SPLENDID.—The genial warmth of Old Sol yesterday put me in mind of getting the Spring fever. We hope it may continue.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Quite a number of new houses are to be put up in our town during the coming summer. Go ahead—there is lots of room for improvement in Ridgway.

REMOVAL.—Owing to the fact that we removed our office last week, no papers were issued. We now occupy the room formerly occupied by the Prothonotary's Office in the Court House.

FALSE PRETENCE.—Edward Bulger was arrested in St. Mary's on Friday last charged with obtaining goods by false pretence from Frederick Rudolph. He was committed for trial, but on Monday last gave bail for his appearance at the next court of Quarter Sessions.

SOMETHING NEW.—The attention of our readers is asked to the advertisement of Mr. C. W. Service in another column of to day's paper. The establishment of this branch of business supplies a want which has long been felt by our citizens, and we hope they will patronize it.

FIRE.—On Thursday night, February 23d, the dwelling-house occupied by Mr. Buskirk, and the store room adjoining were destroyed by fire, the result of carelessness on the part of an occupant. On Thursday night of March 14th, the saw-mill of Joseph Houser, was totally destroyed, together with a large quantity of boards. Loss $2500 to $3000—no insurance.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.—Two men named Thomas Davidson and Edward Hughes were arrested at Shawmut on Friday last by Constable Barrett.—They are charged with stealing $410 in greenbacks, and two English sovereigns from Henry Pearce. They were taken before Esq. Whitmore for examination. Bail in the sum of $600 was required, and given by Davidson. Hughes, in default was committed for trial.

Madame Ristori, the great actress, has been engaged for April 12th, at Erie City, where she appears in the character of Elizabeth. Madame Ristori is the acknowledged Queen of Tragedy in the world, and it would be well worth the time and money for those who have not seen her, to do so.—Those who intend to go would do well to procure tickets at least three days in advance, which can be done by writing to Mr. B. F. H. Lynn. The price of the tickets is from one to five dollars, according to grade. Excursion tickets on the railroads leading to Erie will be issued on that day.

BASE BALL CLUB.—A meeting of the young men of our village was held the Court House on Saturday evening last for the purpose of forming a Base Ball Club in Ridgway. Officers were elected and proper committees for procuring the ground, &c., appointed. The name of the Club shall hereafter be known as the Catamount Base Ball Club of Ridgway. The regular meetings of the Club shall take place on Saturday evening of each week. The next meeting of the Club will be held at the same place on Saturday evening next. Let every member make it a "special order" to be present, and to bring along as many new members as possible.

BOOK NOTICES. We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Pott & Amery, 5 & 13 Cooper Union, New York, a new book entitled "The Peoples' Magazine." It contains a large amount of interesting matter, and should be read by everybody. Price $3.00 per annum—issued in monthly parts. Sample copies 25 cents.

MADAME DEMOREST'S April number on our table. No lady, who is desirous to be booked in the latest fashions can do without this really excellent magazine.

GODEY, as usual is up to time and on our table. It has its usual amount of interesting reading matter, besides its unique fashion plates.

Correspondence of the Advocate.

CATHOLIC CHRISTIANITY—No. 1. The idea of God lies at the foundation of all religion. From this idea the whole religious system of doctrine and practice takes its character. It is the character ascribed to Jupiter, Mercury, Venus, &c., we can infer the general character of the religion of the ancient Romans.

There is but one God, and so there can be but one true religion. Though there be many that are called gods, there is only One who can say "I am God, and there is none else;" only One Being who can claim our worship and adoration. God has revealed himself to us in the Holy Scriptures, which holy men of old wrote as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. Whatever other revelations God has made which are not contained in the Scriptures of the old and New Testaments, I do not care to inquire at present, nor appeal to them as authority. It is sufficient for my purpose, in these papers, to assume that the Bible is the word of God; and that there may be no dispute as to the authority, I will leave out of the account those books which are called Apocryphal, and appeal only to those which are accepted by all as divinely inspired. If we make our appeal "To the law and to the testimony," we must be agreed as to what that testimony is. And as these papers are intended to be didactic, rather than controversial, it is necessary to make this limitation.

What, then, does the Scripture teach us concerning God? In the first place, "God is One,"—Gal. 3, 20. "Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord."—Deut. 6, 4. There is nothing more clearly taught in the Bible than there is only one God, the Creator, Preserver and Benefactor of men.

It follows from this that all men are divided into two classes in respect to religion; viz: those who truly worship the one God, and those who do not.—Those of the first class are truly religious, or in other words possess true religion; while those of the other, whatever be their professions and their practices, have at best only a counterfeit. This is the teaching of Scripture throughout. "Then shall ye return, and judge between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God, and him that serveth Him not."—Mat. 3, 18. Elijah and the seven thousand who had not bowed to Baal were God's people, while the king and the masses of Israel had no true religion. The former were righteous, the latter wicked.

The Jews of our Saviour's time all professed to be worshippers of God. But he gave them a criterion—"He that is of God, heareth the words of God,"—John 8, 47,—by which most of them were convicted of hypocrisy. They were no better than the followers of Baal—or any of the heathen whom they despised. But there were some who did not imagine a God for themselves, but worshipped and served the true God; and these believed in Jesus whom God sent. These last, and these only, constituted "the Church of the Living God." Are there any more Churches now than there were then? C. C.

