In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania BY FRANCIS R. SHUNK, GOVERNOR OF THE SAID COMMONWEALTH.

A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS, The inestimable bles-1.. 8. sings which the abundant goodness of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, has showered upon our beloved Commonwealth, demand our sincerest gratitude and most devout

I DO, THEREFORE, in accordance with my own feelings, and in c-mpliance with the wishes of many of my fellow-citizens, appoint

Thursday, the 27th Nov. next, as a day of Thanksgiving, Prayer and Praise to Almighty God. Our dependence on him as individuals and as a community, is so entire, that gratitude, thanksgiving and praise are duties as delightful as they are oblig story. To uni e as one people on a given day, for the performance of these duties and, while our own affections are purified and our hearts expanded with piers, to know that at the same instant our brethren th oughout the whole Commonwealth, with like feelings, and with like Whitall & Brown aff ctions, are pouring for h their devout aspirations. will give sole mity and beauty to the exercise, which we may humbly hope will be acceptable to Heaven, while peace and good will on Earth will be promoted.

Hence I invite all the people of this Commonwealth to appropriate the day designate i, as a day of thank-giving-and recommend to all postors and religious teacher with their people, to assemble at their usual places of worsehin, and unite in expressions of grateude to the Great Giver of all Good for the numerous blessings and f vors we have received at His lands-in preserving to us our great civil and religious rights -in granting to us a season of health and plenty-in prospering our State and Nation-in crowning with success the institutions of our beloved country-in preserving to us the blessings of His revealed will-and in continuing to us the offers of mercy through the Rede-mer:-and as our dependence on God is so entire that we have all to ask, and our innocence so List that we have much to fear, to supplicate Him for the continuance of these rich blessings to our elves and posterity, and for that meekness, humility and graticule which becomes the recipients of His hountiful Goodness.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State at Harrisburg, the twenty first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thou-and eight hundred and forty-five, and of the Commonwealth the seventieth.

Democratic Review.

Greatly Reduced Price-From $5 to $3 per Annum .- Single copy 25 cents. PROSPECTS OF THE NEXT, OR 17 OF VOLUME.

THE PRICE of the DEMOCRATIC REVIEW has heretofore been too high-not for the size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of readers who would be glad to receive it. and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of wide tog the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of these to whom it may be acre-sable it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the post age, to reduce its subscription price also, fr m FIVE to only THREE do lars; and when several unite in antiscription, to as low as $2 50, or even $2 30 per annum.

This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with but a comparatively small diminution of the expense) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers - There will be at the outset only a small reduction in its number of pages; soon to be restored to its old number, without nerease of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it.

THE PORTRAICS OF DISTINGUISHED DEMOcaxis wil be continued-engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore. The Postage will bereafter, for any distance, be only five and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for 100 miles, eighteen cents. We look for an extension of circulation to be recknied by fens of thousands, as the result and e m. ensurion of this great reduction of price. - Eve. ry friend of the work, and of the Democratic principles and cause, is confidently appealed to to exert himself with an active interest to procure it subscribers; both to extend its usefulness, and to carry it non of its prices. Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at a reduced rate, for a year and a half.
