

Jose and Boutros Food Critics

Casa de Coney

by Jose' Mottillo (Pronounced Moe-t- ho) and R.C. Campbell (Pronounced Boutros-Boutros)
Collison Food Coniser...

One of the finest dining establishments in the greater metropolis of Wesleyville is Coney Island. Coney is noted for its fabulous dining room, fine entertainment (jukebox and video game), and lastly, its stupendous menu.

After partying until well into the morning, R.C. and I travelled to that place that some old lady that sits on the corner calls her home. After fighting through a pack of dwellers of Wesleyville, we made it inside. The faded grease stained walls illuminates the establishment from the bare neon lights that hang on the same ceiling of the fly strips.

A lone picture against the faded antique walls, "The U.S. Brig Niagra" marks the history of this diner that has entertained students at Behrend for years. The dinner conversation went as follows:

R.C.- Someone clean the damn table?

J.M.- I think I'm going to be sick!

R.C.- What the hell was in that keg?

J.M.- What keg?

R.C.- (whispering) Oh yeah. (Maitre' d arrives)

Coneyite- Monsieurs, bon jour. May I take your orders and show you the water list?

R.C.- No thanks, I would like two greek cheeseburgers, a greek fry with cheese, and water

J.M.- Same for me, Where the hell is the bathroom?

The bathroom is a chipped baby blue door with a toilet that Admiral Perry might have hurled in. The puke might still be there.)

Man sitting behind the two with a red neck and long greasy hair, a thin inbred sits next to him chewing on the napkin dispenser- Why don't you two watch your mouths, Let's go outside!

R.C.- I'll kick your $$$ myself (burp!) I've been to this restaurant before.

J.M.- (pointing with his index finger and his pinky) Man... don't make me get violent. I know seven forms of hitting in the face with my fries.

WHAM!!!

Fifteen minutes later and minus the entire Wesleyville police force:

R.C- Joe, how many cops do you think there were? Six, two, maybe one.

J.M.- I, uhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh- hhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh (through a busted lip), could have taken the cops. They're lucky my food arrived.

Getting back to the food. Russ and I both recommend Jose' Mottillo and R.C. Campbell wield there knives (and a gun (bad, bad, Boutros)) and the tastes to the Wesleyville four star restaurant - The Coney Island. Read the review to your left and find out how they found the main entrees.

the greek cheese burger (with everything on it), greek fry (same way) and the gum in the machine outside. Afterwards we can guarantee a bowel movement that will border on mystical and beware it might last for a few days especially depending on how much beer you drink. After paying for this meal(which came to under a case of Beast), plus getting first aid, Russ and I headed back to the respective ranches to pass out.

ONEY TRIVIA:

How long have the pie slices been sitting in their display?

How often is the grill cleaned? Did George Washington once camp there?

Is it true that you should be intoxicated to eat at Coney?

Yo, dudes, this is only a joke. If you think this is real, then you need to have your head examined. If you think this is real, you have been eating to much of Dobbin's food. If you think this is real, you have been in the Biology labs to long. Lighten up, get with the grove and enjoy you April Fool's Day. The staff members of The Collegian.

O.J. Update

ANOTHER WORLD: Rachel told Carl that "after tonight" Robert Shapiro will be powerless. Jake and Paulina disarmed Marcia Clark and turned her over to the police. Wait to see: OJ gets to dance in court.

BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL: Johnny Cochran and F. Lee Bailey struggle to see who is correct in the contest for what color underwear Judge Ito wears, and if Marcia Clark wears leather dog collars or not. Wait to see: F. Lee Bailey bends over for $50.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Due to the ongoing saga of the O.J. Simspon hearing, the producers of 'Days' have decided that instead of having the devil possess Marlana, they are having Kato Kailin possess her. Wait to see: Marlana says it was a white stallion, not a white bronco.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: Mark Harmon comes back from the dead. Rick Springfield rocks with John Stamps, and Jack Wagner gets pregnant. All while Tristan Rogers falls madly in love with a kangaroo. Wait to see: Nothing, due to the explicit material shown last week, General Hospital has wound up in its morgue.

OLD AND THE LISTLESS: (ALSO KNOWN AS THE MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL SEASON) Due to the baseball strike, the players have been replaced by players twice their age. This has hence become an appropriate soap opera, or comedy opera for the real baseball players. Wait to see: The fans fall asleep in the half empty baseball stadiums.

All other Soap Operas have been cancelled due to the growing concern, by the FCC, in having quality shows. The FCC mandates that no quality show will be shown on national television for the fear that it will compete with Court TV's ratings.

THIS IS NOT A JOKE.

THIS IS NOT A JOKE.

THIS IS NOT A JOKE.

Photo by The Office of Development and University Relations.

Matchbox Players presents the "Imaginary Cuckold," a classic Moliere farce, performed in the Penn State-Behrend Studio Theater. The play officially opens Friday, March 31 at 8:00 p.m. Additional performances are scheduled for Saturday, April 1; Thursday, April 6; Friday, April 7; Saturday, April 8 at 8:00 p.m. Two matinees are scheduled for Sunday, April 2 and Sunday, April 9 at 2:30 p.m. There will be a free student performance on Thursday, March 30 at 8:00 p.m. For ticket information or to make reservations call the Studio Theater at 898-6279. Shown in the photo are Kim McIlwain, Matt Milroth and David Bridl.

THIS IS NOT A JOKE. THIS IS NOT A JOKE. THIS IS NOT A JOKE.