

Woman killed by her husband at her own request.
The following extraordinary case occurred a short time since at Wurttemberg; we find it related in a late foreign journal:

Adam Gaying, a man sixty-four years of age, of honest and upright dealings, loved and respected by all who knew him, presented himself on the 8th ult. before the authorities of Heidenheim, and stated calmly that he had just killed his wife. His declaration was immediately taken, as follows:—"My wife," he said, "as every one knows, has been suffering a long time from illness, and at times the pains she had to endure were such as to affect her reason; she latterly gave up all hopes of recovery, and continually repeated that not only was life a torment to her, but that she feared that if I died before her, she would be reduced to misery. This morning, after we had read together the 4th chapter of the Book of Judges, (they were devout people, and read the bible every day,) she requested me to drive a nail into her temple, as Jael did to Sisera, as such a death seemed to her short and easy, and would put an end to her sufferings; she said she forgave me beforehand for the act, which she advised me before God and man. A nail, she said, would not cause a great hemorrhage, and would make but a slight wound. 'As soon as I am dead,' she added, 'you can close the wound, put me on a clean cap, and no one will know anything at all about it.' After long resistance, (containing Gaying,) I gave way to the wishes of my wife. I took a nail and began to drive it into her left temple with a hammer, but the nail was too weak, and the point, instead of entering, flattened itself on the bone. I then took a small drill, but was equally unsuccessful. My wife grew impatient, and requested me to kill her at once with the hammer, which I accordingly did, by knocking in the skull. The body of my wife is at my house, where you can examine it at your leisure."

The magistrate immediately proceeded to the house with a medical man, and Gaying under a strong guard. They found the body dressed, upon the bed. On the left temple there were two wounds, and the right side of the skull was knocked in as low down as the temple. Beside the bed was a table, on which was a bible, the oil, drill, and hammer alluded to. On the ground was a basin of water, in which the murderer, according to his own declaration, washed his hands before presenting himself to the authorities.

Gaying is now in prison; he is perfectly calm and convinced that he acted well in fulfilling the wishes of his wife by putting an end to her sufferings. Some Wurttemberg papers state that the inhabitants of the village of Guesenstadt, where the murder was committed, led and spent the day in the Church, fasting and praying for the soul of the departed.

MONTEPELO.—The Matamoros Reveille mentions one incident connected with the history of Monterey, in Nuevo Leon, which is not generally known. The streets of that city were paved by American prisoners, taken by the forces of Gen. Arredondo from Mina's unfortunate expedition of 1816, and cemented with their blood. These men, who had nobly periled their lives to obtain the independence of Mexico, were taken prisoners, and after being kept at hard labor in the streets of Monterey for months, were taken out and basely shot, by order of the government. There is but one survivor of the expedition, the senior proprietor of the Reveille, from which we obtain the fact.

RECIPE FOR MAKING CORN SOUP.—Take one dozen ears of corn, (yellow is the best,) before it is hard, while the milk will run in breaking the kernel, score each one down the middle with a knife, then scrape the inside out into a bowl or dish, by running the back of a knife hard over the face of the ear, which set aside, then take the corn-cob and what remains on it, put them in a pot and cover with water, and boil one hour, then take out the cobs and put in with the liquid the inside of the corn that was scraped out, and boil together half an hour, put in a little salt and a pint of sweet milk and let it boil up once, dish it up with a little butter. If found too thick, it may be thinned with water before the second boiling. We are assured by one who has tried it, and who we know to be an admirable judge of what is good, that by following these directions the poorest family may enjoy a nutritious and most delectable dish of soup.

FOR THE HEAVES OR BROKEN WINDED HORSES.—Whoever is so unfortunate as to have a heaving or broken winded horse, and desires to cure or make him better, should not suffer him to drink for some time any other drink than weak lime water. The horse will soon relish this, and it seldom fails to produce a radical cure.

I will state another way for those who may prefer it. Take from one to two table spoonful of ground plaster of Paris, and stir the same into his menses three times a day. At first, if at hand, bran for two or three days—then bran and oats for a few days, with ground plaster, as above directed, in each of the menses.—Prairie Farmer.

THE LAST MILLER STORY.—The following anecdote is told in the Knickerbocker, of N. Y. A matter of fact old gentleman in New England, whose wife was a thorough "Destructionist," was awakened out of his sleep by his possessed rick, one stormy March night, with—"Husband! did you hear that noise? Its Gabriel coming! its the sound of his chariot wheels!" "Oh, pahaw, you old fool!" replied the good man "do you suppose Gabriel is such an ass as to come on wheels in such good sleighing as this? I tell you it's the wind—turn over and go to sleep!"

A doctor in England, advertises in the papers that he has removed his residence near the grave yard, for the greater convenience of his patients.

HERR'S HOTEL,

HARRISBURG, PA.

I BEG leave to inform the public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew Wilson.

This spacious building, having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed if equalled, by any similar establishment in Pennsylvania; and having undergone a thorough renovation, the parlors, rooms and chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience. My TABLE is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce: the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no exertions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous and interesting States of the Union.

With these premises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, I wish confidence, most respectfully solicit the patronage of the Public.

DANIEL HERR,
Late of Herr's Hotel, Chesnut st., Philad.

A CARD.
Having had the pleasure of trying the excellent Piano Forte manufactured by Mr. Meyer, and exhibited at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, I feel it due to the true merit of the maker to declare that these instruments are quite equal and in some respects even superior, to all the Piano Fortes, I saw at the capitals of Europe, and during a sojourn of two years at Paris.
These Pianos will be sold at the manufacturer's lowest Philadelphia prices, if not something lower. Persons are requested to call and examine for themselves, at the residence of the subscriber.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others: every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general health of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving strength and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Flatula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mizel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton.

In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutelius, Milfordburg.

In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington, Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor,
Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglasville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiestor, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.
Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.
