

A Dangerous Man.
There is a terrible fellow somewhere "down east" who ought not to be permitted to run at large. He threatens to play the very devil, and break things, all in consequence of his faithless gal. If he should happen to put his throat into execution, the Lord have mercy on us! His first threat is,
I'll grasp the loud thunder,
With lightning I'll play,
I'll read the earth asunder,
And kick it away.
That's attempting considerable for one man—however, if he has a mind to take the responsibility, and pay the damages, let him smack away—we are not afraid. He next says:
The rainbow I'll straddle,
And ride to the moon,
Or the ocean I'll paddle
In the bowl of a spoon.
That won't hurt anybody. Go-ahead, old chap, we like to encourage a laudable spirit of adventure.
I'll setfire to the fountain,
And swallow up the rill,
I'll eat up the mountain
And be hungry still.
Good gracious! is there no way to appease his wrath and stay his stomach? Must we suffer all this because he and his girl haven't anything to say to each other at present? No—never! down with him—down with him! we say.
The rain shall fall upwards,
The smoke shall tumble down,
I'll dye the grass purple
And paint the sky brown.
Hear that! a pretty word this would be, truly, with the rain falling up, the smoke tumbling down, the grass dyed purple, and the sky painted brown. We might as well live in an old boot with a dirty sole for the earth beneath, and brown upper leather for the heaven above.
The sun I'll put out,
With the whirlwinds play,
Turn day into night
And sleep it away.
There is no doubt if he cuts that caper, the sun will feel as much put out about it as we shall.—We leave it to the whirlwinds to say whether they are to be trifled with or not; and as for his turning day into night, and sleeping it away, we would just as lief he would as not—if he can do it.
I'll flog the young earthquake,
The weather I'll physic;
Volcanoes I'll strangle,
Or choke with the platic.
Oh, ho! he dare not clinch with an old earthquake, and so he threatens to flog a "young un" of the neuter gender! Coward! why don't you take one of your size?
The moon I'll smother
With nightmare and wo;
For sport, at each other,
The stars I will throw.
Serve them exactly right—they have no business to be out when they ought to be a-bed.
The rocks shall be preachers,
The trees do the singing,
The clouds shall be teachers,
And the comets go speering.
That's all well enough, except getting the comets upon a spree. We don't like that "pretty well."
I'll tie up the winds
In a bundle together,
And tickle their ribs
With an ostrich feather.
O, crackeys! now he does it! We didn't think it lay in the gizzard of mortal to do half as much.
Really, we think such a desperate and dangerous individual ought to be caught, cast into a spider's web, and safely guarded by one flea, two mosquitoes, and a vigilant wood-louse. There is no knowing what the chap may do.
FORTITUDE, gentlemen, fortitude. Faint not—lag not—keep up your courage and go on. Give up to-day, because a lion is in your path, and the veriest bugbear on earth will scare you to death to-morrow. Death has swept away every friend you had—not one is left to weep with you. Have fortitude. Another year will find you surrounded by those who love you. The sea has buried your treasure—the fire has devoured your dwellings. Fortitude—and you will secure your property again. Your bosom companions have proved treacherous—they heap vile abuse upon your name—to the winds of Heaven they spread your faults and foibles. Have courage, and the slanders will die away. A twelve month hence, and the grave of all of them will be dust. You are of business, sick and destitute, with none to speak an encouraging word. Have fortitude—bear up manfully, and your sorrows and pains and anxieties will disappear. Fight hard against depressed spirits, and dull, and melancholy thoughts and forebodings.
"In struggling with misfortunes, Lies the proof of virtue."
says Shakespeare—and so you will find. You had better die than lose your good spirits; for while you live you will be but a dunge, and a bone for every lubber to pick at. The very brutes will shun you, or stop to give you a bite as you pass along.—Portland Tribune.
A runaway apprentice is thus described in an eastern paper—"He is thick set, usually wears a glazed hat five feet high, and iron shod shoes with cross eyes."
"Will you take a pinch of snuff, Mr. Spriggins?" "No, I thank you; if my nose had been intended for a dust hole, it would have been turned 'other side up."

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.
THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the most confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating every seed of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrophulous Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Foutia, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the proprietor and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.
Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:
In Northumberland County—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwenville; D. Krauser, Milton.
In Union County—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutelius, Millburg.
In Columbia County—R. W. McGay, Washington.
Reading, March 14, 1843.
MR. OAKLEY:—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow men; and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I must conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers over that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered, the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it proved like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has no its equal.
JOHN MOYER, T. do., Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading, Pa.
Doughlassville, April 19th, 1843.
MR. OAKLEY:—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrophulous in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hyster, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the same healed, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons, who seen him do in his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.
Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.

ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER, RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.
The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.
PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
FOR TWENTY YEARS I was severely afflicted with Tetters on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times to such a degree, that it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them a several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her face,) who were cured by it.
JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St., Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by
H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetters. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.
PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.
THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years.
RICHARD SAVAEE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by
H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetters.
ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affliction which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he had had no fear. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discontinue and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenses, I feel in justice bound to certify the Rose Ointment, from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications.
DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by
H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.

WM. HEILMAN & CO., Commission & Forwarding Merchants, Foot of Willow Street Rail Road,
ON THE DELAWARE,
HAVING associated with them Joseph Barret, late of Easton, Pa., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and well known store and wharf at foot of Willow Street Railroad, lately occupied by Jacob Martin, where they propose doing a General Commission and Forwarding Business, and from the local advantages of the place being connected with all the public improvements that have their outlet in the city, they flatter themselves they will be able to do business to as great, if not greater advantage, and upon as reasonable terms as any other commission, and they assure their friends that any engagements made to them shall have their strict attention, and no exertions spared to give entire satisfaction.
They are also prepared to receive and forward goods to any point on the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, between Mauch Chunk, Easton and Philadelphia, via Delaware Division and Lehigh Canal; also, to any point on the Juniata river, or North and West Branches of the Susquehanna via Schuylkill and Union, or the Chesapeake and Tide Water Canals.
For the accommodation of Boats coming or going via Schuylkill and Union Canals, a Steamboat will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill around to the Delaware and back, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delaware, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent, on the prices for hauling across,—with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage.

MERCHANTS HOUSE,
No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.
JOHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr., late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.
This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort.
The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superior style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.
From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make the house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.
P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times.
Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.