WILCOX, Pa., Mar. 30, 1866. Mr. Editor:—I did take a little notice of Will's first problem published in the Advocate, and his statements appeared so confused and incomprehensible, I actually thought it a sort of riddle, and got up to show off Devil's own slanting attitude of a cone given to find the semi-diameter of the perpendicular square of its baseology. I also noticed his solution, which appears to me equally as confused and incomprehensible as the problem itself. He says resolve the load .636 of an inch from the centre of the axle-tree towards the inner rail to make the wheels bear equally on each rail, and that appears to me like giving the weaker horse the short end of the whip. Will's diameter of the circle formed by the largest wheel pastes for common. The one made by the smaller wheel he gives just forty feet less. If he will add the square of the semi-diameter of the bar to the square of the perpendicular altitude of the imaginary cone, then twice the square root of that sum reduced to rods makes the diameter formed by the smaller wheel 9.7 rods nearly; and that of the largest 12.125 rods nearly; near enough for common. A. H.

RIDGWAY, PA., APRIL 3, 1867. Mr. Editor:—The size of the lot given in J's problem of last issue is 25 by 30 rods. WILL.

We call the attention of our readers to the Advertisement of DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE. We believe it to be all that is claimed for it. In point of size it is one of the largest magazines published. In the variety of its matter it is excelled by none, as a fashion and pattern monthly it stands at the head. Every family ought to have it. The subscription price is $3. We will furnish DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE and THE ELK ADVOCATE for $3.50 in advance. To those who have already paid their subscriptions to the Advocate we will send DEMOREST'S MONTHLY for $2. We are enabled to do this under a special arrangement with the publisher.

REJECTED.—The appointment of M. A. Frank as Internal Revenue Assessor for this Congressional District has been rejected by the Senate.

CONNECTICUT.

THE NUTMEG STATE GOES DEMOCRATIC. The election for State officers and Congressmen passed off in Connecticut on Tuesday last, and resulted in a signal and overwhelming victory for the Democracy. James E. English, the Democratic candidate for Governor, together with the whole State ticket, and three out of the four Democratic candidates for Congress are elected. Barnum, the showman is on the defeated list. Bully for Connecticut.

This victory for the Democracy in Connecticut was almost entirely unexpected by that party. This, we believe is the first time the State has gone Democratic since 1856. Therefore, let every true patriot rejoice. We believe and hope that it is but the dawning of a better day for the country, and that the "sober second thought" of the people is now commencing to show itself. A. gain we say Bully for Connecticut.

MARRIED.—At Brandy camp, March 19th by Rev. L. Little, Mr. Daniel B. Porter to Miss Clarinda Barton, both of Clearfield County.

DIED.—At his residence in Benecetto township, on the 19th of February last, THREW JOHNSON, aged 72 years and 10 days.

—Mr. Johnson's health had been failing for the past year or two; but he was able to do light work, such as is common about a farm house and barn.

On the day of his death he felt unusually well, and in the forenoon he pruned several fruit trees. In the evening he was doing his usual work, and while picking up some wood in the back yard, he dropped dead, and was found in a few minutes after with the wood in his arms. The father and mother of Mr. Johnson, with nine children, sailed from Hull, England, on July 22d, 1801, and landed in Philadelphia, after a voyage of two months. They came up the Susquehanna, and bought and cleared the land where the thriving village of Renovo now stands.

In 1823 Thew left his parental home and wound his way up the Susquehanna and settled on and cleared the land where he died.

He was an adherent of the Protestant Episcopal church, and was all through life an exemplary man.

He leaves a wife and six children to mourn over the loss of a husband and father—"Omnis eodem cogitur; omnium versatur una: scrias, ocyra Sura ex. itura." W. W. S.

ADJOURNED.—The 40th Congress, the country will be glad to hear, adjourned till July on Saturday last.

On Saturday while Mr. Lange, a pork butcher on Water street Philadelphia, was engaged in scalding hogs and cleaning them, the "supports" of the carbon gave way, and Mr. Lange and his two sons were so badly scalded that they all died last evening, at the hospital, in terrible agony. The boys were five and seven years of age. They were all Germans.

SILVER SKIRT. MORE DURABLE, MORE ELASTIC, MORE GRACEFUL! And will keep its shape and retain its place better than any other Skirt.

This new and beautiful style of Skirt (Patented March 7, 1855) was awarded by the Great American Institute Fair, held in New York, October, 1855, a SILVER MEDAL, being the Highest Premium ever given for a Hoop Skirt.

The Steel Springs are wound with fine plated wire—in place of a cotton covering—which will not wear off or become soiled, and the whole skirt may be washed without injury or fear of rusting, and will be as good as new.

The Combination Silver Skirt This invention combines with the ordinary Skirt the advantages of our Silver Skirt. The bottom loops are the same as those used in the Silver Skirt, the covering of which cannot wear off, while the upper ones are covered with cotton. No lady having once worn one of our Skirts, will be willing to wear any other, as the lower loops of all other kinds are soon injured and soiled.

The best materials are used in their construction, and from their durability and neatness they are destined to become a Favorite Skirt.

Manufactured solely by the Silver Skirt and Wire Manufacturing Company, 30 and 32, BARCLAY ST. NEW YORK.
