

From the Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, 1846. There is a great demand for patriotic poetry in the House of Representatives, about this time. In the progress of the debate upon the Oregon question, members have indulged in quotations of poetry, who are among the last men we should have suspected of being necessary to the fact. It only shows that while we are the most utopian people in the world, there is a deal of "music in our soul," when you bring us to the test.

Poetry on the Oregon debate— By Mr. Adams— "Your father has given you a great army; but our troops have seen the wolf, your have not."

"Well, well," said Frederick, "I will give them an opportunity to see the wolf."

By Mr. J. C. Ingersoll— "Fear in all public councils, betrays like treason."

A land of "Antres vast, and deserts idle, Rough quarries, rock and hills whose heads touch heaven."

This was Oregon, as Mr. I. understood it. By Mr. Wintrop— "To animus semper fui, ut invidiam virtutum parvam, gloriam, non invidiam putarem."

By Mr. Baker, of Ill.— "Rapt dream or solemn vision."—"The whole or none."

Cuba—"The tongue which God had placed in the Gulf of Mexico."

"The last echo of a host o'erthrown."—"Like the Sultan sun, Struggle upon the fiery verge of Heaven."

By Mr. Goldings— "You have prepared the cup, And I will press it to your lips, Until the very dregs shall be drained."

"Let no one say that I desire a slave insurrection; but, sir, I doubt not that hundreds of thousands of honest and patriotic hearts, will laugh at your calamity, and mock when your fear cometh."

By Mr. Rhett— "No war with the United States can be a little war."

"The whole of Oregon." Great Britain will say, "here we are and we shall not move."

By Mr. Hilliard of Ala.— "That little speck of a cloud, no bigger than a man's hand."

"And many a banner shall be torn, And many a knight of earth be borne, And many a shield of arrows spent, Ere Scotland's king shall cross the Trent."

"Shedding disastrous twilight over half the nations."

"Westward the star of empire holds his way."

By Mr. Yancy, of Ala.— "On the Grampian hills his father fed his flock, A frugal swain"

"But that the good old man had kept him— "An only son at home."

"He had heard of battles, and longed To follow to the field some warlike lord."

Then— "Welcome be Cumberland's steed to the shock, Let him dash his proud foam like a wave on the rock!"

But we to his kindred and we to his cause, When "Columbia" her claymore indignantly draws—

"When her panoplied warriors to victory crowd— Brave-hearted and true, and dauntless and proud, Their swords are a million, their bosoms are one,

They are true to the last of their blood and their breath, And, like reapers descend to the harvest of death."

By Mr. Giles, of Md.— "Britannia needs no bulwarks, Nor towers along the steep, Her march is o'er the mountain wave, Her home is on the deep."

"For freedom's battle once begun, Bequeathed from bleeding sire to son, Though baffled oft, is ever won."

Mr. Caleb Smith, of Indiana— "Manifest destiny."

"Beard the British lion in advance."—"Are you ready for war?"

Mr. Levin's speech was all poetry. By Mr. Hamlin, of Maine— "And let that flag, which 'So proudly drinks the morning light, O'er ocean's wave in foreign clime, A symbol of our might,"

Float only over the homes of a free people. Then, in the unimitable language of our own distinguished poet—

"Wide shall our own free race increase, And wide extend the elastic chain; That binds in everlasting peace State after State—a mighty train."

"To damn him most supremely, call him Hastings."—"And the gun of our nation's natal day, At the rise and set of the sun, Shall boom from the far Nor-west away, To the vales of Oregon; And the ships on the sea shall luff and tack, And send the peal of triumph back."

By Mr. Chipman, of Michigan— "This is the gun boat, No. 1, Wiggle-waggle went her tail, And pop went her gun."

The conclusion to be drawn from all this, is, that war and poetry are very nearly allied—that love, music, patriotism, blood and murder, and poetry, often go hand-in-hand

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A Compound Balsamic Preparation from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar. The best remedy known to the world for the cure of coughs, colds, asthma, croup, bleeding of the lungs, whooping cough, bronchitis, influenza, shortness of breath, pain and weakness in the breast or side, liver complaint, and the first stages of CONSUMPTION.

We will not assert that this BALSAM will cure Consumption in its worst form, but it has cured many after all other means of relief had been tried in vain.—And why not? It seems that the WILD CHERRY was destined by Nature to be our PANACEA for the raging diseases of this cold latitude. Let not the despairing invalid waste his money and lose TIME, to him as important, in experimenting with the trade nostrums of the day, but use of once a medicine that will cure, if a cure be possible—a medicine that science approves, and many years of experience have demonstrated that it always relieves.

"There is no such thing as a free lunch" in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that no one can doubt, fully establish this fact. For the sake of brevity we select the following from thousands.

Isaac Platt, Esq., Editor of the Pikespie Eagle, one of the most influential journals in the state of New York, states under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution, was attacked in Feb. 1842, with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood, cough, fever, and other dangerous and alarming symptoms. Through medical treatment and care she partially recovered during summer. But on the return of winter she was attacked more violently than at first, she became scarcely able to walk and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption; at this time, when there was no sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She got a second, and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightest symptom of her former disease.

Mr. Platt says "the cure came under my own observation and I cannot be mistaken as to the facts."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM POST MASTER, DATED PENNSYLVANIA, Washington Co., Meigs, Apr. 29, 1844.

