

Lady swimmers aim for undefeated Raiderettes

By JOYCE TOMANA
Collegian Sports Writer

When two undefeated teams meet this late in the season, neither is going to give up their record without a spirited, all-out battle. That will be the atmosphere this afternoon when the Lady Lion swimmers travel to Shippensburg State College.

"Shippensburg has always been a very emotional team," Penn State coach Ellen Perry said. "They are always up for a Penn State contest."

Penn State boasts a 5-0 record while Shippensburg is 7-0. The Raiderettes are also determined to keep alive an 11 game winning streak that began last season. The most recent meeting between the two squads was in 1975 in which Shippensburg came out ahead 84-47.

The home advantage will be the equalizer this afternoon, according to coach Perry. The deck space surrounding the pool is a mere three feet that runs right up to the bleachers. The starting blocks are built into a solid wall on one of the narrow sides. It's cramped quarters for everyone, to say the least. It's nothing like the spacious natatorium that Penn State swimmers are so used to.

"Fifty people will sound like 300, it's that small," Perry said.

The only questionable starter for Shippensburg is junior diving captain Kathy Duerr. She hit her hand on the three meter board during Tuesday's practice. X-rays taken yesterday will determine whether or not there is a fracture. Individual medlist Mindy Millard will sit out once again for the Lady Lions due to back trouble. Coach Perry is looking for her to be back in action this weekend for the showdown with Pittsburgh.

In the backstroke, Shippensburg's Debbie Tyler boasts a 0:29.4 in the 50-yard and a 1:04.4 in the 100-yard. She will be up against Lady Lion's Lizanne Hendershot, who has done a 0:28.93 in the 50-yard; and Cindy Fry, who does the 100-yard in 1:02.28.

Penn State's Fedon sisters will be challenged by Kim Nelson in the freestyle events. Nelson's best is 0:26.5 in the 50-yard and 0:58.5 in the 100-yard. Lee Ann clocks the 50-yard in 0:25.6 and Lisa clocks the 100-yard in 55.47.

Free scores 22 points as Sixers edge Bucks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Lloyd Free tossed in 22 points, including three clutch final-period field goals that enabled the Philadelphia 76ers to ward off the Milwaukee Bucks, 107-104, last night in a National Basketball Association game.

The pesky Bucks three times came within four points in the final period.

George McGinnis got the Sixers out of trouble the first time with a basket. And Free saved them the second time with one goal and the third time with two.

The 76ers led 20-11 in the first period, but the Bucks outscored them 10-2 to close within one point at 22-21. They tied it twice before Philadelphia gained a 29-27 edge at the end of the period.

Milwaukee kept in the game with ties at 31 and 33 before the 76ers erupted for eight straight points and an eight-point advantage. Philadelphia held on to lead by seven at halftime, 61-54.

The Bucks came back in the third quarter to tie it at 62 and again at 66 before the Sixers spurred again to a 71-66 lead. Philadelphia outscored the Bucks 8-4 in the last two minutes of the period to lead by nine.

In the final quarter, the 76ers increased their lead to 11 at 91-80 only to have Milwaukee reel off seven straight points and pull within four points, 91-87.

McGinnis, who scored 17, hit a field goal and Junior Bridgeman countered for the Bucks. Caldwell Jones and Free scored for Philadelphia to make it 97-89.

Swen Nater, who collected 21 points, and Bridgeman each scored to make it 97-93. But Free dunked in two quick baskets and the 76ers were home.

Brian Winters led the Bucks with 34 points, while Nater collected 25 rebounds and Quinn Buckner handed out 13 assists for the losers. Bridgeman, who came into the game with 50 consecutive free throws, missed in the second period.

Ford has rough day

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Rik Massengale shot an eight-under-par 64 and hit 18 greens yesterday while Gerald Ford hit two spectators in the first round of the $200,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic.

The former President, making his second appearance of the year in a pro-am event, played as a partner of defending champion Johnny Miller before a massive, enthusiastic gallery that lined every fairway and green four or five deep. The crowd was so large any errant shot was almost certain to hit someone. Ford got two, one with his second shot on the 10th hole and one with his drive on 16. Neither spectator was injured.

Massengale, meanwhile, a runner-up to Miller a year ago, played an almost errorless round and assumed a three-stroke lead in this unique, 90-hole, five-day event spread over four desert courses. He hit every green, missed only one fairway, didn't make a bogey and holed putts totaling more than 50 yards in length.

Lions lose, 86-66 Owls batter cagers

By RICK WEBER
Collegian Sports Writer

Chris Erichsen did all he could for the Penn State basketball team, but it just wasn't enough.

After a two-month absence due to a foot injury, Erichsen suited up and scored 12 points in nearly 20 minutes of action. But his impressive return to the squad was offset by Bruce Herald and Walt Monford, who scored 24 points and 21 points respectively to lead Temple to an 86-66 win over the Lions last night at the Palestra in Philadelphia.

The shooting of Herald and Monford and a tough 2-3 zone defense which prevented Penn State from getting inside helped Temple break open a close game midway through the second half and the Owls cruised to their twelfth victory in twenty games. Penn State's loss dropped its record to 7-14.

The Lions fought back from an 11-point deficit and scored eight straight points near the end of the half to trail, 31-28, at halftime.

Penn State continued to narrow the margin in the opening moments of the second half. After Herald and Marty Staharski scored baskets for Temple in the opening minute of play, Jeff Miller hit a long jumper from the corner and Carvin Jefferson tipped-in a missed shot to narrow the Owls' lead to 35-34. After Ricky Reed scored on a driving layup for Temple, Erichsen hit a short jumper to make it 37-36.

But that was as close as the Lions would get all night. Bruce Burnett, the Owls' leading scorer, and Reed hit short jump shots as Temple opened up a 41-36 lead.

The Owls extended the lead to 10 points, 51-41, two minutes later on a baseline jump shot by Herald.

After Erichsen hit two foul shots to make it 59-50 with 11:08 left in the game, Temple reeled off four baskets and held the Nitt scoreless for nearly four minutes to take a commanding 69-50 lead.

Temple kept the pressure on, took a 76-54 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the game and cruised to the easy victory.

Tom Wilkinson scored a career-high 14 points, most of them on long jumpshots over the zone defense. Bill Dankos scored 10 points, and Steve Kuhn and Jeffersor collected nine points apiece in Penn State's losing effort.

Cheevers to booze class

SALEM, Mass. (AP) — A District Court judge yesterday ordered goalie Gerry Cheevers of the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League to listen for the next year to lectures on the evils of alcohol.

After Cheevers' conviction on a charge of drunken driving, Judge Robert E. Hayes ordered the goalie into the Lawrence Community Alcohol Safety Program. Probation Officer Ray Shay said the athlete could fill his commitment without losing any playing time.
