BEP We call the attention of our readers to the card of Gray, Wilcox & Co. Wholesale Dealers at St. Mary's. The establishment of a house exclusively wholesale in its buisness is a new enterprise in this County and illustrates the just. repaid development of our country. We hope the enterprise will form a suc. cess and unless the people are stoneblind to their own interest it must be a success. They propose to furnish to their customers all articles in their line, at less, than they will cost them if purchased at wholesale houses in Erie .---This they can do. Gray, Wilcox & Co. ate a branch of the extensive wholesale house of Gray, Wilcox & Emerson, in Erie. They will sell to customers here for the same price as in Erie, with the the extra per cent, which is usually alcost of transportation only added. Doing a large business, and getting their goods always by the car-load, their freights are at reduced rates. It is evident therefore that if a mun wants a wagon load or two of goods, or any amount less than a car load, he can buy them at a lower price, at St. Mary's, than to buy in Erie, and pay the freight himself. We hail the establishment of this house among us as the advent of a substantial benefit to our public.
