Candidates for senate

I would like to be involved in SGA because I feel that my other organizational involvement gives me an opportunity to serve as a sounding board for students. I would like to be able to act on their suggestions.

--Christa Buchholz
06, Communication and Media Studies

I would like to represent the students' views on situations pertaining to the lives of the students.

--Craig Dombkowski
02, Accounting

I feel that commuters need better representation on campus. I also want to put more pressure on the university to see better parking conditions for the $95 we pay every year.

--Dennis Dombkowski
07, MIS

I would like to run for SGA to be more involved with the activities of the college. Also, I feel I can bring ideas, opinions of the student life and activities, and an open-mind.

--Kelly Ebricht
08, Communication

I want to be a senator to voice my opinion and make a difference for the student body.

--Mandy Elder
06, Management

I want to give a voice for engineering students.

--Shawn Goodwin
05, EET

I would like to get more involved with the Behrend community.

--Karen Healy
04, Communication

As a senator for the student government, I want to be a voice for student concerns.

I want to reinforce the rights we have, so that we may be involved in decisions concerning us, the students.

--Ayodele Jones
02, Political Science

From mud-slinging to baby kissing, elections bring out the best in all political hopefuls.

For Behrend's Student Government Association, next week's elections will hopefully bring out voters.

To place your vote for the future of Behrend's SGA, elections are April 22 and 23 in the Reed Union Building.

Candidates were asked to submit statements describing their qualifications for office and their plans for SGA if elected. Those that responded appear.

SGA Elections April 22 and 23 Reed Union Building

I think that many students, including myself, have problems that need addressed.

--Allison McNutt
06, Psychology

I want to be re-elected to SGA because as a senator. I feel that I have represented the needs the needs and concerns of the student body at Behrend will and will continue to do so if re-elected.

--Charles Testrake
02, Political Science

I am running to get involved in student life on campuses.

-Previously held SGA senate seat.

-I have experience in the processes involved in government.

--Douglas Watkins
02, MIS

Other candidates for SGA senate:

John Davis
Erin Edinger
Walter Goedicke
Brian Lindner

Candidate for secretary

Michelle Benjamin

Candidates for president and vice-president

As president I would like to, with the help of my VP Tim Smith, bring SGA back to the students. The SGA must become a vehicle for attaining the interests of the students.

--Michael Zampetti, candidate for president
04, History with INTST minor

-Offers leadership experience from service in the Marine Corps (7 years)

-Previous SGA experience (this year)

-Major goals are to involve the student population in the manners they choose to employ. Basically, we will utilize an open door policy so that students can address the president or the VP individually with their concerns. (Mainly because senate meetings for student forums can be inconvenient or intimidating.)

-Secondly, we wish to work with the administration on ensuring funds are used to benefit the majority of the campus community while still taking care of special interest groups.

--Timothy A. Smith, candidate for VP
05, Psychology with history minor

IN TIMES LIKE THESE,
WE SHOULD ALL
TIGHTEN OUR BELTS.

It's a fast-paced, fast-track, fast-lane kind of world out there. Which is why everyone should buckle their safety belts and buckle them firmly. Because you never know when you might need a little extra security.