MR. ISAAC BUTTS.—Dear Sir: At the request of many of my friends in this place and vicinity who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in this county as agent to sell WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and to send him a few dozen, as there is none of it for sale within 200 miles from this. I have no doubt that it would meet with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.

My wife was attacked about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of country. Having seen the Balsam advertised in August,

I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and ascertained what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing you.

Please inform me by return of mail whether you conclude to send some, and if so to whom, in order that it may be known where it can be had. I am with respect yours, P. G. FARNSWORTH, P. M.

The whole country is fast learning that no medicine—no physician—no preparation of any kind whatever—can equal DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A TRULY WONDERFUL CURE. WATERVILLE, ONIDA CO., N. Y., Sept. 15, 1843. Dear Sir—I owe it to the afflicted to inform you that in January last I was attacked by a very violent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled on my lungs. It was accompanied by a very severe pain in my breast and side, and also a distressing cough. I had in attendance all the best medical aid in our village; but after exhausting all their skill to no avail, they pronounced my disease a confirmed consumption, and they said and all gave me up to die. After much persuasion I got the consent of my physician to use the BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY prepared by DR. WISTAR. I purchased of the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I began to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better and my symptoms in every way improving. I have now used three bottles, and am restored to perfect health. This result is alone owing to the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY; and I take this method of giving you the information, partly to pay you the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief.

Very truly yours, JAMES SAGE. Mr. PALMER, Druggist, under date of Waterville, Sept. 24th, 1843, writes.

The statement given you by Mr. James Sage is well known to be true by this whole community. It certainly was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in cures truly flattering. Yours respectfully, D. D. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED. HADSFIELD, N. J., April 20, 1843. On or about the 13th day of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or abscess, inwardly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this, I applied to a physician, but he said he thought he could do but little for me except give me some Mercury Pills, which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; many other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends, but none did me any good—and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued every few days, and at last became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse, until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up, and my friends all thought I would die of a GALLOPING CONSUMPTION. At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close, I heard of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and got a bottle which relieved me immediately; and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a carpenter,) and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.

THOMAS COZENS. GLOUCESTER COUNTY, N. J., &c. Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly sworn affirmed according to law, with the above statement in all things true.

Affirmed before me, on the 20th of April, 1843, J. CLEMENS, J. P. Such is the unprecedented success of this BALSAM.

"NATURE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION," a prescription congenial to our wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to reap benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by putting up a mixture and solemnly asserting that it is imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY," and that to sell any mixture it must be like this in name, or purport to be like it in substance.

Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrications—and take only the original and genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

NO OTHER CAN BE LIKE IT. Address all orders to ISAAC BUTTS, No. 32 Ann St., New York. Agents, JOHN W. FRILING, Sunbury, D. BRATTIGAM, Northumberland, J. K. MOYER, Harrisburg, J. WAGGONER, Selinsgrove, BROWN & CRESSY, Millville, Feb. 23d, 1845.—lv

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY. PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there had been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAEGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter. ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to such a recommendation.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836. I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one-sixth of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

THE EAGLE. Corner of Third and Vine streets, WILLIAMSPORT, PA. THE subscriber respectfully announces to the public, that he has opened a Hotel in the commodious brick building situated on the corner of Third and Pine streets, where he will be happy to wait upon those who may favor him with their company. The Eagle Hotel is large and convenient, and furnished in the best modern style. It is provided with a large number of well aired and comfortable sleeping rooms, parlors, private parlors, &c. Persons visiting Williamsport on business or pleasure, may rest assured that every exertion will be used to render their sojourn at the "Eagle Hotel" pleasant and agreeable. His Table will be supplied with the very best market affords, and his bar with the choicest wines and other liquors—charges reasonable. The Eagle Hotel possesses certain advantages in point of location than any other similar establishment in the borough, being situated in the business part of the town, and within a convenient distance of the Court House and Williamsport and Elmira Rail Road Depot. Sufficient Stabling provided, and good and trustworthy ostlers always in attendance. Attentive, accommodating and honest Servants have been employed, and every effort will be made to add to the comfort and accommodation of his guests.

THOMAS COZENS. GLOUCESTER COUNTY, N. J., &c. Personally came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly sworn affirmed according to law, with the above statement in all things true.

Affirmed before me, on the 20th of April, 1843, J. CLEMENS, J. P. Such is the unprecedented success of this BALSAM.

"NATURE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION," a prescription congenial to our wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to reap benefits by selling an article similar in name, or in appearance, or by representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by putting up a mixture and solemnly asserting that it is imported from a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY," and that to sell any mixture it must be like this in name, or purport to be like it in substance.

Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrications—and take only the original and genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

NO OTHER CAN BE LIKE IT. Address all orders to ISAAC BUTTS, No. 32 Ann St., New York. Agents, JOHN W. FRILING, Sunbury, D. BRATTIGAM, Northumberland, J. K. MOYER, Harrisburg, J. WAGGONER, Selinsgrove, BROWN & CRESSY, Millville, Feb. 23d, 1845.—lv

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED. HADSFIELD, N. J., April 20, 1843. On or about the 13th day of October, 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the liver, which continued for about five days
