

A sprinkling of Irish. A Hibernian, with a poll as red as the Red Lion at Brentford, and rendered still more red by a copious discharge of blood, which oozed through a dirty rag tied over a recent wound on his scalp, applied at Bow street at the beginning of the week for a warrant, when the following dialogue took place:

Magistrate—Well, Pat, (for his countenance operated as a sort of finger post, pointing to the road from whence he came) 'what do you want?'
'I'd be wanting a warrant, please yer Honor.'
'Against whom?'
'Agin Barney O'Leary, please yer Riverence.'
'For what?'
'For further yer Grace.'
'When did he murder?'
'Divil a creature but myself, yer Honor.'
'And has he murdered you?'
'By my soul he has, bad luck to him!—He cut a hole in my head big enough to bury his cat.'
'He hasnt killed you outright, I see.'
'It's not his fault that he hasnt, yer honor, for he intinded it, and nothing surer.'
'I suppose an assault warrant will suit your purpose?'
'Yer Honor knows what's best and I'll take what I can git.'
'When did he assault you?'
'Last night that ever was, yer Riverence.'
'Did he hit you with a stick?'
'For God he didn't yer Honor, but wid a poker.'
'A poker! That's a dangerous weapon.'
'Divil a doubt of it.'
'Where were you?'
'Where was I!—why, in bed to be sure.'
'Asleep or awake?'
'As sound as a roach, yer Honor.'
'And what provocation had you given him?'
'Divil a provocation at all, yer Honor; How could I when I was sound asleep?'
'What! do you mean to say he came to your bedside and struck you in this dreadful manner with out the slightest provocation?'
'It's truth what you say, yer Honor, barring he came to his own bedside instead of mine.'
'His own bedside—were you in his bed?'
'Faith, you just guessed it, yer honor.'
'And what brought you there?'
'That's more than I can tell, yer Honor, barring the liquor that was in me.'
'And was this all you did to provoke his anger?'
'Divil a thing else.'
'Was there any other person present?'
'Not a creature, independint of his wife.'
'His wife?'
'Of course.'
'Of course! and don't you think you deserved what you got?'
'Is it me?'
'Yes, you.'
'Sure it was all a mistake, yer Honor, I thought 'twas my own wife, and divil a hair of her head I touched.'
'That may be; but you must be more careful in future, and I think under these circumstances you must be content with what you have got, for I cannot grant a warrant.'
'Thank yer Honor; but when he hit me agin it wot for nothing.'
'[Exit Pat, shrugging his shoulders, and evidently disappointed.]
It turned out that the fellow went drunk to the bed, and was unconscious where he was, till Barney, gave him a gentle hint with the iron persuader and fortunately his skull was thick enough to resist the intended finisher. Barney's wife, who was awake by the shock, lent her assistance in whisking him out of the room. She expressed her utter unconcern of his presence, till her lawful lord arrived and discovered the intruder.

No PAY—NO PAPER.—The editor of the Western Citizen (Chicago), a weekly paper, suspends the publication when the money does not come in. When his subscribers pay up, he issues another number, and waits for the next supply of funds. The subscribers, of course, cannot complain of this arrangement, for all they have to do is to pay regularly to be served regularly.

SLANDEROUS.—It is said that a girl in Pittsfield, Mass., was struck dumb by the firing of a cannon. Since then a number of married men, it is said, have invited the artillery companies to come and discharge their pieces on their premises!

FELLOW CITIZENS.—said a candidate for Congress, recently, somewhere 'out West,' 'Fellow citizens! you are well aware I've got no education, I never went to school in all my life but three times, and that was to night school. Two nights the teacher didn't come, and the other night I had no candle.'

A HARDENED OFFENDER.—A hardened offender about being hung, the attendant clergyman, under the impression that he was a repentant sinner, thus addressed him—
'In a few moments you will be in another and a better world; I envy your place.'
'Do you!' said he eagerly, 'how'll you swap situations?'

A SPIRIT OF FAULT-FINDING.—An unassisted temper—a constant irritability—little inequalities in the look, the temper, or manner, a brow cloudy and dissatisfied—will more than neutralize all the good you can do, and render life anything but a blessing.

MONTOUR HOUSE,

LATE BRADY'S HOTEL,
Opposite the Court House,
DANVILLE, PENNA.

THE Subscriber, who assisted for several years in the management of the above Hotel, lately left by Mr. S. A. Brady, has taken the establishment on his own account, on the first of January, 1846. The House has, of late, undergone many important alterations, and the present conductor promises to leave nothing undone to make it a comfortable and agreeable, as well as a cheap and accommodating stopping place for strangers who may visit our flourishing village. No pains nor expense will be spared to fill the table and the bar with the best markets afford, and with the determination to devote his entire personal attention to the comfort of those who may make his house their temporary abode, and aided by active, careful and obliging servants, he hopes to give general satisfaction, and receive a liberal share of custom.

Large and commodious STABLES are attached to the establishment, which are attended by careful and obliging hostlers.

