

From the Illinois State Gazette.
LOVE IN A PRINTING OFFICE.

I once heard an old Joe, remark, that a printing office was no place for love-making, and I have since experienced the truth of his observation—being now perfectly convinced that the flower of love can never bloom in the midst of types, stands, and printing ink.

It was my fortune once to sojourn for a few days in the village of—. Directly opposite the office was a pretty white cottage, with a rose bush clambering around the casement, and I was not long in making the discovery that the aforesaid white cottage with the rose shaded window, contained a fair inmate—a flower whose beauty far outshone the roses that clustered around the window. She was a little blue-eyed sunny looking creature of some sixteen summers. She was the belle of the village. Her name was Mary—sweet poetic Mary.

I have a poetic passion for the name of Mary. It was a beautiful summer morning, and I had raised the window to admit the cool breeze from the flower decked fields, and it was not long before I perceived that the cottage window was also hoisted, and that sweet little Mary was seated near it, busily engaged with her needle. I worked but little that morning. My eyes constantly wandered towards the cottage window, where little Mary sat, and all sorts of strange and fantastic notions whirled through my fancy-lighted brain, and I began to think I felt a slight touch of what the poets call love, -living in at the corner of my heart.

A few days passed away, and the chance made me acquainted with Mary. Heavens! she was a sweet creature—she had a form that would have shamed the famous Venus de Medici, a cheek that outshined the richest peach—and a lip that would have tempted a peep from his hive on a frosty morning. I thought as I gazed on her in mute admiration, that I had never looked upon one so exquisitely beautiful. She seemed the embodiment of all that is lovely and bewitching.

Well time passed on, and one day Mary expressed a desire to visit the printing office. Good! thought I, what a chance! I'll do it there, yes, there in the very midst of the implements of mine art—why shouldn't I! Love in a Printing office—eh! There was something original in that, and I resolved to try it all hazards.

Well, Mary came to the office, and I explained to her the uses of the various implements of the black art—the press and the roller; the ink and the stands, and the boxes of the A. B. C's. I took an opportunity to snatch her pretty, lily-white hand, and she drew it back, knocking a stick full of matter into pi!

I must have a kiss for that my pretty one, said I, and at it I went. I managed to twist my arm around her waist, and in struggling to free herself, she upset a galley of editorial, a long article on the Oregon question. Nothing daunted, I made at her again. This time I was more successful, for I obtained a kiss. By St. Paul! it was a sweet one, and the little witch bore it like a martyr, she never screamed once; but as I raised my lips from hers; she lifted her delicate little hand, and gave me a box on the ears that made me see more stars than ever were viewed by Herschel thro' his big telescope. Somewhat nettled, and with my cheek smarting with pain, I again seized her waist and said, 'Well, if you don't like it, I'll just take back the kiss.' She made a desperate struggle, and as she jerked herself from my arms, her foot struck the typewriter, and over it went! Another galley of editorial was sprinkled over the floor, and in her efforts to reach the door, her foot slipped and she fell, and in the effort to sustain herself, her hand—her lily-white hand—the same little hand that had come in contact with my ears—oh, horrible!—was stuck up to the elbow in the ink-peg. Shade of Franklin! what a change came over the beauty of that hand! She slowly drew it from the keg, dripping with ink, and asked me what use I made of the tar! I began to be seriously alarmed, and apologized in the best manner I could, and to my surprise she seemed rather pleased than angry; but there was a 'darning devil' in her eye that told me there was mischief afoot. As I stood surveying the black covering of her hand, scarcely able to suppress a laugh at its strange metamorphosis, she quickly raised it on high, and brought it down 'ker slap' upon my cheek! Before I could recover from my surprise, the same little hand had again descended, and again left its inky imprint on my cheek.

'Why, Mary,' I exclaimed, 'what are you about?'

'I think you told me you rolled ink on the face of the firm,' with a loud laugh, and again her hand hit upon my face, taking me a broad slap in the very middle of my countenance, and most woefully bedaubing my eyes. With a light step and a merry peal of laughter, she skipped through the door. She turned back when beyond my reach, and with her roguish face peering in at the door way, shouted back.

'I say, Charley, what kind of a roller does my hand make?'

'Oh,' said I, 'you take too much ink.'

'Ha! ha!', she laughed; 'well good bye Charley,—that's my impression! he! ha!'

I went to the glass and surveyed myself for a moment, and very believe I could have passed for a Guinea negro without the slightest difficulty.

'And so,' said I to myself; 'this is love in a printing office. The devil fly away with such love.'

The next morning when the editor came to the office, I rather calculate he found things a little topsy-turvy. However, that made no difference to me—for I 'muzzled' long before daylight.

I bore marks of the scenes for many a day, and now whenever I see a lady enter a printing office, I think of little Mary, and keep my eye on the ink-peg—and though she were as beautiful as Helen, I would not venture to touch her with a ten-foot pole.

Talk about love in a boudoir—love in a bow-window—love in a spring seat—love by moonlight, starlight, lamplight or any other kind of light, and I am with you heart and soul—but I pray you by the ghost of Faust, never to talk to me about love in a Printing Office!

I BEG leave to inform the public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew Wilson.

PIANOS.

THE SUBSCRIBER has been appointed agent, for the sale of CONRAD MEYER'S CELEBRATED PREMIUM ROSE WOOD PIANOS, at this place. These Pianos have a plain, massive and beautiful exterior finish, and, for depth and sweetness of tone, and elegance of workmanship, are not surpassed by any in the United States. The following is a recommendation from C. M. Drexler, a celebrated performer, and himself a manufacturer:

HAVING had the pleasure of trying the excellent Piano Fortes manufactured by Mr. Meyer, and exhibited at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, I feel it due to the true merit of the maker to declare that these instruments are quite equal, and in some respects even superior, to all the Piano Fortes I saw at the capital of Europe, and during a sojourn of two years at Paris. The best Philadelphia prices, if not something lower, Persons are requested to call and examine for themselves, at the residence of the subscriber, Sunbury, May 17, 1845.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived no signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seed of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Psoriasis, Chronic Cough, Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th Street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons: In Northumberland County—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Moxel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton. In Luzerne County—J. Gestat, Selingsgrove; A. Gutches, Middletown. In Columbia County—R. W. McCay, Washington. Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the use of every one to do whatever is in their power, for the benefit of their fellow men, and having had positive proof in my own family of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am at present recommending it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers on their face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it to the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading. Douglassville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiestor, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours truly, AMELIA D. LEAF. ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS TRUPTIONS.

THE following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1828. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many of preparations, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking several remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the Fall of 1836, the disease at length being very violent, I consulted a friend who had the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES D'RNELL, No. 155, Race St. Philadelphia, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which immediately stopped the itching, and a few applications completely cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests
