

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Roman, furious that John bugged the DiMera mansion against his wishes, was skeptical that Peter's end of the taped phone conversation proved Stefano was still alive. Bo pointed out that in Billie's testimony she said the words "check" and "checkmate," terms she never used, but Stefano did. Marlana agreed that Billie, who had been drugged that night, may have attributed someone else's words to herself over guilt for her father. Because she was never divorced from Curtis, David, the lawyer, told Kate her marriage to Victor may not be valid. Victor revealed that Kate had two children living in Salem. Upset that Austin might be his half brother, Lucas accused him of trying swindle money from Kate.

ANOTHER WORLD: Matt got Donna to admit she loves him. John's passionate plea persuaded Kate to stay in Bay City with Tomas and Luisa. As Vicky tried to get information on Grant at the club, Ian warned Ryan she was in dangerous territory. Frankie broke her crystals and talismans after breaking through her denial over Charlie's condition. Rachel told the family meeting about her relationship with Carl and about Cory Publishing. Later, Carl fired Jake, who chained himself to his desk. Amanda and Iris secretly banded together to fight Carl. Kate passed out from an allergic reaction to the soup she ate with Kelsey. Wait To See: John makes a curious discovery about Kate.

day. They snuck into a closed men's room for a passion break, unaware that Buzz and Pauly were hiding there. Later, Pauly and Buzz argued about the money. Pauly decked him and pounded on the locker until Cutter arrived to arrest him. Ross was upset to learn Vanessa told Dinah (their daughter) not to come to Springfield. Ross agreed to be Bridget's lawyer in her attempt to reverse Peter's adoption. Wait To See: Gilly and Sid recall the past

LOVING: Ava remained in a deep coma. Alex told Kate Ava had signed a living will. Angie was upset to learn the needle that pricked her skin came from an IV drug abuser who refused to take a blood test. Shana took a new legal case while Leo looked after Patti. Dr. Lynch told Curtis Dante had died. Dinah Lee hoped the news would end Curtis' nightmares. Jeremy urged a comatose Ava to fight for her life

ONE LIFE TO LIVE: After seeing Powell and Rebecca kiss, Todd destroyed the garden shed in a jealous rage. Cassie was devastated to learn she couldn't have children. Viki caught Dorian trying to open Victor's crypt so she could desecrate the body to foil the planned autopsy. Dorian's bail was revoked and she was sent back to jail to await her trial. Max entered a high-stakes poker game at the casino. The medical examiner got evidence supporting Ethel's claim that Dorian suffocated Victor.

SOAP UPDATES

YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS: Paul felt sure Robert's taped conversation with Heather could show that April believed he threatened her child. April told Paul she felt she had to stop him. Paul told her Christine would be their lawyer. April was later picked out in a lineup by a maid who said she was the woman she saw coming out of Robert's room. Hope shared Victor's joy at learning Cole was not his son. Nikki, however, was upset at the news. After finding Nate with Olivia, Nathan charged that she had encouraged Lillie to take the child. He then forcibly removed the baby from a sobbing Olivia. Wait To See: The search for Victoria goes in an unexpected direction.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: Luke and Laura found Jennifer, Frank Smith's daughter, in Atlantic City. Damian told Bobbie that he had more on his mind than developing a friendship with her. Lucy, meanwhile, came up with a brainstorm for the Nurse's Ball. After telling Ned to treat Lois well, Brenda fantasized about Sonny. Felicia puzzled over Miguel's soothing voice as he sang to her daughter, Maxie.

GUIDING LIGHT: Julie was named Spring Fiesta Queen. Hoping to dampen her crush, Frank told her a story which Julie misinterpreted. As Ross and Blake awaited Dinah's arrival at the airport, they agreed they wanted a child of their own one
