

Correspondence of the Unit. American, SENATE.

THE ARMY-NAVY-OREGON.

Mr. CASS called up the resolutions heretofore submitted by him relative to the condition of the Army and Navy. The resolutions having been read, Mr. Cass sustained them in a speech of some length, in which he took occasion to state his conviction that an important crisis is approaching, and that the danger of war is imminent.

If the last proposition of England be her ultimatum I have no hesitation in saying that it is equivalent to a declaration of war, and that hostilities must commence upon the termination of the year's notice. Danger can neither be averted nor avoided by indifference. Let us then look our difficulties boldly in the face. I hesitate not to declare that the only way to avert a war is to unite with all the energy God has given us, in a public determination to carry it on with vigor. Mr. C. quoted largely from the speech of Lord John Russell in the House of Commons on the 4th April last, to show the little probability that existed that England will recede from the position she has taken on this question.

It was the proper duty of the Committees proposed to be instructed to make the very investigation called for, without being goaded to it by action of the Senate. When the Executive called upon Congress, Mr. M. and those with whom he acted would be ready to go as far as the farthest in supporting all measures necessary for the defence of the country—but he wanted, if an increase of the military and naval force is asked for, that the requisition should come from the President who alone was responsible, and not from any subordinate branch of the government.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. PETITIONS.

Mr. PETIT of Ia. presented a memorial against paying the Chaplains of Congress and the Navy out of the Treasury of the Government, and moved its reference to the Committee on the Judiciary. Mr. McCONNELL moved that it be laid upon the table.

A large number of REMONSTRANCES were presented against the annexation of Texas, from all the free States. These memorials were all laid upon the table.

Mr. GIDDINGS presented a memorial from Ohio, praying that in case Texas should be annexed with a Constitution tolerating slavery, the members of the free States should separate from the others, form a Constitution for themselves and refuse to receive in their Union any State whose Constitution tolerated slavery.

Mr. WINTHROP of Mass presented Resolutions of the legislature of that State upon the subject of the Naturalization laws. Mr. W. said as the subject was before the Judiciary Committee at the last session of Congress he would move the same reference now.

Mr. LEVIN of Pa. moved a reference to a Select Committee of five members.

MAN'S LOVE—"And don't you think that man can love as well as woman?" Sarah laughed outright. "What can you mean, Sarah?" asked Margaret.

"I mean," she replied, "that when a man finds his house in disorder and wants somebody to put it to rights, he calls this love; when he is alone, too, and things don't go pleasantly, and wants somebody to complain to and find fault with, and lay the blame upon, he calls this love. When no one cares for him, and gets put down in society, and wants to bind himself for life to some being who will flatter him and admire his very faults, this too he calls love. Man's love indeed!"

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.—This medicine is acknowledged to be one of the most valuable ever discovered as a purifier of the blood and fluids.

It is superior to Sarsaparilla, whether as a sudorific or alternative, and stands infinitely before all the preparations and combinations of Mercury. Its purgative properties are alone of incalculable value, for these pills may be taken daily for any period, and, instead of weakening, by the cathartic effect, they add strength by taking away the cause of weakness. They have none of the miserable effects of that deadly specific, Mercury. The teeth are not injured—the bones and limbs are paralyzed—no; but, instead of these distressing symptoms, new life and consequent animation is evident in every movement of the body.

These Pills, for colds, coughs, tightness of the chest, rheumatism in the head or limbs will be found superior to any thing imagined of the powers of medicine; and in bilious effusions, dyspepsia, and in all diseases peculiar to women, they should be resorted to at once. These Brandreth Pills will be found deserving of all praise.

Pause Reader!!! This good advice comes from a friend, an educated physician, and one who has been cured of protracted illness, by "THE IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS." This is no nostrum, made merely to sell irrespective of its qualities, but a valuable medicine, made by a well informed Physician, of Vegetable Ingredients, pure, efficacious, and harmless.
