

Georg, Good lead VB team to win

by Justin Bender

The Lady Lions went out in style this past weekend crushing the Washington, York and Messiah teams to win the Messiah Invitational Volleyball Tournament.

On the weekend, Coach Sharon Gregory said, "We did an excellent job. Everyone played with great emotion and determination."

The tournament was set up in a round robin format. To get to the final match, Behrend, first, had to beat Washington and York.

Washington was the first to go down.

The Lady Lions beat on the powdered wigs for three straight games: 15-2, 15-6, 15-12.

Two of the Behrend spankers set new standards during this match.

Erin McCormick broke the record for kills in a season and Angie Georg broke 1,000 assists on the season. Amy Good, 10 kills and 10 digs, and Heather Lerch, 9 digs, each also had a good match.

Next, York stood in the Lion's path. They put up a great fight, but fell short in the end, 11-15, 15-9, 15-9, 11-15, 15-9.

"Nobody wanted to end the season with a loss. We played really hard to win against York" said Beth Calhoun.

McCormick, Good and Lerch led the offensive attack, while Jessica Brody dug everything hit her way.

Georg piled up 40 assists on the match.

This led the Behrend women into the championship game against a tough Messiah team.

"This game had some intense rallies. We played excellent defense, nothing hit the floor" said Coach Gregory.

Messiah went down in four games, 15-7, 15-13, 7-15, 15-9.

Good led the flawless defense as well as the attack with 17 digs and 14 kills. Georg also played well dishing out 30 assists.

Georg and Good were rewarded for their great play by landing spots on the All-Tournament Team. But Coach Gregory was quick to point out, "Everyone contributed. This was a very well deserved team win."

Behrend finished out the season winning 12 of their last 15 games. Their final record was a very respectable 20-17. "We finished out the season really strong. Hopefully next season we'll be able to pick up where we left off" said Calhoun.

Ending on a winning note: The Lady Lions had a successful ending to their 1996 season as they won the Messiah Tournament. Behrend finished the season at 20-17.

Fan Jam

It's getting closer to the Penn State Behrend Lion and Lady Lion Basketball season.

The first chance for the fans to get a look at the two teams this year will be at Penn State-Behrend's Fan Jam on November 16th.

It'll be Blue-White night at Erie Hall as the women's basketball team will scrimmage for twenty minutes and then the men will scrimmage for the next twenty minutes.

But that is only the beginning of the fun. Fans will have a chance to shoot from various places on the floor to win many prizes. Up for grabs with the swish of the net are a thirteen inch color television, NFL Tickets, four season passes to basketball home games, a gift certificate to the Penn State-Behrend bookstore, a gift certificate to the Gorge, and free Whoppers and Fries.

Everyone at the Behrend Fan Jam will be a winner because everyone will be in for some excitement. In addition to the in-depth preview they will get of the 1996-97 Lions and Lady Lions, all fans in attendance will get free pizza and soda.

Coming up next week in the Collegian, we'll have a preview of the Lions and Lady Lions 1996-97 team as well as the men's version of the Brian Busey column.

Be sure to join the Lions and Lady Lions for the Penn State-Behrend Fan Jam on November 16th at 7:00 p.m. in Erie Hall. Admission is free and you may walk out with much more. For more information call the Athletic Office at (814) 898-6163.
