NEW YOKR WEEKLY WHIG.

NEW YOKR WEERLY WHIG. The first number of the SEMI-WEEK-by edition of The New York White is herewith submitted to the public. It will be regularly published bedceforth every WED-NESDAY and SATURDAY afternoons, on a sheet of the size of the DALLY Whig and half the size of the Weekly, and forwarded by the earliest mails to its Patrons. It will contain all the matter of the Daily Whig except the Advertisements, and be afforded at the low price of THKEE DOLLARS per annum in advance. It is believed that this is the cheapest Semi-Weekly paper in the County.

annum advance. It is believed that this is the chcapest Semi-Weekly paper in the —Daily and Weekly—is now widely known It has been published about sixteen months. and in that brief period has acquired a wid, circulation, and, we trust, a fair standing matter fully equal to the average of the Great Dailles of New York and our other Commercial cities. Its contents will com-prise Literature, Politics and General Intel-ligence, in abont equal proportions. In the Literary Department, no great pretensions are made to originality, but the best reposi-tories of Foreign aud American Literature are open to its conductors; and they endea-vor to select therefrom a varied and interes-ting banquet. In General Intelligence, we hope to be neither behind aro inferior to our immediate cotemporaries. In Politics, our journal will be all that its name purports— fearlosay, zealously, and we trust efficiently, WHIG. Experienced pens are enlisted in its service, and we trust it will render good service to the Contry in the advocacy of Sound Principles and Good Measures and the fealets exposure of the injuities, cor-rouptions and rumous tendencies of Loco-Fo-coism. Philadelphia, Dec. 21, 1858. To DR. Wm, Evans-Dear sir: 1 am tru ly happy to write you this in token of thank for the relief they have given me—I mea the CAMOMILE PILLS. About tw years ago I was much troubled with Dysper sia. My synaptoms were very alarming, was sometimes subject to fainting, grea was sometimes subject to fainting, great weaknes, no rest at night and not table t eat anything, if I did it was sure to be throw up. I could not keep any nourishment in m body. I at last gave up all hope an tol my physicians that I could have no use for them—I must die,' said I; 'so there is n bout a month ago, a cousin of mine came t se me; after talking awhile about my stek see me; after taiking awhite about my shore ness I told him I had taken aknost every med icine that was spoken of as good for any com-plaint. He said, 'Have yoo tried Dr. Evans' CAMOMILE PILLS?' I said 'No.' Well he then gave me a package he had bought the day before for his wife, and said he woud get another for her. I commenced taking the pills and am happy to state, that in two weeks I was hearty and well, and able to write this letter, which I could not have done when I was sick, because my hands were nervoas. I have written this in pure grat-litude to you. I hope you will publish this and let it be known. I would publish it my. sclf, but I am very poor and not able to pay-Inpublishing it, I think you will gain an ad-vantage, for I am well known among all those of the trade I am in, and too many of them, I fear are now near deaths door, for want of some proper medicine to cure Dyspepsia. A Case of Tic Doloreux.

NOTHER recent test of the unrival-A led virtue of Da. WM. EVANS' CAMOMILE PILLS: Dyspepsia of ten years' standing cured. I was afflicted with the above complaint for ten years, which ncapacitated me at intervals for the pe-riod of six years, from attending to my bus-mess. I am now restored to perfect health by the frequent use of the above medicine. My symptoms were, a sense of oppression atter eating, pain at the pit jof the stomach, loss of appetite, giddmess, paipitation of the A Case of Tic Doloreux. Mrs. J. E. Johnson, wife of Capt. Joseph Johnson, of Lynn, Mass., was severely af. flicted for ten years with Tic Doloreux, vio-lent pain in the head, and yomiting, with burning heat in the stomach, and unable to leave her room. She could find no relief from the advice of several physicians, nor from medicines of any kind, until after she had commenced using Dr. Evans' mediche. and from that time she began to amend, and feels satisfied if she continues the medicine a few days longer, will be perfectly cured. Reference can be had as to the truth of the above, by calling at Mrs. Johnson's daught-cr's Store, 389 Grand street, N. Y. The Pills are for sale at Jacob Miller's Store, Huntingdon, Pa.

Pattentee. We the undersigned, farmers and citi-zens of Bedford and Huntingdon coun-ties, do hereby cerify, that we have threshed our grain during the past winter with James P. Ross' improved patent Horse Power and Threshing Machine. And in justice to the inventor, we cheer-fully and unhesitatingly pronounce it in our estimation far superior to any machine for that purpose we have hitherto seen. We would therefore reccommend them to any farmers who wish to avail them-selves of the opportunity of getting ma-chines in which we as yet have been unable to discocer the smallest deeption. VERY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS, The Subscribers offer offer for sale their improved celebrated Thrashing-Ma-chines, at their Shops in Huntingdon and Lewistown. By application, made by mail or otherwise to Join Switzer, Hun-tingdon--or Arthur B. Long, Lewistown, farmers can be accommodated on the most reasonable terms. For running easy, doing the work well, and for durability; they defy the State of Pennsylvania to ex-ceed them. Those who wish it, can have a straw carrier attached to their Machine, which will be a great advantage in thrash-ing, one hand less will be required to take away the staw, and the caving much more casily performed. By an agreement with the Patentee's, we have the Ezclu-size Privilege of building and selling, in the county's of Perry Juniatta, Miglin, Huntingdon and part of Cambria. If Farmers, will consult their own Interest, and keep free from trouble-they will beware of buying Machines, of any kind, with the Strap passing under the Horses feet unless made and sold by us, as the Pattent Laws, will be Strictly enforced.

FARMERS,
