A Theatrical Auctioneer.

A young wag who had made 'going, going, going, his profession—a great favorite among knights of the buskin, besides being chosen a favorite among the ladies, was once mounted, hammer in hand, selling a piece of furniture.-He was well conversant with all the best dramatic productions of the day, and among the rest, of the Hunchback, then the rage in Boston, where the joke occurred. Fanny Kemble was at the time delighting the town with her 'Julin,' and every body was well acquainted with the celebrated lines.

"Clifford why don't you speak to me, O, Clifford, is it you?" &c., &c., which are ranked among the favorite points of the play.

'Going, going-last call-fifty-two-any more ! fifty-three-go on gentlenmen-thank you sir-fifty three dollars !- last call-once twice-any more, gone !- who is it ?" There was a pause and nobody answered. 'Who is it? who bid fifty three ? 'Fifty two was my bid,' said some one. Who bid fitty three ! some one said fifty three; who bid fifty three !

'Clifford,' said a low voice near the door. "O, Clifford, is it you ?" exclaimed the auc tioneer, drooping his hands a la Fanny Kembie. The joke was irresistible-every-body recognized it, and catching the spirit of the thing, the audience followed up an ecstacy of laughter with three rounds of applause, while the suctioneer deliberately drew out his handkerchief, and wiped his nose in burlesque imitation of Miss Fanny. 'Clifford, did you say, sir ! Clifford,' said the auctioneer, when the merriment had a little subsided. 'Is it cash, sir?' Clifford, the purchaser, it seems, was a bashful person, unacquainted with theatrical things, and had become somewhat alarmed at the unaccountable good humor of the crowd, so that he was afraid to open his lips again, lest he should excite another burst of fun. 'ls it cash, sir !' again enquired the auctioneer.

All eyes were turned upon Clifford, who looked very much as if he felt that his mother wanted him, but still he made no answer. 'The merry auctioneer would rather lose his customer than his joke, and he suddenly exclaimed. still imitating the fiery-eved Fanny:

'Clifford, why don't you speak to me !' The assembly now fairly screamed with laughter, and amid an uproarious burst of applause, Clifford made a bolt for the door, and escaped .- N. O. Pic.

Anecdote of an Intemperate Actor.

Frederic Cooke, the great English performer, and cotemporary of John Kemble, was a notorious inebriate, and to procure the exciting draught he would resort to any subterfuge or contrivance. It is of him that the following apecdote is related :

His passion for drink was so great, that when he was without money, or means of raising it, he had been known to go to a certain pawnbroker's where he was in the habit of applying, and to say-'I want five guineas; but I have nothing to pledge but myself. Give me the money, ed.' And having sent word to the theatre of his situation, he has frequently been found scated on the pawnbroker's counter, with a duplicate pinned to his buttonhole. On one occasion when the manager, Elliston wished him particularly to be quite correct, he invited him to dinner, and afterwards begged he would oblge him by submitting to one thing, which Fred promised. He, however, looked rather funny when Elliston, drawing him into a small room in the theatre, told him he must content himself there till it was time to dress. As there was no getting off, Cooke consented; but after being locked in for some time, he began to long horribly for punch. By and by, he heard a noise of a broom on the stairs. Hope revived-he called, 'Mary, Betsy! whatever your name is, come here for God's sake!' and he contrived, while curiosity made the maid pause in her labor, to push a crown-piece between the door and the floor, 'There that's for you: and Mary (pushing through another) go like a good girl, and get me a pint of brandy and a clean pipe with this."

'Oh, sir, I dare not! Master desired that I shouldn't come near the door, sir, nor speak to you upon any account.'

'Pshaw! Go, do as I tell you, and you shall have another by and by.'

The girl was not proof against the bribe .-The brandy and pipe were both brought, and the tube of the latter being put through the keyhole, the bowl was filled on the outside, and in this way the liquor was sucked up as the Americans drink sherry-cobler. It is hardly necessary to say, that on Elliston's coming to let him out, Fred was found on his back; but a plentiful supply of soda water enabled him to go through his part.

We never knew the man disposed to scorn the humble, who was not himself a fair object of scorn to the humblest.

A man who gets through the world without a kick, may rest assured that he is generally coneldered as not worth minding.

None more patiently suffer injuries, than those that are most forward in doing them.

Nothing is gained by dissembling or equivocating-plain truth is always best.

When a men does all he can, do not blame him, though he succeeds not well.

NOTES AT PAR. HERR'S HOTEL. Bank of North America Bank of the Northern Liberties HARRISBURG, PA. Commercial Bank of Penn's.

I BEG leave to inform the public that I have left I Philadelphia, and am now located in Harris-burg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew

H. B. MASSER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Philad.

This spacious building, having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class is not surpassed if equalled, by any similar estab-lishment in Pennsylvania; and having undergone a thorough renovation, the parlors, rooms and chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience. My TABLE is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce: the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated astal lishments elsewhere. In short, no exertions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and faci-lities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, I with confidence, most respectfully soli cit the patronage of the Public.

IPER ED BEILD NE PIANOS.

THE SUBSCRIBER has been appointed agen for the sule of CONRAD MEYER'S CEL EBRATED PREMIUM ROSE WOOD PI-ANOS, at this place. These Pianes have a plain, massive and beautiful exterior finish, and, for depth and sweetness of tone, and elegance of workmanship, are not surpassed by any in the United States. The following is a recommendation from CARL DIETS, a celebrated performer, and himself a manufacturer:

HAVING had the pleasure of trying the excel-lent Piano Fortes manfactured by Mr. Meyer, and exhibited at the last exhibition of the Franklin Institute. I feel it due to the true merit of the maker to declare that these instruments are quite equal' and in some respects even superior, to all the Pi-ano Fortes, I saw at the capitals of Europe, and during a sojourn of two years at Paris.

These Pianos will be sold at the manufacturer' lowest Philadelphia prices, if not something lower.

Persons are requested to call and examine for themselves, at the residence of the subscriber.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depura L tive Syrup of Serseparille, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally. that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in set-ting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal bene ficial results from it, that it is recommended by the highest standing in the profession, prescribe o patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be at-tended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure f Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthms, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its su periority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following

Reading, March 14, 1843. Mn. OAKLEY :- I believe it the uty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the bene-fit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. ROSE OINTMENT

FOR TETTER. RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE PACE, AND OTHER The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary oures ever effected by any

PRILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itch-ing; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst-the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. Doring the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a grea many as plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea. Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c, In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the cruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease, Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. PHIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, sithough I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. MEDICAL APPROBATION

Of the ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter. A LTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Saugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford. has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.

PRILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836. I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietot of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my spprobation, as it entire y cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications.
