IN THE BLEACHERS

by Steve Moore

"... So they wear bright red vests, fluorescent hats and clunky boots and then try to sneak up on us? Excuse me. Do I have 'stupid' written all over my face?"

"Whoa, whoa, whoa! ... Word to the wise: You really don't want to walk around barefoot in this locker room."

Byron Thorne named to Division III All-America Team

Byron Thorne, received an "Honorable Mention" to the All-America Team selected by the D III News, the monthly newsletter of Division III Men's Basketball.

Thorne, who averaged 22.7 points per game this year, 6.4 rebounds per game, 4.2 assists per game, 2.8 steals per game, and is second all-time in points scored at Behrend with 1368, is the first men's basketball player ever at Behrend to receive All-American honors.

"I am elated for Byron. I can't think of a person more deserving of such an honor," said Chris Gilmartin, Behrend head basketball coach. "What an appropriate way for him to leave his mark on our basketball program."

Thorne shot over 50 percent for his career, and is in the top ten of twelve different categories at Behrend, including number one all-time in career steals with 171, number three all-time in steals in a season with 71, number three all-time in career assists with 321, and number two all-time in points in a season with 568.

He also had 444 career rebounds and is number two all-time in field goals made in a career with 543.

Penn State-Behrend names Dave Niland as new men's basketball coach

Earlier this month, Athletic Director Herb Lauffer announced that Behrend had hired the new men's basketball coach, Dave Niland.

Niland has spent the last four basketball seasons at Canisius College in Buffalo, NY. He served two years as a graduate assistant and two years as the first assistant.

His main responsibilities at Canisius included running the preseason conditioning program, monitoring the academic progress of his student athletes and recruiting.

Along with his coaching responsibilities, Niland will be a lecturer of health and physical education.

No assistant coaches have been named yet.
