PROFESSIONAL CARDS

LAURIE J. BLAKFLY ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Ridgway, [or Benzinger P. O.] Elk Co. Pa.,

TT. ABRAMS, A TTORNEY AT LAW LOCK HAVEN, PA.

SOUTHER & WILLIS. Attamoy's at Law, Ridgway Elk con ty Pa, will attend to all profession business promptly.

VOL. 5 CHAPIN & WILBUR. Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Offic in thapia's Block, Ridgway Elk Co. Pa 1865 Particular attention given to collections and ali montos promptly remitted. Will also practice in adjoining counties.

JOHN G HALL ATTORNEY AT LAW. Ridgway 11k County Penna

DR. W. JAMES BLAKELY St. Mary's Flk County Pa.

DR. W. W. SHAW Practices Medicines & Surgery Centreville Elk Co. Pa.

DR. J. S. BORDWELL ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN,

(Lately of Warren county Pu.) Will promptly answer all professional calls by night or day .- Residence one, door East of the late residence of Hou. Through Mail Train J. L. Gillia.

DR. C. R. EARLEY, Kersey Elk Co., Pa. Will attend to all call night or day. July 21, 1861.

HOTEL CARDS.

F. UNTAIN HOUSE.

JOHN G. FORTERFIELD, Proprietor

Ridgway, Elk County Penn'a.

FRED. KORE'S, Eagle Hotel

Latheraburg, Clearfield County Pa.

DEF Fredrick Korb Proprietor hav. ing built a large and commotions house, is now prepared to cater to the wants of the traveling public. Luthersburg, July 16th 1864 .- 1y.

LUTHERSBURG HOTEL, Luthersburg Clearfield cunty Penns,

WILLIAM SCHWEM, Proprietor. Luthersburg, July 27th 1854.-tf.

NATIONAL HOTH!! Corner of Peach Street and the Buffalo Road, BRIEPA.

ENOS. B. HOYT, Proprietor

This House is new and fitted up with c pocial care for the convenience and comfort of gnesis, at moderate much Ded" GUOD STARLING & TAUBLE LSR

> EXCHANGE HOTEL. Red acres Ella

and the second second second

Selection and a second second

P. W. BARRETT Editor [INDEPENDENT.] TERMS-$1 50 per Annum if paid in Advance

RIDGWAY ELK COUNTY PENNA. THURSDAY June 29 1565

1865 FOETRY. and a The Changeling.

A. D. 1691.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER

The saddest two years bride,

And spurns her child aside.

And both up chimney fly.

And left me an imp instead.

Blue eyes, and heir of gold ;

I hate the touch of her fingers,

I hate the feel of her skin ;

It's not the milk from my beson,

But my blood, that she sucks in.

Rake open the red coals, goodman,

My face grows sharp with the torment ;

And the witch shall have her own.

She'll come when she bears it crying,

And she'll being us our darilog Anna

In place of her screeching brat,"

Then the good man, Ezra Dalion,

Laid his hand upon her head :

Thy sorrow is great. O woman 1 I sorrow with thea," he sold.

The paths to frouble use many,

And never but one sure way

My poor wife, let us pray."

Leads out to the light beyond it :

In the shape of an owl or bat,

Look ! my arms are skin and hone !-

She scowls in the face of her husband

PHILADELPHIA & ERGE RATL. For the fairest maid in Hampton 1 ROAD,-This great line traverses the Northern and Northwest counties of They needed not to search, Who saw young Anna Favor entrybania tashe deyed Brie, ou Come walking into church-

It has been leased by the Fernsylva-Or bringing from the meadows, At set of harvest day, The trolic of the blackbirds, wia Read Road Company, and is operaed by thom. The awectness of the hay.

Lake Eric.

and an and the second second

Its entire length was opened for passeager and freight business, October 17th. 1864. TIME OF PASSENGER TRAINS Now the weariest of all mothers,

AT RIDG WAY. Leove Eastward.

1 53 p. m. Accommodation

D. 10. Leave Westward. 12 88 p.m. Through Mail Train

"Rake cut the dead coals, goodman-For there the child shall lie, Till the black watch comes to fetch her, Accommodation p. m Passenger cars run through without

shange both ways between Philadelphia It's never my own little daughter, It's never my own," she said ; "The witches have stolen my Anna, and Eric. ELEGENT SLEEPING CARS on Express

Prains both ways between Williamsport and Baltimore, and Williamspert and Oh, fair and evect was my baby, Philadelphia. For information respecting Passenger business apply at the S. E. corner 30th But this is ugly and wrinkled, and Market Sta, Cross and cumping and old.

