This year was different. The Behrend College Hall of Fame induction ceremony was held off campus at the Bel-Aire Hotel last Saturday.

Of this year's ceremony, Sports Information Director Paul Benim said, "This year's ceremony was special because to see them come back 10, 15, 20 years later and to feel this heart-felt emotion about what athletics meant to them at Behrend College, you kind of get chills listening to the words of what this means to people."

The inductees for this year were Gary Borowy, Rhonda Carlson, James Channas, Julio DiMarco, John Jageman, Paul Jazenski, Tony Orlando and Ron Williams.

Jageman was an honorary inductee for his service to Behrend athletics. He is solely responsible for supplying the Nautilus equipment that is used by all the students, faculty and staff of Penn State-Behrend.

He established the Pauline Ulrich Jageman Fitness Room located in Erie Hall, in loving memory of his wife. He also was the recipient of the 1991 Richard Dill Service Award, presented annually to the person who has provided outstanding volunteer service to Penn State-Behrend Athletics.

He is an avid supporter of athletics and a lifelong friend of the Behrend community.

Borowy graduated from University Park in 1973 after he made his career in basketball history at Behrend.

His success is impressive because he compiled several honors. In only two years at Behrend he averaged 22 ppg., the second highest ppg. average in 33 years of college basketball history at Behrend.

He also led his team in 1970 to the Penn State Commonwealth Campus Championship and was named to the All-Tourney team in two consecutive seasons.

Carlson was inducted for her success in three sports, basketball, tennis and volleyball. She was captain of the women's basketball team in the 1972 and 1973 seasons. In the 1973-74 season she received the White Letter Award for basketball, which was a symbol for the most valuable player.

Carlson has turned her college career sports into real life. She has become a successful basketball coach in the Erie area at every level of competition.

Channas, was the captain of the Behrend soccer team for the two years he spent here. He led Behrend to two consecutive Commonwealth Campus Championships in 1970 and 1971.

He also was named the 1970 Penn State-Behrend Athlete of the Year and was honored with All-Region status by the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA).

DiMarco was a wrestler for two years at Behrend. During those two years he compiled a record of 21-2 in dual meets. He was named Academic All-American in 1972 and the following year, under Hall of Fame member Coach Ed Onorato, he finished sixth in the NJCAA Championships.

Jazenski was another standout wrestler for two years at Behrend under Coach Ed Onorato. He was a two-time Commonwealth Campus Champion in 1971 and 1972.

In 1972 he finished third in the NJCAA Regional Tournament and he finished fifth in the National Tournament, which is the highest in school history. In that same year he was awarded Athlete of the Year.

Orlando was a member of the soccer team for four years. He was honored as a second team NAIA All-American selection. He was named a District 18 All-Star member in 1977-80 and he was a Regional All-American selection in 1978-80.

His presence alone made the soccer program excel, and in four seasons the soccer program won 28 games, including the 1977 team that won 8 games, the most in Behrend history.

Williams represented Behrend basketball for four years. In his junior year he led his team to 19 wins, a new record against four year competition.

He was named Behrend's 1979-80 Athlete of the Year. The next year, he captained the team to 18 wins and was recognized as the Most Outstanding College Athlete in Erie County. Also, in addition to his athletic success, Williams attained Dean's List status for four terms at Penn State-Behrend.
