"Info-tainment?": The term was coined by David Letterman, but was a fairly accurate description of Sally Hunter's presentation, entitled Sex and the Single Voter. Hunter, an internationally known political consultant, informed a roomful of Behrend students and faculty of the various trials and tribulations involved in filming political "documericals", which are a cross between documentaries and commercials. Several outtakes of her documentaries also doubled as entertainment.

As many as ten followers of David Kesh, the radical cult leader, may be dead in Waco, Texas. Kesh had promised on Tuesday to surrender if a 58-minute statement would be aired, but reneged on his word after the statement was aired on radio stations across the nation. Kesh's excuse was that he had received word from God. Authorities stated that some of the children released said that at least seven cult members were killed in raids by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms. Four ATF officers were killed in Sunday's battle.

A $200,000 reward has been posted in New York City by the Port Authority and the City for anyone offering information leading to the arrest and conviction of the parties responsible for planting a bomb in the basement garage of the World Trade Center on February 26. The U.S. Embassy in Algeria reported that it had received threats of a bombing months ago, and the New York Police Commissioner believed that the threat was gone when the second deadline laid down by the terrorists had passed on January 26. One or two terrorists may have died in the explosion, and a van was used to plant the bomb.

A Monroeville, Alabama man who was sentenced to die 4 1/2 years ago for a crime he didn't commit, was released after a judge dropped all charges when finding out three of the witnesses had lied. He was freed Tuesday morning.

Bosnian Serbs massacred civilians and prevented the U.N. from evacuating 1500 sick and wounded people on Tuesday. The attacks were part of the Serbs' final offensive against the weaning Muslim resistance in the area around Cerska, near the Bosnian-Serbian border. Some Muslims trying to collect some of the American-dropped aid were picked off by Serbs, U.N. officials said.

In North East today, two buses, two tractor-trailers, and ten cars were involved in a pileup due to foggy weather and icy roads. Seven students were transported to area hospitals at the scene, and eight were sent to medical centers after examination by paramedics.

The Girard school district is accepting bids for four rifles owned by the district. They were formerly used in the 1950s and 1960s for an intramural rifle club, in which members fired at targets. The rifles are .22 caliber.
