RAIL ROAD ACCIDENTS AGAIN .-The week commences as usual, by the occurrence of one of the ordinary accidents upon the P. & E. R. R., but we are happy to say, that they are seldom so near home as those we now have to record. Owing to the ability of the Superintendent of the middle division, Col. J. J. Lawrence, but few casualities fat of the land through the holidays, have happened upon it and in this case and have got their stomachs out of order. yond his control. On the evening of Sauday the 21st, an extra engine going east, was thrown from the track by the ice, about half way from Ridgway to St. Mary's and the engineer Harry Alfred, and his fireman were both badly injured, but how severely we have been the Express freight train east, was also tacks of disease. with oil, of which eight were entirely trains were compelled to transfer baggage and passengers at the wreck, the cause of my absence at the com-Garner, was on duty with the wreck magnet.

The track was destroyed by the fire for the length of six or seven rails,

P. S. Since writing the above, the conductor Mr. S. Hubbard has died.

SUDDEN DEATH .-- Hon, Hen, Henry Winter Davis, a prominent Baltimore politician, died in that city, on the 3!st ed public lite about 1854, when he became the champion of Know Nothing. ism "Plug Uglies" and "Rip Raps"" for six years. He was one of the first among the men of the South, to espouse the dis-union cause of Sumner, permitted to continue to that time as Stevens & Co., and during the Administration of President Lincoln became Pennsylvania. To have my name conone of the most subservient instrument, until he was defeated for U. S. Senator, two years ago, when he turn. any man's amoition, ed against his allies, and also, soon found himself out of office with but few friends to help him into place. As a statesman he was of b ut little use to the country, as a private citizen he was dignified social and of urbane manners .- Clearfield Republicun.

The Democracy should not be discouraged because defeated, and ap. advantages in the highest degree, viz. parently swallowed by Abolitionism .-The whale swallowed Jonah, yet he soon was never heard of afterwards.

Locals.

Poor .- The sleighing at the present.

THANKS .- Our thanks are due Dr. Ridgway, Pa. Jan. 20th 1866 C. R. Earley, H. R., for public documents sent to our office, and Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, for like favors.

> Sold.-C. L., on the engagement question-all right "waxy" your turn will come next.

WANTED .- Those of our subscribers knowing themselves indebted to the Advocate office, to come forward and settle their accounts, as we stand in need of money.

On HAND .- Rice & Luther are still at their old stands, and on hand to buy Hides, Pelts, Furs, Venison &c. Hunters give them a call, they pay the highest cash prices.

LEFT.-The Deputy Prothonotary, on a pleasure trip to York State. We would not be surprised to hear of him 20,00 | would not be surprised to he left behind $5,00 | bringing back, the "gal" he left behind him.

> FURNITURE STORE .- Those wishing to buy good furniture, would do well by calling at the Furniture room of Messrs Houk & M'Vean, as they have received a large stock of first class furniture, which they will sell at reduced pricesconsisting in part of Bedsteads, Chairs, Tables and Stands of all descriptions.

The editor still remaining ill, not able to attend to the office, and the large amount of new advertisements, which will be found in this issue, and the scar. city for help, will account for the delay

Goder's Lady's Book .-- This beau. tiful Magazine for February, has again been laid before us. We think it wor. thy of every ladys patronage, young or old. The engravings in this magazine, 50 per quire; on all amounts over that a slone is worth the subscription. Terms reasonable reduction will be made.

> The January thaw is a "capital institution" for producing Colds, Coughs, and kindred ailments-much worse than severe cold weather, and we advise our readers, particularly those predisposed to any pulmonary weakness, to see to it they are well shod, and allow no change of clothing. It any one is so unfortu. nate as to to contract a Cold. Cough, Hoarseness, or other pulmonary disor. der, we knew of nothing so efficient as Coe's Cough Balsam. Our advice is, take little and often.

To those who have been living on the they were owing entirely to causes be- we would prescribe Coe's Dyspepsia Cure ; it has cured some very bad cases of Dyspepsia.

Governor's Message.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pean. sylvania.

GENTLEMEN: The toils and anxieties of the last tour years have, from | do County orders outstanding 1524 unable to ascertain. Monday morning time to time, brought on me severe at- do due house of Refuge thrown from the track, a short distance vere of these I am now slowly struggling east of Wilmarth, by ice and the towards recovery. I find that to give conductor Mr S. Hubbard, hadly burn. inne this struggle, it is absolutely need about the face and hands. One of cessary that I should, without delay, county, in account with the county f the brakemen who passed by the name make a short sea voyage and sejourn in the year 1865. of James Johnson was entirely consum. a milder climate. Under the pressure Jan 1 1866. ed by the fire—only a portion of his ba. It is my hope and intention to re. "Jury fees Clover vs Bryant head and one shoulder being left. The turn in good season to welcome you on train consisted of twenty six cars loaded your arrival at the seat of Government. But if it should be found indispensable destroyed. The Mail and Express that my visit to Cuba should be prolonged to the early part of February, this message will serve to lay before you where the gentlemanly operator, who mencement of your session. In this was formerly located here, Mr. Harry case I feel sure that you will adopt such By conveying Wm. It would, however not become me to forget that the issues of life are in the hands of the One above all and that many have found death waiting for them on the foreign shore to which they have been sent in search of health. Should such be my fate, I shall draw my last breath with a sense of the deep. uit, aged 48 years Mr. Davis enter, est gratitude to the people of the Commonwealth and their representatives for the cheerful, manly, unfailing support which they have given during the last four years to the great cause of the on the tide and rule of which, he rode right, and to me and my efforts to maininto Congress, where he served them tain it, and with a prayer of thankful. ness to Almighty God that He strengthened me till the end of the cruel rebellion, and thought me worthy to be the Chief Magistrate of the people of nected in that relation with such a people during such a time ought to be enough to fill the highest measures of

ANDREW G. CURTIN. EXECUTIVE CHAMBER. Harrisburg, November 27 1866.

MANNERS - What a rare gift is that of manners! how difficult to define how much more difficult to impart. Better for a man to possess them than wealth, beauty or talent; they will more than supply all, No attention is min ute, no labor too exagerated, which tends to protect them. He who enjoys their he who can please, penetrate, persuade, as the object may require, possesses the turued up all right; while the whale the statesman, and wants nothing but opportunity to become "great."
