"Kill, kill! She loves to kill the ball," is what Coach Jan Wilson said about our Athlete of the Week, Carrie Grzejka. "She really loves to put the ball away hard."

Last Thursday against Hilbert, the senior co-captain of the volleyball team broke the all-time Penn State-Behrend record for kills in a career. With kill number 901, Grzejka broke the record of 900 held previously by Erica Scribner.

"Kill, kill! She loves to kill the ball."

Upon finding out that she had broken the record she said that she felt great. She added that it would be one of her greatest memories of playing at Behrend.

"She's really determined and a very disciplined worker," Wilson said about her star hitter. "She's not one to go running around clapping and cheering. She's the type of player kids follow just by her play."

Coach Wilson said that Grzejka has worked hard and made drastic improvements since her first year.

Practice, practice, practice: Grzejka has improved her all-around game.

Grzejka agreed and said, "When I first came (to Behrend) I only knew how to hit. Now I run plays and lead the team."

And this year Grzejka has led the team well. One hundred and one of her 905 career kills have come in 13 matches this year, including a season high 18 in a game against Case Western Reserve. In addition to the kills, she also has 63 blocks in helping to lead Behrend to a 8-5 record.

Before coming to Behrend,

Grzejka played volleyball for Union City High School. Now, she is a senior majoring in plastics engineering technology. Upon graduation she hopes to "get a good job with my degree."

Coach Wilson had a quote in her office that said, "Winners are just ordinary people with extraordinary determination."

When asked if this was true about Grzejka Wilson said, "Yes, definitely. Carrie is very determined (to win)."
