This past weekend the Penn State-Behrend men's tennis team competed in the Great Lakes Small College Championships held at the Westwood Raquet Club in Erie.

The event featured eight NCAA Division III schools including Grove City, Nazareth, Fredonia, Carnegie Mellon, John Carroll, Elmira and Thiel.

The Lions garnered two championships throughout the event, both coming off the capable racket of much-improved junior Karl Van Tassel.

Van Tassel, battling until two o'clock in the morning on Saturday, defeated a Grove City player to earn a well deserved singles victory in the fourth singles flight.

Van Tassel came back strong on Sunday to edge CMU in the shootout singles competition.

Junior Paul Young, sophomore Brian Foht, and freshman Tim McCaan all bowed out in the semifinals of their respective singles flight.

Young and Foht also advanced to the finals in the third flight doubles draw, falling to John Carroll in the championship match.
