W. MEYER, O. S. B. P. P.

Ber Dr. J. S. Bordwell has erected a large and commodious dwelling house on Centre street, opposite the jail, which be intends having finished off as soon as possible.

DROWNED .- In Jay township, on the 24th ult., Mr. Lauchlin McKinnon, oged 21 years and 7 months

The deceased was a son-in-law of Mr. Charles Webb.

Persons wishing Dry Goods, Gro. ceries &c., will find a large and well solected stock at the store of Messrs. Powell & Kine, in this place. Give them a call. We are aura they will be pleased to sell you a small bill, if not a larger one. See advertisement in this weeks

FIRE .- The barn of J. R. Hyde on the Simeon Earls place in Fox township, was struck by lightning on the evening of the 10th inst., and with its contants entirely consumed by the fire thus kindled. The barn contained about twenty siz tons of hay besides farming memsils.

On Wednesday Aug. 7th, Henry Yale of Hollen, in th's county while out on Boon's mountain after Huckleberries with two small brothers, came upon a den of Rattlesnaker and found them elves surrounded by them. The boys were on a rock. Before they could get away they killed (57) ffry. seven snakes and piled them on the rock. All the snakes were females, containing from eight to twelve young suakes inside, making a loss of enakes of from five to six bundred. The coys say they killed about half the snakes. The balance taking refuge under the rocks.

COUNTY CONVENTION .- The Demoeratic county convention which met in this place on Monday last, was one of the ablest and most harmonious, that everassembled in this county. We have not been furnished with the minutes of its proceedings but the result of its de. liberations are presented in the ticket at our masthead-a ticket which deserves and will receive the unanimous and unhesitating endorsement of the entire par, ty. George Dickinson, J. S. Hyde and Herman Kretz were appointed delegates to the representative conference which of Main and Depot Scs. [may-17'60-ty. meets at St. Mary's to-day.

HOW HE GIAL A FEET.

We noted in our last issue, the larceny of quite an amount of cash, from the house of Albert Willis of this place. The thief is now boarding at the hotel with the brown stone front, apparently quite contented. It will perhaps interost some of our readers, to learn the par. ticulars of his capture. It seems he en. tered the dwelling of Mrs. Chapin, prior to that of Mr. Willi's. In his search for booty at the first named house, the noise occasioned by his rubbing lucifermatches to ignite them, awakened Mrs. Chapin, upon the discovery of which, ho precipitately fled. In his haste he lost his hat, which to some extent was the cause of the arrrest. As, after commit. ting the whole sale robbery at the resi. dence of Mr. Willis, he started westward. Arriving at Wilmarth, he purchased a cap, which when paying for he accidentally drew from his pocket the entire roll of greenbacks, thus arousing suspicion. A common laborer (in ap. penrance) is not supposed to carry about his person seventeen hundred dollars. After he left Wilmarth, Mr. Wilmarth telegraphed parties at Wilcox, to arrest him. Two men started to meal him, while two from Wilmarth followed .-They met and he was a prisoner unawares. He was taken to Wilcox, and brought to Ridgway the following day, He is now awaiting (as he says) the deeission of the judge. He admits all, and appears to be indifferent as to his fate. He is a dangerous fellow to be at large, and should be punished to the extent of the law.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY .- The Sep. tember number of this favorite parlor periodical is fully equal to any of these which have preceded it. The illustrations are varied, and brilliant as ever, and there is a tone of freshness and originality about the entire contents which contrasts remarkably with other parls publications. We do not wonder Indies prize it; to them it is full of useful and interesting reading and information, besides containing many valuable specialities, in the way of patterns, etc., which can be got from no other source.
