CUPID'S ARROW.

Young Cupid went storming to Vulcan one day And besought him to look at his arrow, "Tis useless," he cried, "you must mend it, I say; Tisn't fit to let fly at a sparrow.

There's something that's wrong in the shaft or the dart. For it flutters quite false to my aim;

The an age since it fairly went home to the beart.

And the world really jests at my name. "I have straighten'd I've bent, I've tried all 1 declare.

I've perfumed it with sweetest of sighs; Tis feathered with ringlets my mother might wear.

And the barb gleams with light from young eves :

But it falls without touching-I'll break it, I vow. For there's Hymen beginning to pout; He's complaining his torch burns so dull and so

That Zephyr might put it right out."

Liftle Copid went on with his pitiful tale, Till Vulcan the weapon restored : "There, take it, young sir; try it now-if it fail.

I will ask neither fee nor reward." The unchin shot out, and rare havor he made : The wounded and dead were untold ;

But no wonder the rogue had such slaughtering made,

For the arrow was laden with gold.

Speech of Lot Doolittle, Esq. Member of the Legislature from New Jerusalem, Huckleberry county, Varmount, on the Bill for the protection of Hen Roosts.

MISTUR SPEAKER-I've sot here in my seat and heard the opponents of this great nashunal measure argyly and expectorate agin it, till I am party nigh busted with the indignant commotions of my lacerated sensibilities. Mr. Speaker, are it possible that men can be so inintuated as to vote agin this bill. Mr. Speaker, allow me to picter to your excited and denuded magination some of the heart-rending evils which arise from the want of purtection to the henroosts in my vicinity, among my constinuents. Mr. Speaker, we will suppose it to be the awful and melancholy hour of midnight; all natur am hushed in repose-the solemn winds softly means through the waving branching of the trees, and nought is heerd to break the solemncholy stillness save an occasional grunt in the hog pen! I will now carry you in imagination to that devoted hen house. Behold its peaceful and happy inmates gently declining in balmy slumbers on their elevated and majestic roosts! Look at the aged and venerable and highly respected rooster, as be keeps his silent vigils with parental and unmitigated watchfulness over those innocent, helpless, and virtuous hens and pullets! Just let your eye glance round and behold that dignafied and matronly hen, who watches with tender solicitude and paternal congratulation, over those little juvenile chickens, who crowed around their respected progenitor, and nestle under

Now I ask, Mr. Speaker, am there to be found a wretch so lost and abandoned as will enter that peaceful and happy abode, and tear those interesting and innocent little biddies from their agonized and heart-broken parents! Mr. Speaker, I answer in thunder tones, that there ain! Are there anything so mean and sneaking as such a robber ! No, there are not! You may search the wide universe, from the patives who repose in solitary grandeur and superlative majesty under the shade of the tall cedars which grow upon the tops of the Himmalch mountains in the valley of Jehosophat, Silvet Lake Bank down to the degraded and barbarous savages who repose in obscurity in their miserable wigwarns on the Rock of Gibralter in the Gulf of Mexico, and then you will be as much puzzled as to find anything so mean, as you would be to see thearth revolve around the sun twice in twenty-four hours, without the aid of a teleher circumambient wings.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that I have said enough on this subject to convince the most objurate member of the unapproachable necessity of a law which shall forever and everlastingly put a stop to these foul proceedings; and I propose that every convicted offender shall suffer the Hoboken Bleg & Grazing Co Hoboken penalty of the law as follows:

For the first offence, he shall be obligated to suck twelve rotten eggs without no salt on | Morris County Bank* 'em.

For the second offence, he shall be obliged to set on twenty rotten eggs until he hatckes'em.

Mr. Speaker, all I want is for every member to act on this subject accordin' to his conscienciousness. Let him do this, and he will be remembered foreverlastingly by a grateful NJ Protecton & Lombard bk Jersey City posterity. Mr. Speaker, I've done. Where's Orange Bank.

Bolding Potatoes,-Not one house-keeper out of ten knows how to boil potatoes properly. Here is an Irish method, one of the best we know. Clean, wash the potatoes and leave the skin on, then bring the water to a boil and show them in. As soon as boiled soft enough lo a fork to easily thrust through them, dash some sold water into the pot, let the potatoes renain tw. minutes, then pour off the water. This done, half somove the pot lid, and let the potatoes remain over . slow fire till the steam is evaporated, then peal and set them on the table in an open dish. Potatoes of a good kind thus cooked, will always be sweet, dry and meak. A covered dish is bad for potators, as it keeps the steam in, and makes them soft and

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depura-tive Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unrecessity to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the permost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to parients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with onfidence, as the cheapest and most efficient pinrifier of the blood now known. The use of a few butiles, especially in the spring months, will be at tended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any sends of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body .- For the cure Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rhenmatism. Tetter, 'imples or cruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, P stola, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The rumerous certificales in the possession of the subscriler and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superfority over all preparations of Sursaporilla.

OHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvarienn Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquanting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messes. Hart, on the sarae site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Buil's Head, in Third street above Callow-

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all turnished in a nest style, so as to insure comfort.

The receiving parlors are also fun ished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hatel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times, Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst-the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparation-) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cored. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis,) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the cruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundieds of do has to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons,

I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applicarious without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Clintment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no resurn of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for farty years.
