TRIAL OF ISRAEL DAWMON .-- We have seen a report of the trial of a man who is termed El-Lee, E.grs. The trial developes most shocking particulars, and convinces us more fully than before, that town and city authorities should interfere and arrest these sensual and demoralizing proceedings. They are as bad as the worst days of that arch scoundrel and fanatic, Cochran, who "led silly women captive," and despoiled the domestic peace of many a praceful and respectable family. A part of the evipublication.

Dammon was charged with being a vagabond, support his family, &c. He plead not guilty, the time of the trial, which lasted two days, Some of the witnesses testified that they saw detailed what they saw-showing that the con- | ther violence. duct of prisoner and his associates was abominable. To this point Mr. J. W. E. Harvey testified that he had attended their meetings two days and four evenings. First meeting lasted eight days; have known Dammon six weeks; Dammon, White and Hall were leaders. Dammon said the sinners were going to hell in two ther; Dammon would lay on the floor, then ther room. Dammon has no means to support himself that I know of. The meeting appeared very irreligious ; have seen him sit on the the meeting was to be a private meeting, and lieved as he did in the advent doctrine. I did done. I had no hostile feelings against them, Prisoner lived on his followers.

Wm. C. Crosby, Esq., testified. He was at the meeting on Saturday night, from about 7 to 9 o'clock. There was a woman on the floor who lay on her back with a pillow under her head; she would occasionally arouse up and tell They would at times all be talking at once, hal- only stayed from further mischief after fourteen wait for the next new moon on the 6th of Alowing at the top of their voices ; some of them shots had been fired into it. said there was too much sin there. After the cessasion of the noise, Dammon got up and was more coherent; he complained of those that came there who did not believe in the advent doctrine. At one time Dammon said there were hogs there, not belonging to the band, and pointed at him and said, I mean you sir. Subsedrive us out of the town ; he stared him in the face and said, I am an honest man, or I could Dammon said if he was owner of the house, he would compel all unbelievers to leave it ; they were sitting and laying on the floor promiscuously, and were exceedingly noisy. By spells it was the noisiest I ever attended. He had seen them in groups hugging and kissing each other. Once saw elder Hall with his boots off, and the women would go and kiss his feet. One girl made a smack but did not kiss his foot with her lips. Hall said, "He that is ashamed of me before men, him will I be ashamed of before my father and the holy angels." She then gave his feet a number of kisses. Loton Lambert testified that he attended a was very abusive ; called all other denominations liars, murderers, &c. A woman was present who pretended to have visions, and who was blasphemously called the Imitation of Christ. She was said to be from Portland. Her name was Ellen Harmon. She told Mr. Woodbury she must be baptized or go to hell. Mrs. W. concluded to be baptized. A Miss Dorinda Baker, of Orrington figured largely. She told Lambert he was the devil and would go to hell. She subsequently went into the bedroom with a man whom they called Elder White, and when they came out were bugging each other. Miss Baker then went to one Doore, and they kissed each other. This night they went to the water and baptized. The vicionist, Miss Harmon, lying on the floor several hours-from 7 to 1 o'clock that night. Part of the time Dammon lay on the floor on his back. Elder White said if the Almighty had any thing to reveal, he revealed it to Miss H. He acted as mediator.

It appears that the two elephants and a camel had been sent in advance of the other animals, en route for Clintor, the female elephant and the camel chained together. When about four miles from Baton Rouge, the male elephant refused to cross a small bridge, and the keeper, who was on foot, procured a horse, (one which the elephat was not accustomed to) for the purpose of driving it over, and in attempting to dence we have omitted, it being too gross for mount, the horse shyed, and threw the man in

Of the former part of the article I shall say nothing, as the bell is invested with power to "speak" for itself. But the unjust reflection that is contained in the close of the paragraph cannot be looked over without a correction, which the truth so loudly calls for. It was hoped that since you have come out and taken a decided stand in favor of "annexation." you had abandoned your envious bachelor notions, and was candid enough to give us that credit which our merits justly require. The established character of the females of Old Northumberland needs not the pen of praise in their behalf. They stand beyond reproach, notwithstanding our envious neighbors across the water.
