Mistakes in Family Government.

It is vastly easier to find fault with other people's family government, than it is to have a porfect system of your own. Yet this is no resson why we should not speak of their errors, and avoid them, and mend our own as we find them out. This is the way to improve.

We have given up scolding. It has neither reason, religion, common sense, or experience to recommend it. While there are reasons many and mighty to justify its total and immediate abolition. It sours the temper of children ; so that one thorough scolding prepares the way for two or three more. It sours your own temper, provided it was sweet, which is a question if you are prone to scold ; and thus the more you will have to scold, because you have become crosser and your children likewise.

Scolding alienates the hearts of your children. Depend upon it, they cannot love you as n well after you have berated them soundly as they did before. You may reprove them with finances and decision, you may punish with severity adequate to the nature of their offences, and they will feel the justice of your conduct and love you notwithstanding all. But they hate scolding. It stirs up the bad blood while it discloses your weakness and sinks you in their esteem. Especially at night when they are about to retire, their hearts should be melted and moulded with voices of kindness, that they may go to their slumbers with thoughts of love stealing around their souls and whispering peace.

Our neighbor Mrs. C -----, is very uneven in her system of government. Or rather she has no system. She lets her children do very much as they please, until they become so intolerably troublesome that her patience is emptied completely, then she flies at them like a fury, whips them all around, and then sits down to have "a minute's comfort," as she very pathetically expressed it. But the minute is dreadfully short. They are at mischief again, before their tears are dry, and this scene of forced submission and swift rebellion is repeated as often as might be expected, where there is no evenness of temper and no system of discipline maintained. There is no peace in her house, and never will be, although Mrs. C --is a very excellent woman and loves her children dearly.

Mr. D---, who lives opposite, whips his children too much. They have become hickory-hardened. He is not a passionate man, but he has grown up with the idea that the rod is the best medicine for children, and as all children need to be corrected, the rod must be the appointed means. So he whips, on all possible occasions .- And the occasions of course come often. His children have lost that sense of shame which they would feel most deeply had he governed with discretion, and therefore they often fall into condemnation. He has made a great mistake, but he is one of those men who know more than every body else, and consequently will never change his system.

RINGWORM'S, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.

The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary oures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violeut itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst-the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, cluding a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact. it would be apossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the cruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the discase was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm.) who were all cured by it,

A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PRILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years, the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a core. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediarely cured the discase, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. #### The Idelatry of Wealth.

This insane and insatiable passion for accumulation, ever ready when circumstances favor, to seize upon the public mind, is that "love of money which is the root of all evil," that "covetousness which is idolatry." It springs from an undue, an idolatrous estimate of the value of property. Many are feeling that nothing -nothing will do for them, or their children, but wealth; not a good character, nor well trained and well exerted faculties, not virtue, not the hope of heaven-nothing but wealth. It is their god, and the god of their families. Their sons are growing up to the same worship of it, and to an equally baneful reliance upon it for the future ; they are rushing into expenses, which the divided property of their father's house will not enable them to sustain ; and they are preparing to be, in turn and from necessity, slaves to the same idol. MERCHANTS HOUSE,

No. 237, North Third, above Cullowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.

OHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvaof nia Farmer, and Samuel Pike, jr., late of Ametican Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquatering their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messes. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known ss the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhtll st.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants ; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a nest style, so as to insure comfort.

The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has IN THE BOROUGH OF MUNCY. been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times. Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.