And for Fraight business of the Company's Agents:

S. B. Kingeton, Jr. Cor. 13th and Market Sts. Philadelphia. J. W. Reynolds Erie.

W. Brown, Agent N. C. R. R. Baltinnit.

II H. Houston, Gen'l, Freight Ag't, Phil'a.

H. W. GWINNER, Gen'l. Ticket Agt. Phila. Jos. D. Porrs.

General Manayer, Wmp't.

W. T. LESHER.

Dealer in

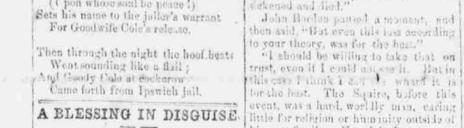

Clothing, Huts, & Men's Fornishing Goods WATER SIBLET. LOCK HAVEN, CLISTON CO., PR.

BOOK

ADOLPH TIMM. Conveyille, Elk county Pa.

cose General Manufacturer of Wagane, Then he said to the great All-Father, Suggies & - ALSO Furniture, such as "Thy daughter is wesk and blind ; arcous, Tables, Stanas, Bellands and Let her sight come back, and clothe h

STORE,

And he called up Justice Sewall

BY REV. HORATIO ALGER, JR.

his own family. Now I have reason to believe that he is considerably charged. Only yester by, I heard that he had re-mitted a quarter's reat to poor Mes. Par-It was lucky for John Bordon that he had a cheerful wife, who was disposed menter, who you know lived in a house to look upon the bright side of things, balanging to him. Such a thing would I say it was fortunate for him, for his have been unpresedented a year $n_{\rm eff}/r$ tendency was just the reverse. If any It will be analy imaginal that many best," said his wife, cheerfully, "That's what you're always saying, anticipations of the future. Martha."

"I'm always saying it because it's that it no langer pained him, and he was true, and the truth can't be too offen re. able to exchange the hed for the easy Pented" But by and by comsthing happened which put even Mrs Borden's philoso-phy to test.

Mrs. Borden was busily employed in Havingalways been accustomed to set, getting dinner, when she heard the front ive employment, the time weighed heavi-

Her first thought was that her hus, complained, "when I feel as if I ought band had come home to dinner, and to be at work."

him. But it was too early for that, im. But it was too early for that, devoting your time to an invention," She want up stairs, the kitchen being same ded his wile. "What ever came a basement room, and there met a sight of it?" that filled her with rain. Her hus "Nothing," said her husband. "I dently in great suffering. "What is the matter ? ' she inquired in show. "Compose yearself, madam," was the been at the height of the third story tomed work, however much you may want to, while, even if it does not

A physician was immediately sent for, around to muthing, it will make the

the prizent onlighten, d fashions were in

Larry and the Getter Rooms

vogue. Mrs. Borden soon found horself on mod-Squire Griffiths' brick house, and mode-ily rang the bell.

"Your husband has completed an in-vention, has ha?" said the squire, prick ing up his one after hearing Mrs. Bur. don's explauation. "I will go over and see what it is with a good deal of plens uce. I have a tact for such things my minima lad!

The squire at once got his hat and case, and invited Mrs. Bordon to socompany him.

Shudeelined on the plea the she but NO 88 a little shopping to do, which was true Har chief thosen, however, was thisthat she know her husband and the affairs, I know, but money is not all. squire could do their business better by themselves:

She accordingly took her way to that corner atore, which all country stores, contain a little of everything, and purhand some cotton cloth for her hus. hand. After this she made a call on yn old friend, and at the close of an hour, she took her way slowly back to har iswa house:

fills hart Squipe Griffithe just coming out of the front door.

"By Jove, Mrs. Borlen," said he, hobling out his hand cordially, "your husband has shown himself a genics."

"You think well of his invention, then, do you ?" said Mrs , Borden, ea-

"Think well of it ?" Of course I do. it's a capital think-bound to succeed. Thut's what I told him, and more than that, I have so great confidence in is that I have bought an interest in it, without even waiting for time to test it, Good alternoon-you must make your hushand give you a silk dress. He can well afford it now."

Entering the house, Mrs. Bordan found her husband looking quite radiaut with hoppiness

"Did you ment Squire Griffiths ?" ha -lind.

"Ves, and he told me that you wurst successful.

"Yes, but that's not all. He has sought out hall the invention."

"He told my that. How much did he give year"

"How much do you guess, Martha ?" "Parhaps a hundred dollars ?" said Mrs Bordon, thinking that this would be a liberal miles for what had occupied only a few weeks of her husband's time, when he could not employ himself on apything olse.

