Four different players earn AMCC individual honors

The Behrend Spikers finished up their season in dramatic fashion last Saturday, losing a heartbreaker to rival Frostburg State in the AMCC championship match held at Penn State - Behrend, by scores of 15-14, 15-14, 11-15, 10-15, and 10-15.

The loss leaves the Spikers with a second place finish in the AMCC conference and a 19-16 overall record.

"It was disappointing to lose the championship, but the team has nothing to hold their heads down about," said head coach Cindy Jacobelli. "They won the regular season title, and had four representatives on the All-Conference selections, including player of the year," she added.

In order to get to the championship, the Behrend Spikers had to first go through Pitt-Bradford in the semi-finals.

Pitt-Bradford provided a little bit more of a challenge than expected, as they took Behrend to four games before they were finally brought down, to boost Behrend up into the championship game.

The scores of the match were 15-8, 9-15, 15-10, and 15-3.

Erin McCormick led the offense with 17 kills, while Mary Good came through with 13 kills and 9 digs. Angie Georg also chipped in with 34 assists.

kills and 18 digs. Erin McCormick also had a big day offensively coming through with 18 kills, while Angie Georg had an unbelievable 56 assists.

"It was an incredible match," said senior captain Angie Georg. "Although we came up a bit short, we can all go out knowing that we tried as hard as we possibly could."

Although the season didn't end on the most positive of note, four separate Lions came away with different AMCC honors.

Senior Angie Georg came through very big, winning the AMCC Player Of The Year award, while seniors Amy Good and Erin McCormick earned a spot on the AMCC All-Conference Team. Last but not least, sensational freshman Mary Good ran away with the AMCC Rookie Of The Year honors.

"No team can weigh their entire season on one match, so I hope that this years team is remembered for their excellent accomplishments. This is a great team," said head coach Cindy Jacobelli.

Next up for the Spikers was their championship match against Frostburg. The two teams had split their matches in the regular season, each winning at home.

Although the Lions controlled the match early on, Frostburg proved to be too much as they came back to dramatically win the last three games and the match.

Amy Good had an amazing 27 kills and 19 digs, while sister Mary Good came through with 19

Yippee! Members of the women's volleyball team rejoice after showing a nice display of teamwork.

Athlete of the Week

Helmkamp is named AMCC All Conference Defender

Thomas Helmkamp, a student from Germany, played a key role in leading the men's soccer team to the AMCC title last week, and thus earned the Housing and Food Service Athlete of the Week honors.

Helmkamp played excellent defense and scored the Lions only goal in the 1-0 victory over Frostburg State in the championship game, to help lead the Lions to the AMCC championship title. Helmkamp made the AMCC All Conference team this year and was named the All Conference Defender of the year. The Lions finished the year with a 12-8 record.

Come get it! AMCC Player Of The Year Angie Georg records one of her many assists on the year during a past contest.
