STEAMSHIP GREAT WESTERN. Eleven Days Later from Europe.

12.

ARRIVAL OF THE

A PAR

Fro.n the Phil. Ledger.

The steamship Great Western arrived at New York this (Monday) morning, having left Liverpool on the 30th ult., with news eleven days later from Europe.

The news she bring is interesting and important.

The steamship Cambria had arrived out with the news of a declaration of war against Mexico by the United States government, and passage the bill to raise 50,000 volunteers. This news produced a great sensation in England, and the sympathy of the British public was altogether in favor of Mexico, as the weaker party, though in the war of invasion against the poor Sikhs the same public had very little sympathy to throw away notwithstanding the weakness and inferio-Tity of the Sikh government compared with the power of Egg 'and.

The Great Western, it is stated, in the English papers upon the highest authority, brings out the answer of the British Government to the notice of the passage of the Oregon resolutions, and that it is of a conscillatory churacter.

Great rejoicings had taken place in consequence of the successful termination of an event annually expected. Queen Victoria L'as given birth to another daughter, which announcement was received as usual with demonstrations of joy and gratitude. The Queen is "doing as well ."s can be expected." The event occurred on the 23d.

The excitement in reference to the Corn Bill still existed, The measure may be considered property of Samuel Creigh. as safe. It has passed the House of Lords on second reading by a majority of 47. The Lon- Danvile, June 20, 1846. 5-41 don Sun says nothing whatever can prevent the triumphant settlement of the Corn bill.

The fate of the Irish Coercion bill is sealed. Lord George Bentic has declared that the great body of the Agricultural members are opposed to its future progress.

The Corn market was depressed, and transac tions in the Grain market limited.

The King and Queen of France are expected to visited England early in July.

ESCAPE OF LOUIS BUONAPARTE FROM HAM.-On Monday last, the Prince succeeded in effecting his escape from the Fortress of Ham. after a close imprisonment of some years; having assumed the disguise of a workman, he contrived to elude the vigilance of the sentries to regain his freedom, without any molestation from the battalion of infantry that formed the garrison of the Castle, and to arrive safely in London, where we believe he is at present.

The Morning Herald says as the Prince escaned at 7 o'clock of the morning of the 25th, and as the event was not discovered for 10 hours afterwards, he could easily have reached the Belgian troatiers, only 20 leagues distant, long before the Telegraph itself could have been set to work. The papers say he embarked at the Valery.
