Police Report

Criminal Trespass (update)

On Thursday, August 5, two juveniles were caught riding dirt bikes in the gorge at 2:30 p.m. They were charged with defiant trespass. On Thursday, October 14, the juveniles pled guilty to the charges. One was fined $100 and the other was given 20 hours of community service.

Harassment

On Monday, October 11, a student shoved another student during an argument at 2:40 p.m. on the first floor of the Reed Building. Charges will be filed and the incident is under investigation.

SGA Report

The Student Government Leadership retreat held last weekend (October 15-17) was an overwhelming success. The retreat was held at Camp Judson. Approximately thirty student leaders attended the retreat. The activities ranged from seminars such as time management to roasting smores, to watching Dia Harris fall into Lake Erie. A good time was had by all.

Sincere thanks to the following individuals:

- Dave Shields
- Teryl Anderson
- Lori Korman
- Mike Libidinsky
- Chris Reber
- Dianna Malinowski
- Wendy Martinec
- Stacey McCoy
- Sam Epps

The workstudy staff of Student Activities and especially Al Vogan for his Gourmet Cooking.

Each student will have a senator sending him a letter to make it easier to voice concerns to SGA.

SGA will be cosponsoring the Friday Fiesta with OLAS. The event will be held in Bruno's on October 29 beginning at 8:00 p.m. and it is a part of Multi-Cultural Week.
