(Continued from first page.) depression, but it had nearly attained its climat at an unlucky day for him. Congress found the country, in 1842, in a most deplorable condition of distress and despondency. Every man who was in any way connected with productive industry will remember what a dark cloud preceded their action on the tariff in that year, and we all know how soon confidence revived after the parange of the law; and all have realized the growth and improvement of every pursuit in our country from that time to this."

. Do gentlemen desire these scenes renewed ! Will men never learn windom from experience! flow is it now! How changed the scene! it a magician's wand had been waved over the face of our country, the result would hardly have appeared more like enchantment than the reality now before us. No man is idle who is willing to work. Contented, smiling faces are every where to be seen. The busy hum of industry gladdens the ear in all directions. Everybody is prosperous and everybody is happy.

For the crop of the last year the farmers of Pennsylvania received a high price. The prosperity of your city will be seen in the fact that a city has sprung up, as if by magic, alongside of you, furnishing employment for shipping nearly causl is amount to all the rest of your tonnage At this new point are daily seen more than 100 ships waiting for cargoes of coal. Our canals and our railroads are crowded with business, and new improvements are springing up in every quarter. Nearly all the States have restored their credit, and the United States Treasury had, when the present Congress met, a surplus of many millions. What has produced all this? Shall a law that has conferred all these benefits on the country be hastily thrown aside, and one adopted in its place which no one is willing to father, and which no one will defend; which, in its crude principles and undigested details, shows its author to be wholly unacquainted with the commercial, manufacturing, mechanical, or agricultural resources of the country !

PORTRAIT OF A PARISIAN COQUETTE .- I WEST with a friend to the new Opera. We had scarcely taken our seats in front of the amphitheatre. when a beautiful elegante, accompanied by an elderly cavalier, who, it was very easy to see, was her husband, took the second row. The lady was beautiful, her tourneur distinguished, while her toilette, and an air of languishing candour and enchanting amenity, struck every spectator. The heat induced her to take off her hat, and we discovered the most superb comb of polished steel, terminating in points of diamonds. Byand-by, a buckle of hair escaping from the comb obliged her to take off a glove, and left us to admire a hand and arm of the most polished symmetry, and of the most healthful freshness, enriched with precious rings and bracelets. The arm was exposed to the shoulder. It did, no doubt, cost her some pain to conceal for a time her finely turned neck, but it was necessary that her rich cashmere should produce its effect. At length, however, the cashmere dropped, and discovered the finest shoulders in the world, and a Bank of Wash bosom most beautiful. Either my companion or I could not avoid, from time to time, in audible whispers, to praise her beauty, which did not escape the attention of the lady and her husband .- The latter perhaps found the air, from the occasional opening of the door, a little too keen, and he said, with great sweetness, "Ma bonne amie, I entreat you to draw on your shawl and your gloves." "I assure you," she said in return, "I do not feel the air from the door ; but yet I thank you for your attention, and I will instantly give you proof of it, my love." And in less than a minute we could see nothing. Happily for me, a little old lady was placed by the side of the elegante. I offered her my place on the front seat, and in a moment, I took her station. In a minute or two my beautiful neighbour, taking advantage of her husband's eye being turned, pulled off her glove to re-adjust her comb, and suffered her cushmere to fall off one shoulder, which she gathered round under her arm; and the husband, being on the other side could not observe the fact -- so the glove and the shawl remained off during the rest of the performance. I had not an eye to the stage. On rising to depart, the husband said, "perhaps I have a little chagrined you, my dear, your robe is so beautiful-but your health is every thing." "O! I have given you pleasure," she replied, "and that is every thing to me."

Majon Noan never uttered a greater truth than the following :

"We are too polite in our phrases. If a millionaire gets drunk-he is elated. If an influential politician-he is elevated. If a Wall street broker-he is incbriated. If a large shoe dealer -he is intoxicated. But a poor Sixth ward mechanic-he is "a nasty beast, and drunk as a pig."

A few days since, the Grand Jury ignored a Paterson Bank* ill against a huge negro, for stealing chickens. Peoples' Bank* bill against a huge negro, for stealing chickens, and before discharging him from custody, the Judge bade him stand up, and, after a severe repremand, he concluded as follows-"You may go State Bank" now, John, but (shaking his finger at him) let me warn you never to appear here again." John, with delight beaming from his big white eyes, and with a broad grin, displaying a row of beautiful ivory, replied :- "I would'nt bin here dis time, Judge, only the constable fotch me !"

THE FARMER AND THE LAWYER .- Why do you not hold up your head as I do?' inquired an aristocratic lawyer of a farmer.

'Squire' said the farmer, 'look at that field of grain-all the valuable heads hang down, while those that have nothing in them stand upright.

In a party a few evenings since, it was asked, 'why is a woman unlike a looking glass?' It was answered, 'because the first speaks without reflecting, and the second reflects without speak-

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depura-tive Syrup of Serseparille, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in set-ting forth the advantages to be derived from its ting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the changest and most efficient nuconfidence, as the chespest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be at-tended with a most decided improvement in the ge-neral strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism. Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Firtula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. Reading, March 14, 1843, MR. OARLEY :- I believe it the uty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the bone-fit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful pr of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaperille, I mest conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Nonistown, and sise Dr. Isaac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarseparilla, of which I obtained several bottles the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astenishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a Yours truly. AMELIA D. LEAF.

ROSE CINTMENT

FOR TETTER. RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE PACE, AND OTHER

The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary ourse ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in viclence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Extract of Sarapparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the cure of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In few applications the violent itching ceased, the welling abated, the craption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was en cured. It has now been nearly a year and a hall since, and there is not a vestige of the disease re-maining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundieds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since asing it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 186, Race St.

A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.
PRILADALPRIA, May 27th, 1839.

THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upward of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to number of physicians, and used a great many appli cations without effecting a cure. About a yes since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirel stopped the itching, and a few applications immedi ately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it a any time for forty years. Mr. Vaughan, propi tot of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, inst ted on my trying his preparation, of which he ha ded me a jar. Atthough in common with the mer bers of my profession, I discountenance and disa prove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon ti public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bout to except the Rose Ointment from that class of m dictnes, and to give it my approbation, as it entity cured the eruption, although it had resisted to usual applications. DANL BAUGH, M. D. C.T. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Re-Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Su bury, by May 14th, 1843, H. B. MASSER,
