Egg Hunt thanks

A special thanks should go out to the Multi-Cultural Council, Veterans Affairs, Sigma Tau Gamma, Kappa Delta Rho and the RUB desk for the 1st annual easter egg hunt that was held on Saturday, April 15, 1995 in the Reed Wintergarden. My two children Steven and Kayla really enjoyed themselves. The organizations were so friendly and made sure that all the children got eggs.

Thank you! I just thought that they should be recognized for their efforts.

Need know how

As you may have noticed all over campus, it is election time for SGA officers again. Some of the ads are very colorful and thought-provoking, and some like to point to the diversity of the ticket they are running for, but when it comes time to vote, what are we supposed to consider? Here is a little thought from someone who sat on the SGA senate for two years: as students we need to elect officers that know the job and know how to do it well. Sorry to say that this isn't a time to vote for your friends. SGA officers should have attended a meeting or two, and be aware of the limitations that SGA has. For example, SGA does not control the prices in the Gorge or the cable in the dorms. As students we can complain all we want, but SGA does not have the capacity to control these issues. Anyone concerned enough would know that speakers were invited to answer questions and to talk about these issues this semester. Not like it is a surprise to any Behrend student, but University Park holds the big guns. New ideas are great and refreshing, but without the knowledge and know how, government can be a dangerous thing.

Job well done

I want to commend the students and organizations who helped to put together the Egg Hunt this past weekend. My two sons, Seth and Shane had a wonderful time. Not only did they enjoy themselves, but they are still talking about it.

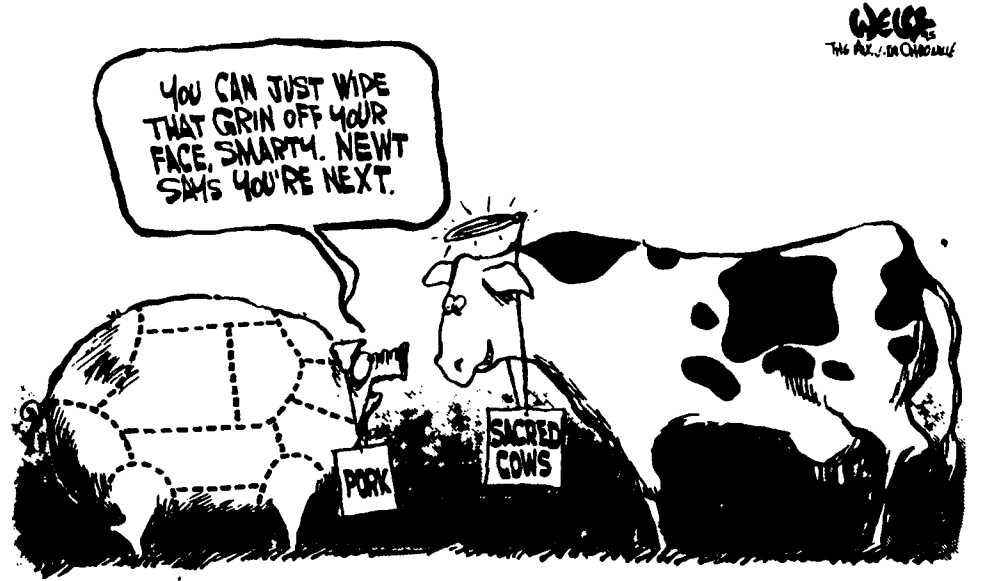

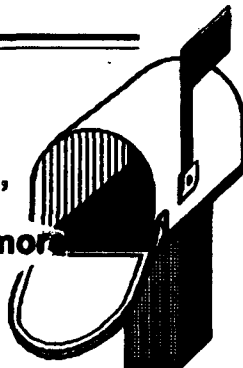

It was a definite plus that the Egg Hunt was inside because it was a very cold day. In addition, the people were very helpful in a friendly sort of way. They were willing to help search for eggs, paint their faces, or just talk with the kids. The extra attention they gave made the Egg Hunt all the worth while.

Everyone was very helpful, kind and made the day a whole lot nicer.
