sent a letter, dated April 4, to the college departments and Student Activities offices announcing their disappointment with student and administrative support of the MCC activities.

The letter outlined specific undesirable practices and attitudes, then requested a meeting designed to address problem areas.

Until problems are resolved, members of MCC have vowed to boycott all programs put on by Student Activities, Student Affairs, and this Administration.

There was no discussion pertaining to the letter.

The budget committee met last night with the expectation of finishing all recommendations. Once completed, recommendations will be announced in The Collegian.

An amendment to Article 8, Section 1 of the Constitution will read that elections shall be held on the first day of week 8 and the last day of week 14 of spring semesters. Up until now, elections have been held on the first day of week 8 and the last day of week 12.

The office of Paula Persichetti announced during the meeting that no more funding requests will be taken after April 15. Even emergency requests will be denied so clubs and organizations are encouraged to apply for monies before the April 15 deadline.

April 13 at 5 p.m. is still the deadline for Student Government petitions. A "Meet the Candidates" reception will be held Tuesday April 18 and elections take place on April 19 and 20.
