MECHANICSBURG, PA.

This Institution, designed for the liberal education of Young Ladies, has been in operation two years with the most gratifying results. It is now established on a firm basis, and its paironage already extends over several States.

It is located on the Cumberland Valley Rallroad midersly between Harrisburg and Carlisle, in the most ferile and beautitul portion of the valley, and is in close proximity to, one of the most moral, healthy, and energishing towns in the State.

It is central, and easy of access. Students leaving Washington, Baltimore, or Philadelphia in the moraling train for Harrisburg, will: arrive at Mechanicsburg in time for dinner.

The edifice is large and commodious, surrounded by double verandax, and will accommodare about one hundred boarders. In its construction, it combined all the modern improvements for the promotion of health, comfort and convenience. In these respects physicians pronounce its unrivalled. The chambers are large and neatly furnished. Each has its registor for heat and ventilation, only two authontsoccupy the same ground.
