"I think Tommy (Hovasse) and Ed did a fine job offensively," Parkhill said.

Parkhill felt the game was good for the team. but he was a little disturbed by the score of the game.

"I think for the most part we played pretty well," Parkhill said. "We have to be more patient on offense and work on our weak side rebounding. I feel bad about the score. I never feel comfortable with a score like this, but it was one of those nights where our guys were pumped up and Juniata was cold.'

Parkhill added that it is tough to tell much from er in the end. In the finals, Martin used an early first period escape to outlast N.C. State's Mike Stokes and clinch the title at 126. At 167, redshirt freshman Suter opened some eyes by downing Mike Lehman of Rider. 5-4, while Mayo beat Lock Haven's Bill Freeman, 7-3 for the 177-pound title. Chertow (134) was defeated 3-1 in the finals by N.C. State's Bill Hershey.

Although Mayo came out on top in his weight class, he said he still has a long way to go to wrestle up to his own potential.

a game like this but he feels his team is ready to play. He said that there is always some slippage in performance from practices to games, but he was pleased with the Lions' performance Saturday.

Hovasse felt the Lions needed to use the game to make a statement - both to themselves and to the Oklahoma Sooners. "We didn't look past Juniata." Hovasse said.

We wanted to make a statement to both Oklahoma and ourselves. I think we played well, we were all just really pumped up."

The victory starts the season on a winning note for the Lions, but they weren't really tested and that could be a drawback entering tomorrow's game with No. 19 Oklahoma.

"I'd like to have a few more games before we play Oklahoma," Parkhill said. • • •

An additional allotment of free student passes has been made available for the Lions' game with Oklahoma tomorrow night at Rec Hall.

Distribution of the passes will begin today at 8:30 a.m. at the Beaver Stadium Ticket Office. Passes, if still available, will also be distributed at the Rec Hall Ticket Office beginning at 11:30 a.m. Students may pick up two passes upon presentation up their I.D. card and registrar's receipt. The pass and student I.D. must be presented at the gate for admission tomorrow night.

The Rec Hall doors will open at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The team fought hard in the final game against LSU, eventually dropping a tough 16-14 decision.

Friday night the Lady Lions faced Texas A&M, ranked fourth in the Southwestern Conference this year. Penn State swept the Lady Aggies, 15-4, 15-5 and 15-12.

The Lady Lions must now prepare for their first-round NCAA match at Purdue Friday night. Without Jaworski it could be a tough challenge, but Rose believes his team can rise to that challenge.

"There is not ample time to prepare ourselves, but if we play well we can win," he said. "Going into this weekend I really thought we had the talent and we were coming together good enough to be a national championship-caliber team. Now, just winning this
