SGA Report

by Sean Siikkinen
Collegian Staff

The Student Government Association holds its weekly meeting every Wednesday at 5:30 in Reed conference room 114.

Penn State's proposed stipend for SGA executive board members, which would be funded by next year's tuition increase, was debated at last night's meeting. In his President's Report, Timothy Mallon announced that he would be voting in favor of a CCSG proposal to support the stipend at the upcoming CCSG meeting.

But SGA later voted to require all Behrend CCSG representatives to vote against such a proposal. Senators Steve Landon and Demetrius Reeves will be attending the CCSG meeting along with Mallon.

Ex-treasurer Kory Kreider petitioned SGA for $200 as payment for time spent training her two replacements earlier this semester. Although Kreider had put in over 40 hours after resigning, and had relinquished her entire second semester stipend despite working through January, SGA voted without objection to deny her request. An amended motion to give Kreider $50 was also defeated.

Senators Jody Joy and Mike Anderson resigned from SGA due to academic problems.

The student life committee will meet in the Gorge at 5:15 p.m. on March 18. The budget committee will meet at 9:30 a.m. on March 19.

March 25 is the petition deadline for new SGA candidates. Elections will be held two weeks later.

The Collegian would like your help. All business and accounting majors are welcome to apply for Business Manager of The Collegian.

The paper is looking for a full time student who is interested in learning about the financial affairs of a newspaper.

If you are interested, drop your resume and a paragraph telling why you think you can do it in The Collegian's mailbox in the SGA suite.

In need of a date?

Singled Out is Coming!!

Co-sponsored by SPC & NSBE

One lucky male and female will win the chance to pick from 50 contestants to go on a paid dinner for 2 at the Olive Garden.

To be one of the two lucky people, all you have to do is: write a paragraph (no more than a page please!), typed or written legibly on why you need a date. Send all entries to Box 875.

** The winning paragraph from the male and female will have to pay $2 each when notified of winning.

To be a contestant, there will be a table in front of the Gorge for two days only!! The cost is $2 per person.

REMEMBER, only 50 guys and 50 girls ....so, first come, first served. Good luck!
