DR. PAVID P. LOYER, OF PHILA-DELPHIA .- We are pleased to announce to our readers that this eminent physi. cian and surgeon will arrive in our town on the 16th of July, and remain until the 25th, when all persons in need of the medical or surgical attention of one who is a thorough master of his profession, will do well to give him a call. Read Dr. Beyer's bills; he promises nothing that he cannot perform, and from our knowledge of the man, we have no hesitancy in saying that no one will be disappointed in him. Dr. B. pays particu. lar attention to the diseases of females, and we especially recommend to them a careful reading of his circulars.

He has engaged rooms at the Hyde House, and will positively be here.

O's our outside page this week will be found an explanation of the infamous Registry Law, passed by the Radical Legislatree of this State last winter, - Lik Asle.

Will the Advocate man point out the "infamous portion of the law, or wherein the law is infamous? Also state if he is in faor of a pure and honest ballet, and if he is, what objections he has to this law, which is only intended to maintain the purity of the the next Advocate on Thursday, having franchise. No dodging, neighbor.-Gam-

-Our neighbor seems to be very dull of comprehension; he cortainly cannot have read the bill inquestion, or ment in to-day's Advocate. It speaks he would have seen that its whole drift and tenor was to put poor laboring men to useless tests and loss of time and momy to deposit their ballots. Let us take a financial view of it :

The cost of the infancy is quire a little item to be charged to "election expenses," being in the little county of Elk, FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS in addition to what it formerly cost. It keeps a laboring man at least two days away 1 from Lis daily avocations in order to excreise the right of Saying, who shall be trusted with office. We will suppose that there are 1000 laboring men in this county whose wages will average $1,50 per day per man. These men ia voting lose $3,00 a piece, making in all $3000. BURRAH FOR THE FOLDTH OF JULY. I his is quite an amount of money to be taken away from the industry of the

This is one infamy. The constitutional ity of the bill will be decided on the 1st proximo. We will, as Democrats, abide by that decision. The majority on the By reference to our advertise.
