

The Imaginary Invalid

This year's theater production opens on May 6, 1995 and will run daily through the summer. Tickets are free and the performance will start when there is an actual audience. The actors are doing this out of their own good nature and because they have nothing better to do with their summer vacation. Please humor them and come to see their production.

THIS IS NOT A JOKE SERIOUSLY, THIS IS THE WAY TO PUT A CONDOM ON

BY THE WAY, PLEASE DON'T GET THE PAPER WET

The right way to use a condom

1. Place the rolled-up condom on the end of the erect penis. Hold the tip of the condom (about a half-inch) to squeeze out the air. This leaves room for the semen to collect after ejaculation.

2. Keep holding the tip of the condom with one hand. With the other hand, unroll the condom down the length of the erect penis. (Uncircumcised men should first pull back the foreskin.)

3. Unroll the condom all the way down to the pubic hair.

4. Put the condom on before entering your partner.

5. You can use a water-based lubricant (check the label or ask a pharmacist) such as K-Y Lubricating Jelly or Today Personal Lubricant. Oil-based lubricants like mineral oil, baby oil, vegetable oil, petroleum jelly, cold cream, or vaseline should not be used, since they can damage the condom.

6. Right after ejaculation (a) hold onto the condom as you (b) pull out while the penis is still erect.

Sutton scores

by Sverre Sears and Herve LaPointe
Panther Defensemen

The Athlete of the Week is Chad Sutton. Chad had an outstanding year on the court. Said Chad of his abilities, "It wasn't that I played good, it was that I looked good. That's all that really counts."

Sutton was born in Moose Jaw, Manitoba and went to Deer Bladder High School. Chad averaged 45.9 points per game for the Infections. Said Sutton, "I was the man. I couldn't be stopped. Of course a bunch of penguins didn't play man-to-man that well."

Sutton most memorable game was against the Spooners of Grand Forks High (N. Dakota). "I only scored seven points, but somehow managed five technical fouls," said Sutton in an upbeat mood.

In his free time, Chad likes to walk his chitzu on Presque Isle. "It's tough when It, the name of the dog, does it, I have to clean it up. The pooper scooper is really heavy, but it helps with my jumper."

Chad favorite foods are strawberry shortcake, donuts, and filet mignon. "I feel the war in Somalia was unjust," said Chad of something that wasn't even discussed.

Since coming to Behrend, Chad has become homesick. "The games aren't the same as back home. They actually play defense." His scoring is down 46.1 ppg at Behrend compared to Moose Jaw.

Concluded Sutton, "Let's rock down to electric avenue and then I'll take it higher." What did Chad mean, I have no idea!

Screwy Softball

by Phil McCracken
The Yard Dog

Nine players on a softball field. People must be insane in order to play softball in Erie, Pennsylvania. But they love the sport, even in the snow.

Let's talk about a team of nicknames; from 'The Big Dog,' 'Fish,' 'Hoona,' 'Cheeks,' and of course, The Young Guns (who are now juniors, and no longer young, but don't tell them that.)

Shucks, there's even an Angel in the infield, clueless complainers at first base, and a true freshman behind the plate.

This is among the list of female athletes at Penn State-Behrend, you know, where the men are men and the women are champions?

And of course, if you didn't have to change anything about a winning team, you wouldn't. But, as Peter Brady says, "when's it's time to change you've got to rearrange." But Christopher Knight (Peter, in The Brady Bunch) isn't the one doing the changing; our Dean is.

So, in protest, Lady Lion catcher Emmy Arnett (one of the Young Guns) is planning on taking her pick-up truck and turfing the softball field with an opposing team on it. I would hate to be the field crew the next morning. Hey Varrassa, grab the plunger.

Becky Reed, a second of three Young Guns, is suspected to be a part of Arnett's scam. But it has been reported that Reed doesn't want to take part due to the fact that no games may be played on Behrend turf for a while.

No more games? Then no more outfield obsentities when balls go straight over their heads, no more slackers at third base, and no more blondies on the pitching mound. Ooooh boy.

But I think the most important thing these kids want at the end of their softball season is their coaching staff. They know who they are. They know their players have nothing but respect for these guys who call themselves "World Leader Pretend" and "The Reverend." And that's no joke.

Give me dedicated coaches for $800 please, Alex.

So when you see a softball player in one of your classes, in the mail room, in the Gorge or computer lab, give 'em a hug! Except, of course, if you're name is John.

When the task has yet begun, never leave it 'till it's done. Be the labor great or small, do it well or not at all.

I heard that somewhere, but I can't remember where. Pretty catchy, eh?

1...2...3...team...Repeat after me, 1...2...3...team...14 players and 2 coaches, to be exact.

If it ain't broke, don't fix it.
