

Bowling teams take pair from American

By NEIL RUDEL
Collegian Sports Writer
Coach Don Ferrell's men's and women's bowling teams both chalked up wins Saturday against American University but their margins of victory differed like day and night.
The Penn State men rollers escaped with their eighth triumph, in as many starts, but not until a Lion surge late in the final of a best of three set sealed a 10-9 victory.
Ferrell's alleywomen experienced much less difficulty as they mangled

American, 19-0, to extend their season chart to 6-2.
American's visiting men's team held a 7-5 lead after two sets but the Lions, particularly Terry Wenz and Barry Kubala, rallied to win four individual matchups and earned the high team total to set the final score.
Saturday's scoring format differed from most of the scoring procedures of the bowling teams' previous outings.
In each of the three sets, five Lions matched up against five Americans for a total of 15 points at stake. An additional point was awarded each set's high team total and one for total pins on the day.

Trailing by 70 pins after two sets, Ferrell's club caught fire and squeaked by American, 2690-2672. Kubala, a sophomore, led the charge with a high game of 236. His high series of 628 and average of 209 were the day's best.
"The men were extremely sharp," Ferrell said. "The lineup was shaken up a little but we complemented each other very well."
There were no seniors in the men's lineup which, due to rules of the league that Penn State hopes to join next season, was shuffled.
The lineup changes were such that both teams' number one bowlers rolled from the five spot; four took the second position; and number five rolled from the fourth slot.

The fourth and fifth positions, Ferrell said, are where a team's most reliable bowlers are usually placed. But Saturday's shuffle saw Tom DeNol, a newcomer, being shuttled into the prestigious number four spot. The pressure was on the rookie.
"Tom did really well, though," Ferrell said. "He beat his man by 20 pins in the final game."
The same lineup rules pertained to the Lady Lions who apparently didn't seem to mind who bowled where as they played a rude welcoming committee, blasting American, 19-0.
"The girls just bowled superbly all day; they were not to be denied," Ferrell said.
Tina Clark paced the onslaught with a high series, game and average with a 574, 225 and 190, respectively.

Indiana stuns Michigan

By the AP
The Indiana Hoosiers have a "Mr. Outside" and a "Mr. Inside."
What's more, he's the same guy.
Scoring inside, outside and all around the court, Mike Woodson was unstoppable yesterday and as a result the Hoosiers were unbeatable in their nationally-televised game with Michigan.
With the efficient freshman forward scoring 26 points before a roaring hometown crowd at Bloomington, Indiana salvaged some of its season's pride with a 73-64 upset of the fifth-ranked Wolverines.
"I really can't say why I got so many open shots," said Woodson. "The shots were just there."
Michigan Coach Johnny Orr was just as puzzled with Woodson's free-lance activities on the court.
"They just ran their offense in the second half," said Orr. "I don't know how they got Woodson opened so often."
For a while, the Wolverines looked as good as their previous week's 89-84 victory over Indiana at Ann Arbor. But their troubles started directly after intermission. Applying a high-pressure defense, Indiana held Michigan scoreless for the first four minutes of the second half and took charge of game.

"We concentrated all week on defense," said Indiana Coach Bobby Knight, whose team had beaten Michigan in last year's NCAA championship game.
"We thought we had given up some easy baskets last week in the loss to Michigan before we had even set up. We told our kids this week that our defense started when the shot went up."
Michigan, which was averaging 88 points a game and 50 per cent shooting from the field, was held to 38 per cent by the Hoosiers. In addition, the Wolverines committed 20 turnovers.
"We were able to get control of the game in the second half," said Knight. "There was only one difference between this week and last week — we were able to hold onto the lead."
Yesterday's game capped a weekend of heavy activity in college basketball. Top-ranked San Francisco clinched at least a tie for the West Coast Athletic Conference championship with a 99-82 rout of St. Mary's Saturday night behind center Bill Cartwright.
While San Francisco was rolling toward the NCAA playoffs, the second-ranked Bruins had a stumbling block thrown in their way Saturday night with a 78-73 loss to Washington. It was the second Pac-8 defeat for the Bruins this season and put them just a shade ahead of three teams tied for second — Oregon, Washington and Washington State. The Bruins have lost one less game than the others.
In other Top Ten games, No. 3 Kentucky trimmed Auburn 89-82; No. 4 Wake Forest defeated North Carolina State 84-77; No. 10 Nevada-Las Vegas nipped No. 6 Louisville 99-96; No. 7 Alabama turned back Mississippi State 73-69; No. 8 Minnesota outscored Iowa 61-58 and No. 9 Marquette hammered Manhattan 86-60.
Elsewhere, No. 11 Tennessee whipped Louisiana State 91-64; No. 12 Cincinnati stopped Georgia Tech 84-73; No. 13 Arkansas routed Rice 78-51; No. 14 North Carolina bested Tulane 106-94; Maryland upset No. 15 Clemson 84-78; No. 16 Providence tripped Long Island 99-85; St. Bonaventure stunned No. 17 Syracuse 91-84; No. 18 Arizona beat New Mexico 88-84; No. 19 Detroit downed Wayne State 123-77 and No. 20 VMI turned back Richmond 92-87.