"Twenty five times that !" said Mr. B. r lou, triumphantly,

"What-twenty five hundred doi. lars ? ' exclaimed his wife in surprise. "Yes.F

"And you wouldn't have not this it "No, I suppose not."

"Then you see that Gol has, after all, brought good out of evil, and that your apparent misfortune was a blensing in 124 40.58

I can only add that the success of the "It means to me. John, that now is invention proved that Squire Griffiths way not mistaken in his estimate of its value, and that John Bordon is now a rich mus

The Gypsies

Excepting the jaws, no people has or-

In his nighteap and his gown. Don't you romamb or his grant loss liant spring-how his hirlad urglitar, his fa-An the grave and worshipful Justice vorice child and the price of his heart, sokened and died." (I pon whose soul be peace !) Sets his name to the juiler's warrant. John Horlen parted a moment, and then axid, "But even this tass according o your theory, was for the beat." "I should be willing to take that on little trial or disappointment came upon such conversations test plans during the him, he was very upt to say. "Fate is first few weeks of John Borden's sickalways against me-something or other ness. The patient, though he invaria-is always turning up to spite me?" bly disagreed with his wife, was, never-"Never mind, John, all is for the tholess, insensibly cheered by herbright views, and led to indulige more hopeful

One forenoon, about cleven o'clock, house, door open nod the heavy steps of men ly upon his hands. were heard in the front entry.

brought a couple of friends home with "Don't you comember, John, you come deal ancoursed at the time, but not hel reply. "Your hushand has fallen from a jug absolutely certain I didn't care to scaffolding and broken his log." give up a containty for the sake of work-It may be said here that Mr. Bor. [ing at h." den was a bouse painter, and had been [engaged upon a new house creeted for just the time to take it up again. It Squire Eldrodge. His fall had been a | won't interfere with anything clas, for considerable one, as the scaffolding had (you know our can't be at your acous-

from the ground, and, after a careful examination, pro-nounced the injury not a bad one. He Mr. B orden cauzit at this i lea with hand lay stretched upon the lounge, evi | could not spare the time from my daily work to parteet. it," "Did you think there was much change "Yes, I remember feiling a good Olupits. DAVID THAYER, Prop'r. reasonable rates. the bank of the Clarich, of the sense of of the town, is well provided with house coon and stabling, and the proprietor will spare no pains to render the importune enests pleasant and agreeable. Rulyway July 28, 1800.

HYDE HOUSE Mrs. E. O. Clements, Proprietress Ridgway Elk County Penna. |.

CLEARFIELD HOUSE, CORNER OF MARKET AND WATER ST. Charfield Pa

GEO. N COLBURN, PROPRIETOR

ST. MARY'S HOTEL Sr. MARY'S ELK COUSTY POSSA M. WELLENDORF, Prop'r.

FAALSM HOUSE

LOUK MAVEN, PA.

E. W. BIGONY, Proprietor.

Omnibus running to and from the Depot ree of charge.

MOORHEAD HOUSE, Main St Brookville Pa., C. N. Kretz, Prop'r This house has been relitted and furnishadapted to the wents of the public. H. D. Derr, Benezett

BUSINESS CARD

WOODS & WRIGHT

LOCK HAVEN, CLINTON COUNTY PA. DEALERS in Flour, Grain and Feed-near the Passenger Depot

| Ridg | Markets. | | | | | | |
|-------------|------------|--------|----|-----|----|------|-----|
| Corrected | | | | | | | |
| Apples, (dr | v) 19 | bushel | | | | 8 4 | 00 |
| Buckwheat | | 1.6.6 | × | | ÷. | 1 | 40 |
| Beans, | 6 | | - | | | -4 | 00 |
| Butter | 44. | 15 | ÷ | 2 | ÷. | | 45 |
| Beef | ÷. | 8.5 | * | 2 | | 96 | 12 |
| Boards | - 16 | M | | - | ÷ | 20 | 0.0 |
| Coro | 65 | Lushal | 2 | 4 | + | 1 | 50 |
| Flour | 6 | bbt. | 4 | | ÷ | 12 | 00 |
| Hides | - 66 | Ib | ÷ | 1 | | 10 | 08 |
| Hay | 41 | ton | ų, | ÷ | v | 50 | -00 |
| Date | 61 | bu. | ÷, | ŝ, | ŝ, | 1 | 0.7 |
| Wheat | .6 | 185 | 2 | ÷ | ÷ | 2 | 50 |
| Rya | 1 6 | 68 | ų, | ų, | ų, | 1 | 75 |
| Shingles | - 61 | M. | a, | | | 4 | 5 |
| Eggs | 14 | dozen | | | | 1.10 | 20 |
| Unus | 64 | R | | | | | 25 |
| Tork | 18 | | L. | ١., | | | 15 |

