

Marvelous.
A French savant, at Dijon, went one night quite exhausted to bed, after long and vain efforts to make out the sense of a passage in a Greek poet. On falling asleep he seemed to himself to be transported in spirit to Stockholm, where he was conducted into the palace of Queen Christina, ushered into the royal library, and placed before a compartment in which he distinguished a small volume that bore a title new to him. He opened the volume, and found in it the solution of the grammatical difficulty which had so perplexed him. The joy which he felt at the discovery waking him, he struck a light, and made a memorandum of what he had seen in his dream. The dark passage he now found perfectly cleared up. The adventure, however, was too strange to suffer him to rest satisfied without taking some steps to ascertain in how far the impressions of his nocturnal journal corresponded with the reality. Descartes was at that time at Stockholm, and our savant wrote to Chanut, the French ambassador to the Swedish court, with whom he was acquainted, requesting him to ask the philosopher whether the royal library had such and such peculiarities, (which he described,) and whether, in a certain compartment, a certain volume, of such a size and form, was not to be found, on such and such a page of which stood ten Greek verses, a copy of which the savant submitted. Descartes answered the ambassador, that, unless the querist had been in the habit of visiting the library for the last 20 years he could scarcely have described its arrangement more accurately; the compartment, the volume, the Greek verses, all tallied exactly with the description.

A counterpart to this story is related by Wangenheim.
The son of a Wirtemberg jurist, was studying at Göttingen, and having occasion for a book which he could not find in the library there, and which he remembered to have seen at home, wrote to request his father to send him the same. The father searched his library for the book in vain; it was not to be found, and he wrote to his son to this effect. Some time after he was at work in his library, and rose from his seat to replace a book which he had done with on its shelf, he beheld his son standing not far from him, and in the net, as it seemed, of reaching down a book, which stood at a considerable height, and on which the outstretched hand of the figure was already laid—"My son!" cried the astonished father, "how came you here?" As he spoke the apparition vanished. The father, whose presence of mind was not disturbed, immediately took down the book on which the hand of the figure had seemed to be laid, and, behold, it was the very one which his son had written for. He sent it by that day's post to Göttingen but soon after received a letter from his son, written on the very morning on which he had seen the apparition, and stating the exact spot where the writer was confident the book was to be found. It is unnecessary to say that it was the very spot which the apparition had already indicated.—Dublin University Magazine.

AN EASY TEMPERED MAN.—We were much amused by a story told of a stuttering man, not many leagues from Vermont, who unfortunately became possessed of a pair of "broochy" cattle. He offered them for sale, but such was their reputation for tearing down and getting over fences, that nobody wished to buy. At length a stranger came to look at them, and inquiring into their dispositions, was told by the owner that they never troubled him in any way. Satisfied with the price, the stranger purchased and paid down for them.
It was not long before he returned and claimed damages.
"They tear down my best fences," said he.
"I think it qu-qu-quite likely," replied the seller, coolly.
"And I understand they served you in the same way."
"We-we-well, I sh-sh-should rather think they did!"
"But," exclaimed the indignant purchaser, "didn't you tell me they never troubled you?"
"To be su-su-sure I did," answered the other; "the fact is, I never let a-s-suck things trouble me!"

LAKEWIFE AND ALMO.—Mr. J. once objected to the competency of a witness, alleging that he was non-compos. The Court granted leave to test the matter.
"Can you tell me my friend, the difference between likewise and also?"
"May be as 'ou I can," replied the witness.
"Go on, sir, let us hear."
"Well, you see 'on, Col. P. is a lawyer."
"Very well," said the counsel.
"And you is a lawyer also."
"Very well."
"Col. P. is likewise a gentleman. But you is not likewise."
The lawyer was dumb.

A prisoner being brought up at a London police office, the following dialogue passed between him and the magistrate:
"How do you live?"
"Pretty well, sir, generally a little beef and pudding for dinner!"
"I mean, sir, how do you get your bread?"
"I beg your worship's pardon; sometimes at the baker's, and sometimes at the chandler's shop."
"You may be as witty as you please, sir; but I mean simply to ask you, how do you do?"
"Tolerably well, I thank you sir. I hope your worship is well also."

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A Compound Balsamic Preparation from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar.
The best remedy known to the world for the cure of coughs, colds, asthma, croup, bleeding of the lungs, whooping cough, bronchitis, influenza, shortness of breath, pain and weakness in the breast or side, liver complaint, and the first stages of CONSUMPTION.

We will not assert that this BALSAM will cure Consumption in its worst form, but it will cure many after all other means of relief had been tried in vain. And why not? It seems that the WILD CHERRY was destined by Nature to be our PANACEA for the ravaging diseases of this climate. Let not the despairing invalid waste his money and lose TIME, to him so all important, in experimenting with the trashy nostrums of the day, but use at once a medicine that will cure, if a cure be possible—a medicine that science approves, and many years of experience have demonstrated that it always relieves.

"There is no such thing as a fall" in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that no one can doubt, fully establish the fact. For the sake of brevity we select the following from thousands:

Isaac Platt, Esq., Editor of the Poletopia Eagle, one of the most influential journals in the State of New York, states under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution, was attacked in Feb. 1842, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood, cough, fever, and other dangerous and alarming symptoms. Through medical treatment and care she partially recovered during summer. But on the return of winter she was attacked more violently than at first, she became scarcely able to walk and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption; at this time there was a sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She got a second, and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightest symptom of her former disease.

Mr. Platt says "the cure came under my own observation and I cannot be mistaken as to the facts."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST MASTER, DATED
Pembroke, Washington Co., Maine, Apr. 29, 1844.
MR. ISAAC BITTUS.—Dear Sir: In the vicinity of my friends in this place and vicinity who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in this county as agent to sell WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and send him a few dozen, as there is none of it for sale within 200 miles from this. I have no doubt that it would meet with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay. My wife was attacked about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of country. Having seen the Balsam advertised in August.

200 MILES FROM HERE,
I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing you. Please inform me by return of mail whether you conclude to send some, and if so to whom, in order that I may be known where it can be had. I am with respect yours, etc.

A TRULY WONDERFUL CURE.
WATSONVILLE, Oneida Co., N. Y., Sept. 15, 1843.
Dear Sir—I owe it to the afflicted to inform you that in January last I was attacked by a very violent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled on my lungs. It was accompanied by a very distressing cough. I had in attendance all the best medical aid in our village; but after exhausting all their skill to no avail, they pronounced my disease a confirmed consumption, and they one and all gave me up to die. After much persuasion I got the consent of my physician to use the BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY prepared by Dr. WISTAR. I purchased of the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I began to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better and my symptoms in every way improving. I have now used three bottles, and am restored to perfect health. This result is alone owing to the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY; and I take this method of giving you the information, partly to pay you the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief. Very truly yours, JAMES SAGE.

Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, Sept. 24th, 1843, writes:
The statement given you by Mr. James Sage is well known to be true by this whole community. It certainly was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in cures truly flattering. Yours respectfully, D. D. PALMER.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

The valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; consisting nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicated any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough, Asthma, &c. ### ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.
The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetters on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking internal remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since curing it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were cured by it.

JAMES DUNLEAVY, No. 155, Race St.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetters.
A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.
PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.
THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which has never returned, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION
Of the ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetters.
ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to accept of Remedies.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discommenced and disapproved of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent.
May 14th, 1843.
