

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Car Time at Ridgway. Erie Express East... 10:42 p. m. do do West... 8:50 a. m.

NOTICE. Hereafter the Post Office will be closed every evening at 8 o'clock. On Sunday it will be kept open from 8 to 10 o'clock A. M.

On referring to our new advertisements it will be seen that Doctor Bordwell has withdrawn from the firm of Bordwell & Messenger, leaving the business under the supervision of Grove.

THE WEATHER.—We have it from good authority that seed time and harvest shall always come as the seasons roll round. But the time for planting corn has nearly passed, and the wet weather has thus far prevented anybody in this section from planting.

BASE BALL.—We learn that the club from St. Mary's propose to play a match game of Base Ball with the Catamounts of this place on Saturday next if the weather will permit. There will no doubt be some "heavy" playing done.

HOME PAPERS.—Recollect if a home weekly paper is to be supported, home influence must do it. Every dollar sent to an eastern paper is at the expense of the local journal.

THE FAIR AT CENTREVILLE.—We learn that the Fair for the benefit of St. Boniface Church at Centreville, bids fair to gratify the most sanguine expectations. Our informant tells us that the arrangements are complete for the enjoyment of visitors.

MEMORY.—When the toils and fatigues of the day are over, who does not love occasionally to indulge in a review of bygone years? No toil, no perplexity attends it. It is an exercise we reserve for an idle hour.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—2 P. M. The municipal election in this city is going on quietly. The ticket for the colored voters were distributed at the colored churches yesterday.

The attention of School Directors is called to the following: "It shall be the duty of the board of directors, in each school district, to publish an annual statement of the amount of received and expended, and the amount due from collectors, and setting forth all the financial operations of the district."

A paper bonnet is mentioned as the latest novelty of millinerdom. This precious head ornament costs but one dollar, and the great advantage it has is said to be that it will keep its fair wearers from catching cold, as they will probably stay at home in damp weather.

COURT PROCLAMATION.—Whereas the Honorable Thomas W. Williams, President and Hon. E. C. Schultze and Hon. Jesse Kyler, Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, and Justices of the Court of Quarter Sessions, and Orphans' Court, and Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Jail Delivery, for the trial of capital and other offences in the county of Elk, by their precepts to me directed, have ordered the aforesaid named courts to be holden at Ridgway, in and for the county of Elk, on the first MONDAY IN AUGUST it being the 5th DAY of the month, and to continue one week.

Notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, and Constables of the county of Elk, that they are by these precepts commanded to be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, with their rolls, records and inquisitions, and other remembrances, to do those things which their offices appertain to be done, and that all Justices of said county make returns of all the recognizances entered into before them, to the Clerk of the Court as per Act of Assembly, passed May 4, 1834.