ST. MARY'S, ELK COUNTY PA In the room formerly occupied by Doct Blakely. COUNTY DIRECTORY. President Judge Hon. R. G White, Wellshorough. Associate Judges, V. S. Brockway, Juy tp. Hon. E. C. Schultze, St. Mary's-Sherif P. W. Haya, Ridgway Protheastary, Reg. and Rec. George Ed. Weis, Ridgway District Allorney, L. J. Diskely Ridgway Terasurer, Charles Lubr. St. Mary's County Surveyor. George Walmsley, St. Marys Comminationers. Biarles Weis, St. Mary's Geo. Dickinson, Ridgway. Joseph W. Taylor, Fox. Anditors, R. T. Kyler, Fox

Coal Lands For Sale-

THE subscriber offers for sale the Coal privilege, with the right of mining and other minerals under 495 acres of land situated in Fox tp., learfield county Pennsylvasia, within 2 miles of the Ridgway & how a tr R. R. which connects with the Phila. & Erie R. R. at Ridgway, with a six foot vein of Ditaminous Coal upon it, which is now commanding such enormous prices for manufacturing purposes. For sale cheap, terms cosh, a good title given. For further particulars, address C. L. BARRETT, Clearfield P. O., Clearfield Co., P.

NOTICE-The Books and accounts o Jocub J. Storer & Co., and Charles H Gering & Co., of St Mayya, have been pussed in the hands of the undersigned for settlement. Parties inducted to either the above firms, are notified that their a counts must be settled by payment to the underrighted, which 50 days. LACRIEJ, BLAKELY, Ait for GERING & CO, & STORER & CO.

Fr. Mary's Pohrmary, 26th '66 -6t.

All hind of Repairin dens at Once more in her right mind.

> Lead her out of this evil shadow, Out of these fancies wild ; Let the holy love of the mother Turn again to her child.

Make her lips blos the lips of Mary Kissing her blossed Son'; Let her hands, like the hands of Jesus, Rest on her liftle one.

Comfort the soul of Thy haudmaid, Open her prison door, And Thine shall be all the glory And praise forevermore.'

Then into the fice of the mother The haby looked up and smiled ; And the cloud of ther coul was lifted, And she know her little child,

A beam of the slaut sunshine Made the wan face almost fair, Lif the blue eyes' patient wonder, And the rings of pale gold hair.

She kissed it on lip and forehead, She kissed it on cheek and chin, And she bared her snow-white bosom To the lips so pale and thin.

Oh, fair on her bridal morning Was the maid who blushed and smiled, But fairer to Ezra Dalton Looked the mother of his child.

With more than a lover's fondness He stooped to her word young face, and the nursing child and the mother He folded in one embrace.

Blessed be God !" he murmured, "Blessed be God !" she said ; For I see, who once was blinded---I live, who once was dead.

Now mount and ride, my goodman, As then lovest thy own soul ! Voe's me, if my wicked fancies Be the death of Goody Cole !"

Its horse he saddled and bridled, And into the night rode heyow through the great black woodland, hank, but I don't despair that it will yet She was consider to enough to know Now by the white beached sea.

le rode through the silent clearings, He came to the ferry wide, nd thrice he called to the boatman Asleep on the other side.

ie set his horse to the river, He swam to Newbury town, ally become as strong as ever. Of peetel, course, however, this would require

"How long do you think I shall be hid up, doctor?" groaned John Bor-

time

den.

"lewill not be safe for you to us your limb short of three months," said the physician, decisively. three months ?"

reply.". Just my luck," grunbled the sick man, after the physician had left the

"So I ought when there is no other | ness and increasing his appeilte side to it," returned her husband. "I should like to know how you, who say my leg."

the best. John; that we are not wise hours without apeaking a word. enough to see. "I cappase if you should fall down and break your neek, your last words would be -- 'It's all for the best ?' " Mrs. Borden, smiled, and her husband continued. "For three months I have got to lie Savings Bank. I expected by the end ceeded."

of this year to have a hundred more pens to put me back. Perhaps you lose three months' time."

to encroach upon our money in the prompily.

gold."

