The Penn State Behrend Lions finished a very impressive season of basketball the weekend before Spring Break with a 66-50 loss to Johns Hopkins University in the ECAC Southern Region Semifinals. With the loss the Lions finished up the year at 15-11.

The Lions used an 11-21 shooting performance from the floor to take a two point half-time at 32-30.

But the Lions made just seven shots from the floor in the second half. They were doubled up 36-18 in scoring as they dropped the game and bowed out of the tournament.

Andy Lawrence, WJET's (Channel 24) Athlete of the Week, scored a team high twenty points for the Lions. Steve Hout added twelve, Jason Paloskey had 10, and Ron Derian, playing in his last collegiate game had six points and six boards.

Matt Gorman notched 22 for Johns Hopkins as fourteen different players were out on the floor as compared to only nine for Behrend.

The loss ended an excellent year of Behrend basketball. The Lions were standing at 9-9 on Feb. 8 before going on a season ending hot streak winning six of seven to make the playoffs.

This season was also the last for senior forward Ron Derian. He battled through injury this year averaging 9.9 ppg and grabbing 6.6 rpg to help lead the Lions.

The Lions will return all but Derian and Joe Kissane next year. Steve Hout will be the only senior and the team will have a lot of talent.

Congratulations on a great season, Lions. Included below are the final season stats as well as a game-by-game look back at the 96-97 campaign.
