dollars. He gave me it, with a lecture on collegiate dissipation, that I shall not soon for-I enclosed the money back to my honorable landlord, by the first post, settled my other bell at old Crusty's, the first publican, and got my trunk by mail.

OAKLEY'S

DEPURATIVE SYRUP. THE valuable properties of Oakley's Bepura-tive Syrup of Satsoparills, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every me that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the u most confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, vet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few botries, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body .- For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c., The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are

Mu. OAKLET :- I believe it the uty of every one to do whatever in their powerlies, for the bem fit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Deparative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I m st conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Deparative Syrup of Sarsaparida, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the u'cers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglassville, April 19th, 1843. MR. OAKLEY:-My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofela in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended Dr. Johnson of Nordistown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed unintercuptedly ever since, to the astenishment of many persons, who seen him do ing his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a Yours truly, medicine.

ROSE OINTMENT. FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE PACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary oures ever effected by any application. PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. OR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in viclence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if i ould burst-the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a grea many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as will as taking inward remedies ncluding a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Extract of Sarsoparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to coumerate all the medicines I used. was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its su-Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the crustion began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe n a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons (among them my mother who had the disease badon her arm,) who were all cured by it.

Rose Cintment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. PHIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applicavious without effecting a cure. About a year since. I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. MEDICAL APPROBATION Of the ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter. A LTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not besitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are pposed to secret Remedies. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836. I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insteted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. A though in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications.
