

From the Evening Mirror. The Dream of the Printer. BOT BY THE AUTHOR OF 'THE DREAM OF RUGENE

"Twas in the prime of winter time, An evening calm and cold, When in his room the printer sat, A care worn man and old; With look so meek that he did seem A sheep within a fold!

A melancholy man was he, As ever trod the soil; Small pleasure had be in his life, For it was one of toil; And dimly burnt the printer's lamp; For why? It wanted oil!

He leaned his head upon his hand, His mind was ill at ease, And while through many a broken pane In rushed the horrid breeze; With eager look lie read a book That laid upon his kneen.

And still he read, nor turned his head. To hear the shutters flap, Dut like some marble statue seemed, So motionless he sat ; Much fasting made him very pale, And anything but fat !

At last he shut the dusky book. Close, with a sudden fling, With fervid grasp he closed it fast, And then upright did spring : Oh, God! could I so shut my mind, And tie it with a string!

Then up the room and down the room Ten hasty strides he took, And then he gazed about him, with A sad and coleful look, And lo! he saw the office boy Writing upon a book.

What do you write my little chap, Whilst sitting there so still? Now, is it some sad accident, A marriage, or a will? The boy he gave a mournful look-"Tis nothing but a bill!"

The printer sank down in his chair, As smit with sudden pain. Down in his chair he sank with force And then got up again : And as he talked with the young lad, His tears gushed out amain.

He told him how some men will owe And never pay a cent. And of those wretched, wretched men, Who never, never lent; But how their life and fortune all In foolishness is spent.

'And well I know what pangs they feel, Who would collect a bill. We we unutterable we Their wretched souls must fill, So it did seem, once in a dream That I remember still

One who had owed me very long, Though wealthy as a Jew-I stood before his house one eve When cold the night wind blew. And now, said I, this man must try To pay me what is due.

'Two happy blows with a walking stick And one with my knuckles bare, Then in I went through the open door, But, alas ! he was not there, There was nothing now within the room But an old and empty chair!

Nothing there, but an empty chair That stood against the wall, For he went out the other door. The moment I did call! A dozen times I groaned aloud, He never groaned at all !

'Then quick I turned myself about, And swiftly home I fled, Despair was the grim servant girl That lighted me to bed!" The fearful boy look'd up and saw His face pale as the dead.

When gentle sleep o'er the young lad Had thrown her silent viel. Two stout, tall men set out from town Through the cold and heavy hail; And the printer he did walk bet ween, On his mournful road to jail! Reading, Pa.

A London poet, some years ago, offered fifty pounds for a word to rhyme with "porringer." This was done about the time the daughter of the Duke of York married the Prince of Orange. The next morning after the offer, the paper contained the following !-

"The Duke of York a daughter had, He gave the Prince of Orange her, You see my friend, I've found a word, Will rhyme with your of "porringer." Canning, being once challenged to find a rhyme for Ipecaruanna, immediately wrote the following :-

"Laughing in a shady grove, Sat my Juliana, Lozengers I gave my love, Inecacuana.

Sylvester challenged Johnson to match a cou ple of his rhymes that run somewhat thus, "I, John Sylvester; Hugged your sister.' To which Johnson immediately reponded, "I. Ben Johnson,

Hugged your wire." "But," said Sylverter, rather chagrined at the turn, that is no naves." "No," retorted Johnson, "but it is TRUE."

It seems that the WILD CHERRY was destined by Nature to be our PA-NACEA for the cavaging diseases of this cold la-titude. Let not the despairing invalid waste his money and loose TIME, to him so all important. in experimenting with the trashy nostroms of the day, but use at once a medicine that will cure, if a cure be per-ible-a medicine that science approves, and many years of experience have demonstrated that it always relieves.

"There is no such thing as fail." in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing-evelores that no one can doubt, fully establi her this fact. For the sake of brevity we select the following from thousands. Isane Platt, Esq., Editor of the Pokeepsie Engle. one of the most influential journals in the state of New York, states made, the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution, was attacked in Feb. 1812, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood, cough, fever, and other dangerous and alarming symptoms. Through medical mestment and care she partially recovered during summer, But on the return of winter she was ettacked more violently than at first, she became scarcely able to walk and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption; at this time, when there was no sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She got a second, and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightert symptom of her for mer dise se.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST MASTER, DATED

PEMBROKE, Washington co., Maine, Apr. 29, 1844. MR. ISAAC BUTTS .- Dear Sir: At the re guest of many of my friends in this place and vicinity who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the literry of asking you to appoint some one in this county as agent to seil Wis-TAR's BALSAM OF WIED CHERRY, and to send him few dozen, as there is none of it for eale within 200 miles from this. I have no doubt that it would me t with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.

My wife was attacked about six in inha since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption-a complaint very prevalent in this stetion of country. Having seen the Balsam advert sed in Augusta.

07 200 MILES FROM HERE, 20 I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it. which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and he now says she has not felt so well for -ix years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balson had, are arraious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing you. Please inform me by return of mail whether you conclude to send some, and if so to whom, in order that it may be known where it can be had. I am with respect yours, etc.

A TRULY WONDERFUL CURE. WATERVILLE, Oneids co., N. Y. Sept. 15, 1843.

that in January last I was attacked by a very lent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled on my lungs. It was accompanied by a very accere pain in my breast and sides, and also a distressing cough. I had in attendance all the test medical aid in our village; but after exhausting all their skill to no avail, they pronounced my di case a congramen consumption, and they one and all gave me up to die. After much persuasion I got he consent of my physician to use the Batsan or WILD CHERRY proposed by DR. WISTAN. I purchased of the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I tegan to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better and my symptoms in every way improving. I have now used three bottles, and am restored to perfect health. This result is alone owing to the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHER-RY; and I take this method of giving you the in formation, partly to pay you the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief.

Very truly yours, JAMES SAGE.

The statement given you by Mr. James Page is well known to be true by this whole community It certainly was a most remarkal le cure. The sale of the Bulsain is very good, and its success in cures truty flattering. Yours respectfully. D. D. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE

CURE EVER RECORDED. HADDONFIELD, N. J. April 20, 1843. On or about the 13th day of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or al scess, in-wordly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter and also much blood. Being greatly statmed at this, I applied to a physician, but he said be thought he could do but little for me except give me some Mercury Pills, which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good ; many other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends, but none did me any good-and the dis-charge of blood and corruption still continued every few days, and at last become so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse. until Pebruary, when all hope of my recovery was given up, and my friends all thought I would die of a Gattorine Consumption. At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close I heard of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHELRY, and got a bottle which ma-LIEVED ME IMMEDIATELY; and by the use of only three battles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a carpenter,) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

"NATURE'S PAVORITE PRESCRIPTION," a prescription congenial to nor wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to reap pecuniary benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by putting up a mixture and a demnity asseverating that it s imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depura tive Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally. that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal bene ficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifler of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be at tended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seedof disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body .- For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumstism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthons, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarasparilla. S.Id wholesale and retail, by the preprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be bad of the following

Reading, Murch 14, 1843. Mn. OAKLEY :- I believe it the uty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the bonefit of their fellow man, and having had po-inive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I m at conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and haif was strocked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Deparative Sycup of Sarasparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruntedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Nonistown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838:

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Pall of 1836, varying in viofence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently strended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst-the swelling was so g est, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) es well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea. Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be ropossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but with at receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased. swelling shated, the crustion began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease re-maining, except the sears from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe n a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction. who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the R.se Ointment I would have given hun dreds of do lare to be rid of the disease. Since nsing it.