Mr. Borden couzit at this i bea with for shown one's tenacity of rice as the thought the injured limb would eventu- more spirit than could have been ex. gypsics. A Hindor tribe of Aryan race

"I don't know but you're right. Mar. that" he said "Sybring memy largest Inday and ferred out into Europe and jacktuife and a piece of soft wood, I will Asia in the sardy part of the fifteenth is what I can d a?

At longth his log was so far recovered

Having always been necustomed to net.

"It is terrible tedious citing here," he would be inventors who have alter ther without searcely ever changing the pure mistaken their varian, but h instasto eacrons of their Mindoo blood. "Three months " returned Borden had a good deal of natural ingenuity, or on the protest of Ronway, or in rural in dismay, "Must I remain idle for and so was not wholly unfitted to sue. England, or among the well impartain (eccil. In this case, too, he was more of Spain ; whicher under the burning "It will not be safe to resume your peticut and persevering than others, heat of Africa, or on the plateau of Asia, trade for that length of time," was the Failures did not to readily discourage in Egypt, Persia or InFa, the gypsy

From the time of his wild's fortunate suggestion, he labored assiduously for a room. "Fortune sceme to have a spite good part of the day. It was a work of ineradia dote habits of the pluadering against mo." "Yan are looking on the dark side of hinder his convalescence. It had a do-the picture, John," soid the wife.

exclaimed in a joyful tone, "Martha, 1 most nothing for him. A few excep-here idle, earning nothing. You know I've been close upon it for the last three any pursuit of mechanics or agriculture. The only mechanical branch in which

"Then lot your wife be the first to there. But insteal of that I shall probe congratulate you, John," said Mrs. Bor. ted as workers in gold and silver. While ably have to withdraw a hundred. It's den .- "She will be quite proud of her other races become absorbed in the ist the way always. I can't begin to husband, when she sais his name enroll, powerful races or mingle in endices va. prosper a little, before something hap- ed among the great inventors "

"Don't be too hasty," said her hus. thick it's all for the best that I should band, smilling. "Of course I am hable to be mistakon. Bat'l wish you would presseves its savage vitality. Such a "We musn't talk any more about it go over and ask Squite Aritikh to call tenacity both of race and barbaria habits, now, John. I know it's a great disap, and see use as early as he can. He is a seems hardly characteristic of the Aryan pointment to you, and 1 can't see ex- practical man, and nograinted with ma- family, and would remaind one of the Sanetty how it is that this misfortung is chinery. I shall rely upon his judg minet, and would remaind one of the Sa-going to promote our ultimate good. I ment."

ain as sorry as you are that we shall have "I will go at once, said Mrs. Borden.

he made up to us in some way. God that her hashind wall be in a fever o has ordered all things so well in my life impatience until he and learned wheth hitherto that I feel as if I could trust or he was really superaful or not, and did not even stop log enough to change did not even stop log enough to change "But nobody class seems so unfortu her calido apron ig her black silk onenate as we are. There's Squire Grif- a sacrifi e which wy female readers will fithst all he touches seems to turn to appreciate, or would have done when aprous were in tabion. But this, be "He has been fortunate in his manay remembared, haplened years ago, before orignally, perhaps of nonadic and plun doving habits in their provinent on the Commery, they have encreaged and not. There are, no doubt: a great many thad in almost every country of Parcepa. Whath is substratially the sume, with a similar physique, with the smar language only didenically different, and with the same olded effect in promoting his chosefuls through more than these han les I years, His wife, after her household duries santly usged by the inflatances of civilwere done, would sit down opposite him, iz alon and by the managers of religion that all is for the best for me to break and observe with thankfulness her yet always, is all constrict and for for husband's pronocupation, which was contaries, the same \rightarrow vagrant, a "There are a good many things for oftentimes so great that he would pass jockery, a cheat, and a heathen and At last, one afternoord, about 3 o'slock. The civilization, the science and the stranger to each people and country. John Bordon threw down his knife, and Christmaity of the times have doub al. really believe I've got it." "Got what?" inquired his wife, look-ing up cheerfully from her knitting. "Why, succeeded in my invention. they are ever prolicient is the smith's, and in Persia they have become celebrariety with the peoples in confact with them, or die out and pass away, this Indian tribe keeps itself unmingle 1 and you supposed to be Egyptians, and their name in Eaglish, French, Spanish and Hungarian, points to this belief. Most ther nations have given them a name in some way conjugated with that of a Hindoo robber tribe on the Indus, from they are supposed to be descended Races of the Old World, by G. L. Bruce,

> "Papa, why do they plant gues : 4 , they grow and get ?" "No, my con. be" like plants they above and then other. do the leaving."