EVANS & WATSON,

NO. 78 SOUTH THIRD STREET,
Opposite the Philadelphia Exchange.

Manufacture and keep constantly on hand, a large assortment of their Patent IMPROVED SALAMANDER FIRE PROOF SAFES, which are constructed as to set at rest all manner of doubt as to their being strictly fire proof, and that they will resist the fire of any building in the world. The outside case of the Safes are made of boiler iron, the inside case of soapstone, and between the outer case and inner case is a space of some 3 inches thick, and filled with indurated bituminous matter, so as to make it an impossibility to burn any of the contents inside of this Chest. These Salamanders are prepared and do challenge the world to produce any article in the shape of Book Safes that will stand as much heat, and we hold ourselves ready at all times to have them fairly tested by public bonfire, should any of our competitors feel disposed to try them. We also continue to manufacture and keep constantly on hand, a large and general assortment of our Premium Air-tight Fire Proof Safes, of which we have a large quantity in use, and in every instance they have given entire satisfaction to the purchasers—of which we will refer the public to a few gentlemen who have them in use.

N. & G. Taylor, 129 north 3d st.; John M. Ford, 32 north 3d st.; Myers Bush, 20 north 3d st.; Bailey & Brother, 139 Market st.; James M. Paul, 101 south 4th st.; Dr. David Jayne, 8 south 3d st.; Matthew T. Miller, 20 south 3d st.; and we could name some three or four hundred others if it were necessary. Now we invite the attention of the public, and particularly those in want of Fire Proof Safes, to call at our store before purchasing elsewhere, and we think we can satisfy them that they will get a better and cheaper article at our store than at any other establishment in the city. We also continue to manufacture Seal and Copying Presses, made in such a manner as to answer both purposes; Hoisting Machines, Fire Proof Doors, with our own manufacture of locks on them, with D. Evans' Patent Keyhole cover attached to the same; plain and ornamental Iron Railings, &c.

HERR'S HOTEL,

HARRISBURG, PA.

I BEG leave to inform the public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew Wilson.

This spacious building, having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed if equalled, by any similar establishment in Pennsylvania; and having undergone a thorough renovation, the parlors, rooms and chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience.

My TABLE is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce: the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no exertions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, I wish confidently, most respectfully solicit the patronage of the Public.

DANIEL HERR, Late of Herr's Hotel, Chestnut st., Philad. Harrisburg, Nov. 22, 1845.

THOMSON'S Compound Syrup of Tar & Wood Naphtha.

THE unprecedented success of this medicine, in the restoration of health, to those who, in deep debility, had given up all hopes, has given it an exalted reputation above all other remedies, furnishing evidence of its intrinsic value and power, as the only agent which can be relied upon for the cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pain in the side and Breast, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup, &c.

Attention is requested to the following ASTONISHING CURE, by Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha!

Philadelphia, May 3d, 1844.
MR. THOMSON—Dear Sir—With grateful feelings I inform you of the astonishing effects of your medicine, which has literally raised me from a death-bed! My disease, Pulmonary Consumption, had reduced me so low that my physician pronounced my case hopeless! At this juncture I began to use your medicine, and miraculously as it may seem, it has completely restored me to health, after everything else had failed. Respectfully yours,
WASHINGTON MACK,
Charlotte street, above George street.

The undersigned, being personally acquainted with Washington Mack and his sufferings, bear witness to the astonishing effects of Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar, and the truth of the above statement.

PIANOS.

THE SUBSCRIBER has been appointed agent, for the sale of CONRAD MEYER'S CELEBRATED PREMIUM ROSE WOOD PIANOS, at this place. These Pianos have a plain, massive and a beautiful exterior finish, and for depth and sweetness of tone, and elegance of workmanship, are not surpassed by any in the United States. The following is a recommendation from G. W. DIXON, a celebrated performer, and himself a manufacturer:

A CARD.

HAVING had the pleasure of trying the excellent Piano Fortes manufactured by Mr. Meyer, and exhibited at the late exhibition of the Franklin Institute, I feel it due to the true merit of the make to declare that these instruments are quite equal and in some respects even superior, to all the Piano Fortes I saw at the capitals of Europe, and during a sojourn of two years at Paris.

These Pianos will be sold at the manufacturer's lowest Philadelphia prices, if not something lower. Persons are requested to call and examine for themselves, at the residence of the subscriber.

Sunbury, May 17, 1845. H. B. MASSER.

TIME, of a superior quality, can now be had at the Lime Kilns of Henry Masser, in Sunbury, May 17, 1845.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarasparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrophulous or King's Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough, Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarasparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton.

In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selinsgrove; A. Gutelius, Millburg.

In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington.

Reading, March 14, 1843.

Mr. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarasparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarasparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resource; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglasville, April 19th, 1843.

Mr. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norrisstown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiestler, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarasparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. The use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who see him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.

Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.

The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea Extract of Sarasparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured.

In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling ab
