

Very Bublime Song. Yes, she was lovely, she was fair, As mild as summer even; An angel form, a spirit bright, A star that dropped from Heaven,

(Well she was And Oh! those bright and lustrous orbs, That beamed with holy fire; Those auburn curls, that lovely brow, None, none, but could admire. (Well, they couldn't.)

And Oh! that bright and graceful form, So like a beauteous fairy; Perhaps we'd leave out the "." And then it would be airy.

(Well, it would.) I knelt before her and I swore, I'd have one burning kies :

She said : "Go wash your firty face, You can't enjoy such bliss " (Well, she did)

I swore she was an angel, too, Who'd fallen from the sky : She cried : "Oh! for a pair of wings, Once more to soar on high," (Indeed, she did)

"What, what," I cried, "and would you thus, A laver frue desert?" "Oh! heavens!" she cried, "the clothes line's There goes my brother's shirt." (Well, she did, hose)

I felt just then as if I'd dropt From Chimborazo's summit; I felt my budding passion cropt, Mere beauty couldn't come it.

(No sir-ree) And did I quickly snatch my bat, Without a thought of kissing? And did I ever after that

Come up among the missing? (I didn't do nothin' else)

SMALLER STILL .- The Trustees of Saratoga village would not allow Tom Thumb to give his exhibitions without taxing him $25 per day for a license. As this was the first time that a license had ever been charged for any exhibition in Saratoga, the little General wrote a letter to the Trustees, stating that he was satisfied from their acts that Saratoga could produce much emaller men than himself-he should therefore respectfully decline coming in competition with those who evidently had so much the advantage of him in point of littleness.

Burdock leaves will cure a borse of the slavers in five minutes; let him eat about two leaves. I have tried it many times. My horses will always cat them when the slavers are bad .--Plaughmen.

THE ONLY WAY .- Keep pushing; if you rush against a snow bank or rail tence, don't go hick, but push them over or leap them. If you int against any difficulty, push it forward, or our side, and go on. Push over and keep pushmg, and your fortune is half made.

Use or Cons .- A yankee traveller through the Miami valley recently made this enquiry of a young farmer, who has just been replenishing the inner man with a drop of the essence of consolation; "I say, Mister-what is the staple product of this 'ere section of country!" "Corn, er," was the reply-"corn; we raise here seventy bushels to the acre, and manufacture ithe-into whickey, to say nothing-hic-of what is wasted for bread."

Good REPLY .- If we are to live after death, why don't we have some knowledge of it?' said skeptic to a clergyman. *Why did'nt you have some knowledge of this world before you came into it ! was the caustic reply.

SOMETHING NEW!

THE Subscribers have the exclusive right of vending J. M. THATCHER'S Hot Blast Hot Air Cooking SET EN WES in the counties of Northumberland, Cofembia and Schoylkill; and from the encouragement met with already, they expect to do a large business. This stave is constructed on an entirely new principle, and on the sufty principle that can make both a good wood and coal stove. The inventor has overcome all the difficulties that so frequently belong to other stoves. He has by his arrangement, constructed a broking @ Oven In front, where in brofling, toneting, frying or baking may be done, and all the smell that senses therefrom must pass into the combustife chamber, and is not at all thrown out into the room. D Besides this, there is an oven only two inches less than the whole size of the stove, wherein baking or roasting may be done as well as it can be in the common brick oven. This even is always fit for use when the stove is heated, as the whole draught of hot air passes around it constantly. Public attention is particularly called to this stove. It can be men at our Store and Tin Establishment in North Danville, at the sign of the Columbia Tin shop, and at the Foundry of Robebach & Clement in Sunbury, where its particular qualities will be fully shown and exp ained to any person wishing to exemine it. The subscribers continue to have on hand all kinds of parlor stoves, such as radiators, cylenders, fancy and plain, suitable for all who may favor us with a call; also common sheet and Russia Iron. which can be made in any desirable shape; togther with a general assertment of tin and japanned ware, wholesale and retail. Country mer hants are invited to call and examine our stock, as our work cannot be surpassed, and prices moderate. N. B. We can eately recommend the above mengood business. The patentee will sell either county or state rights, to suit purchasers, and on reaonable terms. He or his agents may be found in

J. & J. ARTER.

Dasville, Pa.

The undersigned, having seen in operation the but biast but air cooking stove, invested and pafrom the manuer of its construction and operation, that it is the best one ever offered to the public. The arrangement is so complete and the construction so judicious, that there is a saving of one half the fuel and time, in doing any given amount of s-rvle-, over other celebrated stoves. In short we rec-unment it in preference to all others, for the simple Samuel Garrett, John W Garrett, David Chat-field, W F Kirch n. SHAVING CREAM. Small quantities given without Charge.

.tt 114 Chemut St., PHILADELPHIA. HIS new and splendid article, as its name denotes, is professed to be superior to any Shaving Cream in the United States or Europe. It is unsurpass d for beauty, purity and fragrance, the somewhat analogous to Guerlain's Ambrosial Cream and other similar compounds. It far surpasses them all by the emollient pasty consistency f its lather, which so softens the beard as to render shaving pleasant and easy. It further possesses the advantage over the imported article, in being freshly prepared, no skill being wanting in its manufacture. E. Roussel having had many years' experience in the celebrated Laboratory of Laugur, Pere et Fils, now Renaud & co., of Paris.

Besides being the best, it is the cheapest article for shaving; it is elegantly put up in boxes, with splendid steel engraved labels.

Price $3 per dozen, or 374 cents for a single box, to shave one year. It is also sold at $1.50 per lb. or 12½ cents per oz., so that gentlemen can have their boxes filled at EUGENE ROUSSEL'S, Wholesale and Retail Perfumery and Mineral Water Es ablishment, 114 Chesnut Street.
