Superiority in Humble Life.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Recorder relates the following thrilling incident, which recently occurred in a Mission Sabbath School of German children to that city:

"It had been the custom for some time, to offer a hyma book, testament, or other premium to the scholar who should recite the greatest number of texts in proof of some doctrine of scripture. The rewards of course were won by the girls, as they are always the best scholars. Among these was one who, having a better education and greater advantages than the rest, had, for several months in succession, taken the prise. At last a very active rivalry was excited, and one of the more ambitious children actually learned 44 proof texts, being all her teacher found for her, and to make sure of success. committed to memory 20 verses besides, making 64 in all. But Sophia had learned 59 proofs, and was therefore entitled to the reward, a finely bound New Testament. The exercises of the day were closed, and the school waiting for the award of the promised prize. Sophia has learned 59 proofs, said the superintendent, and Caroline has committed 64; they both deserve the gift, but Caroline has learned the most, and it is here.

The prize for which the poor girl had hoped and labored a whole month was given to her, but she knew it was not rightfully hers, and though the temptation was strong, very strong for a child, she did not yield. Trembling and faltering, she told the superintendent that she had learned but 41 proofs ? although she had recited 64 verses, and sat down pale and disappointed, but with an approving conscience. The book was then given to Sophia, who, instead of receiving it, requested that it should be given to Ciroline, who had labored so hard to win it. The teachers had looked on in surprise and admiration at first, but when they saw two suchnoble spirits, their tears were not to be restrained. The world has heard and admired the story of Washington's honesty when a child. but I am sure his frank confession was not more puble than the honesty of one of these poor Ger man girls, and the generosity of the other."

A letter from C 1 Stevenson, dated at Rio Janeiro, Nov. 27th, two days before the trens ports left that port for Sin Francisco, in Cali fornia, appears in the Albany Arens. He expected to reach the latter place in one hundred days, about the first of March. There were but ten men of the whole expedition on the sick list. The Colonel thought they would not stop again till they arrived at San Fancisco.

Da. Swaynu-Dear Sir : I feel called by a sens of dury I one to suffering humanity, to acknowledge my grateful thanks for the wonderful effects of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry on me, after suffering month after month with the most afflicting of all diseases, Consumption. The first symptoms were of a very heavy cold which settled on my langs, which graduilly grew worse, with profuse night sweets, a herking cough, spitting blood, with great debility. My constitution seemed beken down, and pervous system very much impaird. I went to Philadelphia, was treated there by physicians of the highest standing, but received no eacht whatever from them, but gradually grew worse, until my physicians, as we'l as myself, gave out to pass through the Valley of the Shadow of Death. At this "awful juncture" I heard of your Compound Syrup of Will Cherry, of which I purchand six bottles, which I am happy to say entirely cured me, and I am now enjoying better health than I ever have before in my life. Physicians who witnessed my case are highly recommending it in similar cases, and I wish you to make this public, so that all may know where to procure a remedy at once which will reach their disease befire tampering with the many 'quick nestrams with which the country is flooded. My residence is at 45 Ann street, where I should be happy to have the shove substantiated by a personal inter-ALBERT A. ROSS. view.

Ern Moussel's Anibersal SHAVING CREAM. Small quantities given without Charge.

At 114 Chemid St., PHILADELPHIL. THIS new and splendt I article, a its mome de-I notes, is professed to be superior to any Sha-ving Oreem in the United States of Europe. It is unsurpassed for beauty, purity and togrance, the comewhat analogous to Guerlain's Ambrestil Cresm and other similar compounds. It for surpasses them all by the emclient pasty c naistency of its lather, which so softens the leard as to rend r shaving pleasant and easy. It further passers a the advantage over the imported article, in being freshly prepare I, no skill being wanting in its man-ufacture. E. Roussel having had many years' experience in the celebrated Laboratory of Laugur, Pere et Fils, now Renaud & co., of Paris.

Besides being the lest, it is the cheapest article for shaving; it is elegantly put up in boxes, with

Price $3 per dozen, or 373 cents for a single box, to shave one year. It is also rold at $1.50 per lb. or 124 cents per oz., so that gentlemen can have their boxes filled at BUGENE ROLSSEL'S, Wholesale and Retail Perfumery and Mineral Was fer Es ablishment, 114 Chesnut Street,
