THE BEST .- Tonics have of late years gained rapidly in publication of ratio far more generally employed by first-class physician than they once were. The reason for this is that it is a generally established fact that wholesome tonics used in moderation daily for years do not tonles, used in moderation daily for years do not loss their virtue, neither do they folure the sys-tem. They set in fact like air and exercise, and not as "medicines," which are intended colely for strake of illness. The shraw raincipity, especially those of yeagathic origin, all passes the common property of stimulating the appelies, strengtheaung the herrous system, and of imputing strength-more than men, their system being more likile ito debility and exhaustion. We have again and again in our experience seen the good effects of tonier where the system showed every indication of exhaustion, nerrous suffering and debility. The best established bitters before the American' public are beyond question there of Dr. Stever, The bist stabilized bifter before the American public are beyond question those of Dr. Stever, and this is equivalent to declaring that they are the brest, since among the scores of really excellent bitters now current, a poor article, has no chance of success whetever. The most ignorant porson can tell at once by its effects, almost hom a single does, whether any bitters are good by hed. These of Bitover have beenyold for thirty years, ave com-posed of sixteen of the safest roots and horbe of weather more toole pitters, so exilting the safest roots and herber of the safest roots and horbe of posed of sizteen of the safest roots and herbe of a well-known tonic virtue, so skillfully selected at a compounded with regard to their mutual effects, this is may be doubted whether any more perfect form of this medicine can be made, Thousands of persons are exposed to or afflicted with faver and agne, billfous agne or other results of maintis. Let them remember that, these bitters are 'admirable is such cases, as for diarboar and cholers' morbus, or aby ordinary derangement of the some of the some of every family, and the hould be in the stores of every family, and t anonica be in the store of every manny, and the trouch of every furvaler. It is a favorable feature in the advertisement of the proprietors of Dr. Blowver's Touls Herb Ditters, the proclaims are made that they will durk every 11 tha firsh is helr to.
