Housing fair held at UP

by Christine McCammon
Public Relations-Behrend

Penn State's eighth annual Housing Fair for new students is planned for Friday, January 29 and Saturday, January 30, at Penn State's University Park campus, State College, PA.

The fair will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the HUB Ballroom and Fishbowl.

Those interested in off-campus housing may meet with apartment owners and managers from the State College area and take bus tours of off-campus apartments.

Student who would like to live on campus will be able to talk with representatives from University Housing and Food Services and take walking tours of residence halls. Members of the Association of Residence Hall Students will distribute coupons for reduced-price meals in the dining halls.

More than 50 exhibitors, including local merchants, will attend. In addition to housing options, new students will have the opportunity to meet representatives from Academic Advising, Career Development, Financial Aid, Academic Computing, child care agencies, and other services.

For more information about the Housing Fair, call (814) 863-1809.
