Ali doubts Foreman protest

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Muhammad Ali said that if George Foreman has proof that there were any irregularities in their heavyweight title fight last week then he should do something about it.

"I think George is just suffering from a big let down," said Ali.

Ali knocked out Foreman in the eighth round of their fight in Africa, and regained the heavyweight title he was stripped of by edict during his dispute with Uncle Sam over the Selective Service draft.

Foreman has protested that the ropes were loose, the ring canvas was too soft, and that he was the victim of a fast count on the knockout. He is protesting to the World Boxing Council and the World Boxing Association.

"I don't know anything about it," said Ali of Foreman's contentions. "If there were irregularities then they should prove it and do something about it. The worse that could happen is that he'd get another whipping."

the Titanic couldn't sink. A lot of fools believed him."

Ali declined to speculate on whether he would give Foreman an immediate rematch; or fight former champion Joe Frazier for the third time. Ali and Frazier split their two battles.

Ali dismissed Foreman's complaints, declaring, "He was completely out classed. He was just like an amateur fighting a professional. I think he just had a big let down. You the media all played him up to be so big. It was a quick fall, a quick crash."

Ali said that Foreman believed the stories that he was invincible, hit harder than Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano, that it would only be a matter of time before Ali's legs caved, that Ali didn't have any punching power.

"He was just like the Titanic," said Ali, referring to the huge ship that hit an iceberg and sank. "They said

"I think I should have a couple of easy fights first," Ali said. "I think I'm entitled to a few easy pay days."

The champion said he had offers to fight in England, Russia, Arabia, Algeria, Pakistan and Nigeria. He said it would take $10 million to get into the ring for a title defense.

Ali said he planned to take a few months off and then would fight again, probably in the Middle East.
